$1,700,000 LAND DEALS COMPLETED

Playter Tract on Broadway Purchased by G. H. Clark for $700,000; Improvement Is Aim of Buyer

Roos Bros. Sign $1,000,000 Lease For 4-Story Block to Replace Albany Building; Cost Set At $350,000

Two deals in downtown business property in Oakland involving one million and three-quarters of dollars, were closed today, one meaning immediate improvement of the property, and the other ultimate improvement, so that Oakland ... in development as well as b... vestment.

The first deal is the purchase of that part of the Playter property not already occupied by the First National Bank Building, at the intersection of Broadway and San Pablo, by George H. Clark, for a sum approximating $700,000. Clark at one time was mayor of Sacramento.

ROOS BROTHERS LEASE BUILDING FOR MILLION.

The other deal was made by Roos Brothers with Clark and involves the erection of a building on Clark's property at the northeast corner of Broadway and Fifteenth street, where now stands the old Albany Block. This deal means the immediate wrecking of the Albany block and the construction thereon of new building to be occupied exclusively by Roos Brothers, under a lease for fifteen years, at an aggregate rental of more than one million dollars.

Both of these deals were consummated by Maiden & Rittigstein, who represented all parties in the transactions.

CLARK AN EARLY-DAY POWER IN SACRAMENTO.

The central figure in the entire transaction is George H. Clark, formerly of Sacramento. In the days of not so long ago Clark wa... a political power in Sacramento. He was the unbeatable man for coroner of Sacramento county, serving term after term until he thought he would like to be mayor of his home city. He was elected and came to be known as the unbeatable mayor, until he voluntarily retired.

Since that time Clark has made a fortune in business real estate in Sacramento, and he gradually extended his operations to Oakland. He still holds some valuable business property on K street in Sacramento, but about six years ago he bought the Albany block property in this city.

ROOS BROTHERS TO EXTEND BUSINESS HERE.

Roos Brothers have been looking for a larger location for their Oakland store, and for a long time considered buying. When the great war involved the United States the Roos brothers had almost completed the purchase of the property now occupied by Manheim and Mayor, on the southeast corner of Broadway and Fifteenth street. War restrictions stopped that deal, but since the armistice Roos Brothers have resumed looking for a new location that would afford them more room.

Work will be begun at once upon the new building, the plans for which are already in the hands of William Knowles, the architect, and are practically finished.

FOUR-STORY STRUCTURE WILL COST $350,000.

The new building will be four stories in height, and will cost $350,000 to construct.

This will give Roos Brothers the largest of their chain of stores in the city of Oakland.

The deal on the Playter property has been much of a mystery of late. A rumor of the deal has been current upon the streets of Oakland for some time, but all parties to the transaction have been extremely reticent, and no part of the rumor dealt with the name of Clark. Clark has no immediate plans for the property, which he will hold pending the development of plans for its improvement.

Hotel Help Strikes; Guests Cook Meals

BUDAPEST, Aug. 24.—The hotel employees of the capital have proclaimed a general strike following refusal of their demands for inclusion of a 10 per cent tip in all bills presented to guests. The guests, including a number of Americans, are being obliged to cook their own meals.

Actress Hurt

ITHACA, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Irene Castle, in private life known as Mrs. Robert E. Treman, was caught yesterday, under her falling horse and her collar bone was broken. While schooling a hunter for the New York Show, she was thrown at a barrier. Physicians say she will have to cancel all fall engagements.

$32,000,000 TO BE S. P. COAST SHARE

Improvements calling for an aggregate expenditure of $32,250,000 are assured the traveling public in the announcement of an extensive program of construction, betterment and addition to the facilities and equipment of the Southern Pacific Railroad company this year. The program as announced today by F. L. Burckhalter, assistant general manager, calls for new rails, ties and ballast to cost $11,300,000; locomotives to cost $4,500,000; new rolling stock, $12,500,000; new plant facilities, $700,000; improvements along Sierra Nevada mountains, $250,000; across the Tehachapi, $1,000,000, and $1,800,000 for enlarging tunnels.

During the course of the improvements 290 miles of track will be re-laid with 90-pound rails, more than two million and a half new cross ties will be installed and 800,000 cubic yards of crushed rock and slag will be put in for track ballast. A double track will be put in on the Tehachapi Pass, and new electric turntables will be constructed at Siskiyou and San Luis Obispo.

MORE SIDINGS BUILT IN HIGH SIERRAS.

In order to accomodate the long 55-car freight trains now being handled across the Sierra Nevada mountains by the mammoth Mallet type locomotives, the Southern Pacific is constructing extensions to sidings at Crystal Lake, Cisco and Troy, at a cost of approximately $250,000. Excavation for these new sidings is being made through solid granite.

The Southern Pacific is double-tracking its line across the Tehachapi mountains, the portions now under construction being from Bakersfield to Sivert, and from Tehachapi to Cameron, a total of 23 miles, at a cost of nearly $1,000,000.

Another important phase of construction work now in progress on the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific is that of enlarging, relining and concreting of tunnels on its line across the Tehachapi mountains. Fifteen of these have now been completed at a cost of $1,000,000, and Tunnel No. 25, at San Fernando, and Tunnel No. 26, at Hasson, are being relined and enlarged at an ultimate cost of $1,800,000.

FAITH IN COAST SHOWN BY PLANS.

Evidence of the faith of the Southern Pacific Company in the prosperity of the Pacific coast is shown by the fact that during 1922 the company has purchased or is building in its own shops 63 new locomotives. Fifty of these new engines are of the huge "2-10-2" type, which have just been built for the Southern Pacific by the Baldwin Locomotive Works for delivery during 1922. They are equipped with the latest fuel conserving and auxiliary power devices, and are being placed in service on the lines across the Tehachapi and Siskiyou mountains.

In addition to the new motive power, the Southern Pacific has purchased or is buildin... in its own shops for delivery during 1922, 3300 new refrigerator cars, 1700 automobile cars, 934 box cars, 20 air dump cars, 20 caboose cars and two rotary snow plows. This new rolling stock supplements the new equipment placed in service during 1921, consisting of 1608 box cars, 1200 refrigerato. cars, 1000 stock cars and 352 flat cars.

GERMANY'S DELAY PLEA IS REJECTED

France Demands Industrial Lien As Guarantee For Five Months' Moratorium Asked by Teuton Chiefs

Austrian Chancellor Invited to Paris to Discuss Plan to Relieve That Nation of Financial Difficulty

By CARL D. GROAT.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, Aug. 24.—Germany submitted plans for a five-months' moratorium today and her proposals were instantly rejected by France.

The German plan, which was thought acceptable to the allies, was for deposits of gold guarantees against a temporary moratorium on reparations payments.

The Frenchmen flatly refused to consider it. France demants a lien on German industry in exchange for temporary relief from payments.

PARIS, Aug. 24.—It is reliably reported in Paris that Ignaz Seipel, the Austrian chancellor who now is in Berlin, has received an invitation from the French government to come to Paris to discuss means by which Austria may be relieved of her difficulties.

France is concerned over the possibility of a union between Austria and Germany.

MARKS DROP AFTER FRENCH REFUSAL.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The German mark crashed to 8500 to the pound sterling or approximately 1900 to the dollar today, following receipt of news that France has refused to accept Germany's latest suggestion for a moratorium of five months.

Fifty Hurt in Riot of Throng in Vienna

VIENNA, Aug. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Several thousand unemployed persons dissatisfied because the government had rejected or delayed its answer to their demands, yesterday unhinged the doors of the parliament building and entered, wrecking the furniture. The police drove them out, using their side-arms freely.

Harding May Call Special Session

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(By International News Service.)—President Harding is seriously contemplating calling a special session of Congress November 14, or immediately after the November congressional elections for the express purpose of compelling final action then on the ship subsidy bill, Republican leaders announced this afternoon. They declared that the bill should be enacted before the end of the present year.

Paris Accepts Plan to End Greek War

PARIS, Aug. 24.—(By International News Service.)—A definite move to end the war between the Greeks and Turkish Nationalists in the Near East was made today when France sent a note to London accepting the British proposal for a Turco-Greek peace conference in Italy. It probably will open at Venice in September.

Civil War Ended By Chinese Factions

SHANGHAI, Aug. 24. — The Chinese civil war was officially proclaimed at an end today. The declaration of peace was made by Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former president of the defunct government of the republic of South China, who issued a proclamation addressed to all parliamentarians. Dr. Sun said that all fighting now has been concluded.

Martial Law Ordered in Guatemala Revolt

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 24 (By International News Service).—Martial law has been proclaimed in seven departments of Guatemala, on account of the spread of the revolutionary movement, according to advices from the Guatemalan frontier today. Censorship is reported to have been established on the Guatemalan-Mexican border.

Tris Speaker Hurt While Chasing Fly

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Tris Speaker, manager and star outfielder of the Cleveland Americans, was painfully injured in the first inning of today's game with the Yankees when he collided with Joe Wood while chasing a fly. Wood accidentally spiked him in the left leg and Speaker, after making an attempt to play, was assisted off the field.

Women Battle In Prize Ring; Cupid Referees

(By Associated Press)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Approximately 400 persons formed a ring last night in which two women, Eileen Clossen, 35, and Sadie B. Palmer, 32, fought with bare fists for the love of a man. The man, a witness to the fray, is said to have told the contestants he would throw his affections to the winner.

News of the contemplated fight brought the neighbors as spectators, and witnesses told in court today of bets being placed. Miss Palmer landed the first blow, a right to the jaw. Her opponent countered with an upper cut but injured her hand. Both went into a clinch. Miss Clossen broke away and when the other swung, witnesses say, she dodged and retaliated with a blow to the chin, for a knockout. Both women were arrested and fined $10 each in city court today.

BONUS BILL NEAR FINAL PASSAGE

Opposition Changes Plans and Hopes for Action on Measure Later.

By KENNETH W. CLARK.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The soldier bonus bill, unamended, sped today toward final passage by the Senate. Although a hard fight was promised by Senator Borah and other bonus opponents, it was evident that opposition will be curtailed, attackers of the bill feeling it would be inexpedient to prolong discussion in face of overwhelming support.

The better plan, opponents now believe, would be to allow the bill to go to the President for acceptance or rejection, thus shifting the responsibility from Congress. If he vetoes it, a fight will be made to sustain the executive's view and kill the bill.

There is no doubt that activities of the American Legion, coupled with the appeals of thousands of telegrams and letters which are pouring into Congress, have had a distinct effect in altering the battle plans of the opposition.

In view of the letdown in the intensity of the opposition attack, bonus advocates, as the second day's session began, were hopeful that a final vote could be secured this week, possibly late tomorrow.

Foreigners Attacked By Chinese Bandits

PEKING, Aug. 24 (By International News Service).—Bandits have captured Shanchow in West Honan province. Two foreigners—a Frenchman and a Greek, engineers of the Lung Hai railroad—were taken prisoners, according to advices received here, and are being held for ransom. Another Frenchman and his wife were robbed and injured and their 10-year-old daughter may die as a result of mistreatment at the hands of the bandits, the report received here declared.

The French legation here has made strong protests to the Peking government, demanding instant release of the prisoners. Missionaries in the district are reported terrorized. So far no report has been received of any Americans being molested.

Luckenbach Ship Crashes Into Briton

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24.—By the Associated Press.)—The American Steamship Lewis Luckenbach and the British Steamship Southwestern Miller collided in the Delaware river below Marcus Hook today. Both vessels were reported badly damaged. The Luckenbach had a hole stove in the rear of the starboard side, while the Southwestern Miller had her stem twisted and a hole torn in her bow above the water line. No one was injured, the report said.

The British ship was bound to this port from London and Liverpool, while the Lewis Luckenbach was carrying a general cargo here from Pacific coast ports.

Ireland Recovering from the Shock of Collins' Death, Looks About for Strong Man to Follow Leader

CORK, Aug. 24 (By the Associated Press).—Tom Hales, who led and accepted the responsibility for the ambush which killed Michael Collins, repudiated it today, threw down his arms and offered to join the national forces.

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

DUBLIN, Aug. 24.—John Collins, brother of Michael Collins, slain Irish leader, was kidnaped by rebels today.

Released later, Collins declared the insurgents were gloating over the death of his brother.

DUBLIN, Aug. 24.—Eamonn de Valera, Erskine Childers and Mary MacSwiney, chief leaders of the Republican irregulars, were reported to be surrounded by Free State troops near Cork today. The Free Staters were not making any effort to capture the rebel chiefs. The rebel leaders have only a handful of followers with them.

DUBLIN, Aug. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Dublin began to recover somewhat today from the shock caused by the dramatic death of Michael Collins, and plans went forward for the meeting of the new Southern parliament on Saturday. When the ministerial changes necessitated by the sudden removal of Collins and Arthur Griffith are expected to be made.

Meanwhile William T. Cosgrave is acting as the head of the provisional Free State government, and Richard Mulcahy as chief of staff, is directing the final phase of the national army's campaign against the irregulars.

The absorbing question of who is going to succeed Collins is voiced on all sides, and besides Cosgrave and Mulcahy, the names of Kevin O'Higgins, minister of economic affairs; General O'Connell, assistant chief of staff, and General Gerald O'Sullivan, are prominently mentioned.

TELLS DRAMATIC STORY OF COLLINS' DEATH.

DUBLIN, Aug. 24.—Driver Quinn of the military car in which Collins was riding when ambushed gave the following account of the battle and Collins' brave end:

"The car in which Collins was riding was the first to meet the ambushers' fire. There were at least 250 of them against 12 of us. It was about 9 o'clock when we passed through the village. We had not gone over 400 yards along the road when from both sides we were caught by a deadly criss-cross of machine gun fire.

"The driver of Collins' car wanted to drive at full speed, but the general ordered him to halt and told us to take cover. He took command of the whole situation, and directed the fire against the attackers for nearly an hour. Two machine guns kept up incessant firing at 'Mick's' open car, but up to then no one had been hurt and it began to look as though the irregulars were going to scatter in order to risk no more casualties.

GUN IN ARMORED CAR IS JAMMED.

"It was during a lull in the attackers' fire that Mick noticed a sniper creeping on hands and knees some distance down the road behind him. Mick immediately went about a dozen yards in his direction with the object of stopping further movement in the rear of the party. At that moment heavy firing swept across the road from both sides. The gun in the armored car which followed had jammed, lessening the effect of our fire.

"The sudden burst of shooting caused Mick to turn around for a few seconds, and the next moment I saw him fall to the ground shot through the head. As he lay dying he shouted words of encouragement to his men to go on firing and not mind him. Immediately there were cries of 'My God, Mick is shot.' Men rushed to his assistance. Although bleeding freely from a terribly lacerated wound, he lived 15 minutes, during which he continued to fire his revolver."

POPE EXPRESSES SORROW FOR ERIN.

ROME, Aug. 24 (By the Associated Press). — Pope Pius was deeply shocked over the news of the assassination of Michael Collins, which was conveyed to him today by Monsignor Borgoncent Duca, acting secretary of state, during the absence of Cardinal Gasparri.

Dublin Weeps as Body of Collins Is Brought Back

DUBLIN, Aug. 24 (By the Associated Press).—Draped in the beloved tri-color of Ireland, the coffin containing the body of Michael Collins, slain chief of Ireland's new Free State government, was landed here today from the steamer Classic and borne through the streets amid an impressive tribute from the assembled multitude.

General Collins' body was met at the dock by large throngs of mourners, including Richard Mulcahy, chief of staff, and other prominent representatives of the army. The body was taken on a gun carriage, preceded by a band of pipers to St. Vincent's hospital.

Prayers were said as the procession passed in silence, broken only by the distant crack of snipers' rifles in various parts of the grief-stricken city. The cortege was flanked by a line of Dublin guards marching in slow time with the muzzles of their revolvers protruding from the holsters. A detachment of civic guards in blue uniform followed.

RIFLES BRISTLE AT END OF PROCESSION.

Immediately behind came an armored car bristling with rifles held at all angles, comprising an incongruous ending to the mournful procession. Several men who were wounded in the fighting near Bandon, County Cork, Tuesday night, when Collins lost his life, accompanied their beloved leader's body on the sea voyage to Dublin.

It was arranged to remove the body from St. Vincent's hospital to the city hall later in the day in order to give the thousands of sorrowing Irishmen and women an opportunity of seeing for the last time the features of their national hero lying in state. Tomorrow the remains will be taken to the pro-Cathedral, where a high requiem mass will be held preceding the funeral at the Glasnevin cemetery on Monday.

From midnight last night crowds had been gathering at the north quay to witness the arrival of the Classic. Scenes typical of the nation's sorrow marked the progress of the coffin from the steamer through the long avenue of troops with reversed arms to the waiting gun carriage.

CASKET DRAPED WITH FREE STATE COLORS.

Regular officers draped the plain oak casket in the Free State colors and placed it on the wooden platform built on the 18-pounder gun carriage. The dead general's charger was led riderless alongside.

The members of the provisional government and deputies of the Dail Eireann, together with the members of the headquarters' staff immediately followed.

Then came the throngs of bare-headed men and women, many of them making no effort to restrain their tears.

Among the little band of fighting men who made the last stand with Collins and who followed his body through the Dublin streets with lowered head and tear-blinded eyes was a boyish figure wearing a ragged civilian coat and a tweed cap. Across his shoulders he carried a machine gun, the same gun with which he said afterwards he had poured a hail of lead into Collins' attackers.

Tube Proposition Held Up From Vote

That the Oakland-Alameda Tube proposition will not be submitted to the voters at the November election was decided at the meeting of the County Board of Supervisors this morning.

A delegation of prominent Alameda men, including Mayor Frank Otis and Captain W. G. Tibbitts, appeared before the board and asked that the matter be deferred until a later date.

That it would conflict with the propositions already on the November ballot, and would become a confusing element, was the opinion expressed by a joint meeting of Alameda and Oakland representatives, some nights ago, according to the report made today.

County Surveyor George Posey was given four months' time in which to prepare the plans and return an estimate to the board on the cost of a tube.

R. R. BROTHERHOOD HEADS RENEW ATTEMPT TO WIN PEACE IN SHOP STRIKE

SHOPMEN DEFY EMPLOYERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(By United Press).—Big four leaders again attempted mediation of the railroad shopmen's strike late today.

After stating that their efforts had resulted in a deadlock and that settlement of the strike was now "up to Jewell," head of the strikers, the brotherhood chiefs went once more to the Yale Club, headquarters of the executives, with what is understood to be a new peace offer from Jewell.

Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, headed the little group of executives which received the brotherhood leaders.

RADICALS HELD IN REBELLION PLOT

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(By International News Service.)—William Z. Foster, arrested on complaint of Michigan authorities for alleged violation of the Michigan state syndicalist act, was released this afternoon under $5000 cash bonds. Foster had been held incommunicado ever since his arrest last night. The bonds were put up by several friends who contributed to the amount.

By CHARLES R. LYNCH,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24. — The roundup of radicals who escaped when federal officials raided their convention at Bridgeman, Mich., was on today. Eighteen alleged communists were captured.

William Z. Foster, head of the Trades' Union Educational League, was arrested at his office here and held incommunicado at the county jail. Extradition papers will be asked to remove Foster to St. Joseph, Mich.

Federal authorities spread a net over the entire country in an attempt to arrest fleeing radicals. Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes of New York and four other women were sought.

Foster's arrest occurred as he was denying any connection with the Bridgeman convention.

OPERATIVES ASSERT FOSTER ATTENDED.

Federal authorities who "shadowed" the convention for two days before the raid, said they recognized Foster as one of the delegates.

Reports were received here today that several other radicals had been arrested, but federal authorities refused to verify the statements.

Joseph Spolansky, of the Chicago department of justice staff, declared it would take at least a week to go through the mass of literature captured in the raid. Among the effects of C. E. Ruphenberg, Cleveland, alleged "guiding star" of the convention, were found the "code" and a complete list of delegates to the secret conference.

"It is only a question of time until we get them all," Spolansky stated.

REVOLT PLANNED EVIDENCE SHOWS.

"Documentary evidence shows that the radical organizations of the country were planning to use the present industrial unrest to overthrow the government.

"Complete outline of the scheme to get the negroes to join the movement was discovered.

"There is every indication to show that four representatives from the Russian soviet government were here to arrange financing of the 'revolution.'"

NO SEPARATE PEACE STRIKE LEADER STATES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—"It's now up to the shop men," said a spokesman for the railroad brotherhood chiefs this afternoon, after they had conferred with a committee representing a group of about 20 roads on a proposition for effecting separate settlements between individual roads and striking shopmen.

A member of the shopmen's eastern strike committee made this comment to newspapermen: "I'll tell you that there's going to be no settlement with any 19 roads. You can put that in your pipe and smoke it."

While an official statement from the shopcraft leaders was lacking, this statement was regarded as significant in connection with the statement attributed to heads of the stationary trades last night that the brotherhood men had not been authorized to suggest any separate settlement plan which would involve abandonment of the policy of the all for one and one for all."

"WE ACCEPT CHALLENGE" SAYS SHOPMEN'S HEAD.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(By United Press.)—The answer of the striking shopmen to the roads' challenge to a finish fight was conveyed to certain carrier heads today.

Warren S. Stone and his fellow mediators were closeted with Bert M. Jewell, shopmen's leader.

Jewell, after the meeting, stated to the United Press he had no further word for the public at present.

"We have accepted the challenge," he said, referring to the roads' vote for a flat "no" on the seniority proposals of the "big four" leaders.

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—President Harding plans no further moves to mediate the rail strike, despite the collapse of peace negotiations between railroad brotherhood leaders and the Association of Railway Executives in New York, it was stated officially here today.

The federal government's future move in the menacing controversy will be directed toward carrying out of the president's resolve, as expressed in his recent message to congress.

"I am resolved to use all the power of government to maintain transportation and to sustain the right of men to work."

GOVERNMENT TO ROUND UP I. W. W. IN WEST STATES.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—A roundup of I. W. W. in a number of western states, in connection with rail strike disorders, has been decided upon by the department of justice, it is learned today.

The department's bureau of investigation, concluding an inquiry extending over several weeks, has supplied to the state authorities information which will be the basis for raids upon the headquarters of alleged radicals.

The property itself is irregular in shape, with a frontage of 101 feet on Broadway, and 81 feet on San Pablo avenue. The upper and lower boundary lines are on an angle, the upper side being 163 feet and the lower side 167 feet. While irregular in shape there are as many square feet in the property as in the Albany Block property.

This property originally was purchased by the late E. W. Playter, one of the early mayors of Oakland, in 1854. He retained possession of the property and at his death left it to his two daughters, Charlotte Sophia and Grace Playter, the latter now Mrs. Dr. Murray L. Johnson. Clark made his purchase from these two women.

The remainder of the Playter block gore is occupied by the First National Bank Building under a thirty year lease, which has run for sixteen years. Under this lease the present bank building is to be purchased by the owners of the land at an appraised valuation, and the bank is given the first opportunity to purchase should a sale be made.

an annual tie-treating capacity of 700,000 cross-ties, has just been completed by the Southern Pacific company at Wilmington, at a cost of approximately $500,000. This plant, which is one of the largest in the west, covers nearly 30 acres of ground and gives employment to 100 men. Several shop facilities will cost an additional $200,000.

To handle the new heavier type of locomotives now being placed in service on its lines, the Southern Pacific has installed 100-foot, electrically operated turn-tables at Dunsmuir and Ashland. Another is being built at Siskiyou and still another huge turn-table of the same dimensions is shortly to be erected at San Luis Obispo. The total cost of these new turn-tables will amount to $200,000.

In addition to the construction program for 1922, an order for $2,000,000, covering 45,240 gross tons of open-health steel rail for use during 1923, has just been placed by the Southern Pacific company with the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company. The order includes 42,600 gross tons of 90-pound rail, 31,900 tons of which are to be used on the Pacific system in replacing 75 and 80-pound rail and for replacing curve-worn 90-pound rail.

Tentative plans for 1923 constructions and maintenance on the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific company, include laying of 300 miles of new 90-pound rail at a cost of $4,500,000; 2,600,000 new cross-ties laid in track at a cost of $4,500,000, and re-enforcement of roadbed with 1,000,000 cubic yards of crushed rock and slag ballast at a cost of $2,500,000.

Items of great importance to the public and of immediate public benefit, are the contemplated plans of reducing of grades, double-tracking and other extensive improvements contemplated on the Central Pacific portions of the system, particularly over the Sierra Nevada Mountains, and through Nevada. Many of these major operations would have been carried out several years ago, but were only held in abeyance because of the Southern Pacific-Central Pacific dismemberment litigation which has kept the title under cloud for over nine years; but the settlement of the litigation either through granting by the supreme court of the petition for rehearing, or by an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission, excepting this system from the operation of the Sherman anti-trust law, will permit these projects to proceed immediately.

40 Big 4 Men Quit U. P. in Nebraska

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Aug. 24.—(By International News Service.)—Traffic on the Union Pacific railroad is completely tied up at this division terminal this morning by a walkout of forty locomotive engineers and firemen. The engine crews quit because of an alleged threat by a Union Pacific guard to shoot an engineer, whom he charged with spurting hot water and steam at the guards when shunting an engine in the local yards.

STOCK HOLDERS SEEK ACCOUNTING

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—The United States is asked to take judicial cognizance of the unsettled conditions in the Republic of Guatemala during the last decade in connection with a suit for an accounting filed today in the Federal court.

The proceedings concern the financing and operation of the Ocos railroad in Guatemala and the defendants are: Adolfo Stahl, a San Francisco capitalist, and the American Finance and Commerce Company. Into the financial transaction there is also brought the name of President Estrada Cabrera, who held sway in Guatemala until 1920.

C. A. Darling of New York and eighteen residents of Guatemala, stockholders in the railroad, are the complainants. They declare that the road was incorporated in 1896 with a capital stock of $1,543,500, and constructed at a cost of $1,500,000.

It is alleged that June 25, 1903, Stahl gained control and that he was aided by President Cabrera. It is alleged that from 1903 to 1909 the railroad earned a million dollars and was sold for a million in the latter year. Efforts of the stockholders to take the matter into court, it is declared, proved unavailing until, with the coming of revolution, President Cabrera was overthrown. The matter was then taken in 1920 into the court of First Instance and finally to the Court of Last Resort, where judgment was rendered against Stahl. Now the case is transferred to the United States court and the plaintiffs are asking for an accounting as to what became of the profits.

National Strike Is Urged Upon A.F.L.

OMAHA, Aug. 24.—John M. Gibb, president of the central labor union of Omaha, today made public the text of a resolution recently adopted by that body and sent to other labor organizatins for similar action, calling on the executive council of the American Federation of Labor to call a national strike in protest against "the slavery conditions that are being imposed upon us."

Wooley's Body Will Be Brought to U. S.

MADRID, Aug. 24.—The body of John G. Wooley, former prohibition candidate for President of the United States, who died recently at Granada, will be sent to America from Malaga, August 28. His son Paul will accompany the body.

Collins Slain on Day Set to Wed

Michael Collins was to have been married to Kitty Kiernan of County Longford on the very day a rebel bullet cut short his life, it was learned today.

The Free State chieftain, whose remains were honored by a sorrowing nation as they lay in state here today, had frequently postponed culmination of his war time romance with the heroic Irish girl who once saved his life. They had decided they must wait "until the fight was won."

Collins and Miss Kiernan had finally fixed August 22 as the day.

Sudden death of Arthur Griffith, throwing double responsibility upon Collins, again caused postponement but the wedding was to have taken place within a fortnight.

Rock Island Trains Tied Up at Topeka

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 24.—(By International News Service.)—The Rock Island railroad is completely tied up at Herrington, a division point, according to reports reaching here today.

A general strike occurred, the reports stated, following the shooting there last night of M. Z. Locke, a fireman, by a railroad detective. No trains have moved in or out of the city since 1:30 o'clock this morning. Enginemen, hostlers, switchmen and even the railway clerks walked out, the report stated.

Volstead Asked to Quit Committee Job

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Resignation of Representative Volstead, Republican, Minnesota, as chairman and as a member of the House judiciary committee because of help alleged to have been given him in the last election by the anti-saloon league was requested in a resolution read in the House today by Representative Tingham, Republican, Massachusetts.

After reading of the resolution had been concluded, Representative Mann, Republican, Illinois, moved that it be laid on the table and the motion was adopted with a loud chorus of ayes.

TO SUE FOR OUSTER.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—The American Civil Liberties Union announced today that it would bring suit against Adjutant General Hammrock of Colorado for damages as a result of the ordering out of that state of William Z. Foster, labor leader, on August 6. The amount of damages that will be asked was not announced.

Bathers Must Herd Apart on Zion's Beaches

(By Associated Press)

ZION, Ill., Aug. 24.—Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion, who terms bathing beaches "hell holes," has issued orders that male and female bathers at the Zion beach be segregated, it was learned today. A distance of 500 feet must separate the men and women.

Patrolmen are keeping close watch to see that the bathing beach ordinance specifications for bathing suits are not violated.

"On the bathing beach, while in bathing or preparing to bathe, and after leaving the water and until properly clothed, every female shall wear a suit which, with black stockings shall be a complete cover, excepting that the arms may be bare to the elbows," reads one paragraph of the ordinance.

The women's suits also must have a skirt extending at least six inches below the knees.

L. A. Man Jailed as Suspect in Bombing

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 24.—Christopher Takis, of 538 South Clarence street, Los Angeles, arrested as he fled from the West Sixth street district where 12 bombs exploded Monday night, terrorizing Santa Fe shop employees and their families, is held in the county jail here suspected of planting the bombs.

Nine striking Southern Pacific railway shopmen of Colton, Calif., were indicted yesterday by the San Bernardino county grand jury on charges of inciting riots. An indictment similarly charging John Schaffer, a striker of Las Vegas Nevada, with inciting a riot in San Bernardino on July 14 was also returned.

BRIDE AND GROOM WELCOMED HOME

"Say, Dick, did you know that Fred brings his bride home tonight from the East?"

"Ey jove, is that true? Well, we will have to collect the wives and go over and welcome the new bride to our city some of these days, won't we?"

"I should say so. We have all heard Fred rave about her so much that he can't keep us away very long. Say, why not get Jim and Will and their wives, too, and go over tomorrow evening for a little 'welcome home' party? What do you say?"

"Well, we should go soon, but dogone it I have to have a new suit before I can step out and meet anyone. I am clear out of decent clothes. I may raise the cash by next week but never by tomorrow. You folks had better go on and Betty and I will pay our respects later."

"Not on your life, old man. You go right along too. Say, if you are needing a suit so gol darn bad, why don't you get it? You know, don't you, that a man can buy some mighty fine clothes at Cherry's with six months to pay? Good value for the money, too. You'd better run out there while the new fall showing of classy two-button suits is most complete. They are at 528 13th street. Then you can join the merrymakers tomorrow."

"It's Good Business"

THE keen-minded business man successfully applies business ideas to the care of his automobile. He knows the value of dependable motor oil. A poorly lubricated motor means trouble, delay and expense.

A well lubricated motor gives the same efficient and faithful service he demands in his business. That's why he insists on VENTURA Motor Oil.

Any way he looks at it, VENTURA means satisfaction—freedom from motor worries or cold cash saved on repair bills, and that's what it means to you.

Refined with care from Paraffin-Base crude, VENTURA resists heat, clings to the hot bearings and cylinder walls, protecting them from wear. You can depend on it! It's "good business" to say "VENTURA" to the garage or service station man.

SOVIETS SURE OF FOOD SUPPLY IN COMING HARVEST

Despite Lack of Industry, Officials Hopeful For Prosperity.

MOSCOW, Aug. 24.—Soviet Russian leaders are advancing reasons, easily understood within Russia, but probably difficult of comprehension abroad, as to why they believe Russia, after the coming harvest, can get along and show economic improvement without the aid of foreign governments.

They make no secret that industrially the country can show very little life without huge foreign credits, but they say that Russia is primarily an agricultural country, and that the requirements of the Russian peasant are probably smaller than those of any other people except the Chinese or Hindus. The peasants comprise at least 70 per cent of the country's population.

MANY LACK SHOES.

An American, accustomed to the standard of living in the United States, might consider it a terrible condition were someone to tell him that 50,000,000 Russian people had no shoes. The Russian, familiar with his own country, would shrug his shoulders and say: "What of it?" He would remark that at least 50,000,000 Russians never had shoes and probably would not know what to do with them if they did. The peasants go barefoot in summer, use straw sandals in the autumn and felt boots of village manufacture in the winter.

It is similar with most articles of wear and household use which American civilization considers essential to comfort. If the Russian peasant has plenty to eat—and above all other things he prefers black bread—and if he has a few rags to cover him and a hut to shelter him he is as well off as he was before the war.

INDUSTRY WRECKED.

It was only in late years under the monarchy that the growth of manufacturing with Russia was seriously encouraged. The Soviet regime, whose supporters were mostly among the factory workers in the cities, has desired to increase industry probably even more than the old regime, but, due to civil war and destruction, industry is now in a worse state than ever before.

If foreign capital comes in to any great extent the government

"Pigeons Is Pigeons," But Marks Flutter

Take, for instance, the case of N. C. Jorgensen, pigeon fancier, of this city, who knows all about pigeons and is gradually learning about German marks.

Jorgensen is going to pay $79.30 for two pigeons which are for sale for $24.85, and yet Jorgensen is far from a philanthropist. It is all because the pigeons he must have are German pigeons.

Four months ago Jorgensen negotiated for two Maltese hen pigeons with Dr. Paul Trubenbach of Chemnitz, Germany. The price set was 14,350 German marks, equivalent in American money to $73

Today Jorgensen received a letter from Dr. Trubenbach stating that due to the deflation of money value and an increase of expenses the price of the birds is now 16,400 marks, equivalent in American coin to $24.85.

Now in order to protect his original $73, which has dwindled by more than half during the past four months and to adjust present financial exchange differences, Jorgensen must send an additional $6.30 and he is going to do it, hoping meanwhile that the market holds steady on German marks until the pigeons are shipped.

Humanity Stifling Self, Says Savant

LONDON, Aug. 23.—(By International News Service).—Humanity may stifle itself to death, according to Professor Leonard Hill

Unless civilization provides for more air for workers and more recreation there is a danger of civilization gradually stifling itself to extinction, the Professor declares expects to recreate industry, but lacking this, it considers that Russia can get along as an agricultural country until such time as either from within itself, or with foreign assistance, it can become an industrial country.

As civil war is over, and the harvest promises to be better than at any time since the war, the Soviet leaders contend that the peasant and the city workmen now will both have more food than they have had for years, and that the worst period is behind them. For this reason the attitude of Russian diplomats at Genoa and The Hague was firmer than the Western world, accustomed to thinking of economic rum in the sense it would affect their own countries, had believed possible.

PRODUCTION OF STEEL SHOWS GREAT DECLINE

By A. D. WELTON.
BY CONSOLIDATED PRESS
Special to The TRIBUNE

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The leading steel producer in this section has dropped from 83 to 67 per cent of capacity. Only thirteen out of twenty-seven furnaces in the district are active and a further falling off is expected. Shortage of coal is the only cause as demand for tonnage is strong. The mills cannot meet it. One mill reported that last week showed the most buying in many months.

Makers of agricultural implements are in the market for steel. The big mail order houses show increasing sales. This activity confirms information from other sources that conditions in the country are improving. The farmer probably is not entirely out of the difficulties that came with the general depression but he has cut down his obligations and is in the market. Whether this condition will continue is problematical. "Good crops make good business" is an ancient maxim, but a large demand and good prices are essential factors. Prices of farm products are slowly yielding They were the first to reach the pre-war price level. If they fall much lower farmers will see their profits vanishing Europe is coming steadily nearer the point of raising her own food. A low export demand will cause a shrinkage of prices.

The combination of strikes, midsummer dullness and depressing news from Europe is slowing up all business. Business is sound enough in itself but the present losses will never be made up. The present waste of wealth is irreparable. Retail business is dull but there is some dispute whether the situation is seasonal or an accompaniment of the general price reductions.

"He Say 'No'"

OFFER TO ACTOR ALL GUMMED UP

For ways that are dark and tricks that are vain the heathen press agent makes Bret Harte's "Chinee" look like the proverbial perforated penny.

The knight of the neversharp has now stepped forth with a story about Creighton Hale, "the handsomest man on the stage or screen of England or America." Hale, be it known without further delay, is the new leading man of the Fulton theater.

As the publicity man tells it. Hale has just turned down "cold" an offer of $10,000 to permit the use of his countenance on each and every package of a new chewing gum with a testimonial inscribed beneath in flowing script in somewhat the following effect:

"Chewing gum done for me what no shaving cream, liquid powder or tinseled soap could do. It made me what I am today—Creighton Hale"

Hale, the typewriter tickler goes on merrily, mulled over in his mind this offer of the chewing gum concern, wondering whether he or the concern would profit most, and then spoke up and made reply:

"I take my art the art of the theater—very seriously. Why shouldn't I? It is a wonderful art. I learned it under Henry Irving and other great English actors. I learned my art of the screen from D. W. Griffith when I made my pictures. I believe in working hard and making good and I want to stand on my merits, if I have any, as an artist and not as a he-beauty."

Thus did the hero of a thousand romances and a million press agent stories enact in real life the ancient story of base gold against "mine honor." The mortgage will have to be foreclosed, the villain must in turn continue to pursue her, the hard-hearted, grasping, cadaverous land agent must continue his desperate career, for Creighton Hale will not consent to be dubbed "Chewing Gum" Hale.

All of which is an introduction to the announcement from the theater that on next Sunday afternoon Hale, who came west to appear with Mrs. Thomas Whiffen and Isabelle Lowe in "Little Old New York" and "Just Suppose" at the Columbia theater in San Francisco, is coming to Oakland.

The opening play will be "Just Suppose," a Henry Miller play, in which Hale will appear as the Prince of Wales, to whom he is said to bear a marked resemblance. (This is also the press agent's claim.)

REDWOOD DANCE TO HAVE NOVELTY

Final arrangements for the Redwood Dance of the Sequoia Singers in Auditorium ballroom Friday evening, as announced today, include an orchestra of five star players, an exhibition dance during one intermission, by two New York specialty dancers, and a six-minute reel showing the redwoods. None of the features will be allowed to interfere with the order and frequency of dances, but will serve to add interest and enthusiasm, according to the committee in charge.

The dance will commence with a grand march led by Miss Muriel Moorehead, escorted by Charles Warner, director of Contra Costa Hills club and leader of Sequoia Singers. The march will be to the music of popular songs sung by Sequoia Singers, and will be participated in by all those who have taken a prominent part in the campaign to "Save Oakland's Sequoias." Miss Moorehead is the daughter of William J. Moorhead, president Carmen's Union and a prominent speaker for the redwood park.

The dance will be informal. A number of novelties will be introduced such as have heretofore made the Contra Costa Hills club dances enjoyable beyond the ordinary. The whole affair has been planned to promote spontaneity in the general participation of those present in the "happy spirit of the great outdoors." Punch will be served by the committee, including Rose Weidlein, Ed Patterson, Inez Logan, Frank Meragha and Harold French.

Lack of Chamber Hampers Exhibit

RICHMOND, Aug. 24. — Because Richmond no longer has a chamber of commerce, this city will be hampered in representation at the State Fair at Sacramento next month. Nevertheless, the two large pictures of the Standard Oil plant and the Pullman shops, which hang in what was formerly the Chamber of Commerce rooms, will be sent to Sacramento for display during the fair.

The Rotarians and Lions plan to attend the fair and boost for Richmond, and it is possible that the municipal band will make the trip.

De Molay Chapter Hears Oakland Dean

RICHMOND, Aug. 24. — Dean Edgar F. Gee of Oakland made an interesting address before Richmond chapter. Order of DeMolay at last night's session in Bank hall. M. Alt, a DeMolay boy from Iowa, was also a visitor.

Plans were made for a social evening to be held on Wednesday, September 13. Following the regular meeting, the DeMolay drill team held practice under direction of Laurence Wright, captain.

Parent-Teachers to Hold Food Sale

RICHMOND, Aug. 24. — The Washington Parent-Teachers' Association made plans at yesterday's meeting for a food sale to be held on Saturday, September 2, at the corner of Washington and West Richmond avenues. Mrs. Frances Shawl will be in charge.

Arrangements were also made yesterday to entertain all the Parent-Teachers' associations of Richmond at the meeting to be held on September 23. Miss Nora Ashfield will make an address on "The Junior High School."

COLORADO MAN "SEIZES" COUNTY, FORMS "NATION"

DENVER, Aug. 24.—State officials were puzzled today over the "seizure" of Ouray county by Gustav Adolph Baner Lentenberg, self-styled "author of the World's League of Nations," living at Ouray, Colo.

Notice of the formation of the county into an "Independent Sovereignity" by Lentenberg was received in a "communique" issued by him and forwarded to Governor Shoup yesterday.

Advices of Lentenberg's action were forwarded to the "government of Colorado, the consul of England, the consul of France and the ambassador of Japan," the "dictator" notified the governor.

Lentenberg notified state officials he had been "forced to seize the county" because of the non-existence of law.

He also advised that the "daily business routine of the county is is not to be disturbed in the slightest by the secession."

ISLAM MOSQUE AT DETROIT TO BE SOLD, RAZED

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 24.—The Moslem mosque in Highland Park, a suburb, that for more than a year has stood as the only outward symbol of Islam in the western world, is to be razed and the property sold.

Injection of reforms into the ancient religion of the prophet, which it is said, caused dissension in the ranks of Mohammedans here, and lack of interest on the part of most of them were given by Muhuhhad Karoub, wealthy Moslem real estate man, as the reasons for abandonment of the project to propagate the Islamic faith in this country.

Added to these is the fact that the property has been placed on the tax rolls by the Highland Park administration, and Mr. Karoub is compelled to pay taxes on the mosque city officials holding it is "vacant property not used for religious purposes."

Karoub says his efforts to found a religious center for his people cost $55,000.

Karoub came to America several years ago, a penniless immigrant from Arabia. Settling in Detroit, he obtained empolyment as a laborer in an automobile factory, and by saving money and making judicious investments he became wealthy, it is said.

MOORE SPEAKS AT SAN JOSE

SAN JOSE, Aug. 24.—Before a crowd of about 1500 persons, which filled the high school auditorium to overflowing, Charles C. Moore, candidate for the United States senate, last night characterized Hiram Johnson as "the precarious candidate," flayed Johnson's supporters and bared secrets regarding the "secret meeting" at the Palace Hotel not generally known.

"I admit that I am 'the vicarious candidate,' if that is what they choose to call me," he said. 'However, I can refer to my opponent only as the 'precarious candidate,' as it is he, and not I, whose success is doubtful."

"I volunteered for the job of opposing Johnson—I was not forced, as you may have been told," declared Moore. "It is admitted by me that I am not a politician. I am a business man. It is also apparent that Hiram Johnson knows as little about business as I know about politics.

"The problems of the world are economic problems. They must be solved by men expert in business matters. They are outside the province of politicians. "The time [illegible] not be allowed to hold a monopoly of governmental leadership. The business man who has shown a capacity for public service is needed in the government, not only because of his knowledge but because of his willingness to co-operate readily."

Neighborhood Meetings Held in Interest of MacLafferty's Candidacy.

The son and daughter of James H. MacLafferty, Republican candidate for Congress, held meetings in their respective homes in Oakland last night to further the candidacy of their father.

Mrs. Antha MacLafferty Goemmer, 507 Moraga road, presided and spoke at a gathering of her neighbors, outlining the candidate's attitude on questions of importance to women.

"My father strongly advocates legislation to put an end forever to child labor in the United States" she said "He will work for a constitutional amendment making child labor illegal and thereby establishing a condition for which women have worked for many years.

"I know his policies also on law enforcement and know, of my own knowledge, that he favors the strict enforcement of all laws and of the constitution of the United States."

SON SPEAKS ON ISSUES.

J. H. MacLafferty, Jr., son of the candidate, was the speaker at a meeting at his home, 5688 Keith avenue, explaining his father's attitude on compensation to service men, the development of the waterfront and the Japanese issue.

"My father has made an exhaustive study of the Japanese matter," said young MacLafferty. "He has seen it at first hand in Hawaii and in Japan and is convinced that unless the East is awakened to the situation, California will eventually be over-run with the little brown men. He wants to spead the message of California's danger throughout the East, because he knows that California can get no relief without support from the entire nation."

AT BERKELEY MEETING.

Young MacLafferty was also a speaker last night at a neighborhood meeting at the home of Mrs Grace E. Thaxter, 2117 Carlton street, Berkeley, headquarters of the Twenty-ninth Precinct Republican club. The organization endorsed him and a committee was named to work for his success at the polls next Tuesday.

On this committee are Mrs. Grace E. Thaxter, Sadie Stiles Thompson, Leona Leigh, Mrs. M. E. Spaan and Mrs. E. C. Wagner.

David D. Oliphant, Jr., candidate for the Republican nomination for Congressman from this district, is finishing his campaign with a whirl wind series of speeches.

Today he broke all records by making more than a dozen talks in different parts of Oakland outlining his policies and political philosophy.

An interested gathering met at the home of Dr. Minora Kibbe, 1805 Fruitvale avenue, to listen to Oliphant's succinct summary of campaign issues as represented by the various congressional candidates.

"I believe in attention to human rights before property rights," said Oliphant. "I believe in preventing the exploitation of little children with the resultant stunting of their growth and the killing of their potentiality for being good citizens of the future."

Oliphant is stressing the importance of giving a fairer deal to ex-service men and pleges himself to work toward this end if he is sent to Congress as representative of this district.

CUTTING ADDRESSES VETERANS OF WAR.

At a dinner party of 40 of the leaders in various organizations of veterans of the late war, H. C. Cutting, Congress [illegible] was given an opportunity to explain his platform, "Public Control of Bank Credit."

His theme was "Economic Liberty and the Soldier's Duty as a Citizen." Cutting protested that he was a crusader for an idea and not a campaigner for an office. He stated that 99 per cent of our money is issued by reason of a bank making a loan and advised placing bank loans under public control. This brought out a lively and prolonged discussion.

TALK ON THERMOMETERS.

"Thermometers, Their Construction and Their Use," will be the subject of a talk by S. F. Worswick at the meeting of the Oakland High Twelve club at the Hotel Oakland at noon tomorrow. Mrs. Ivah Murphy Fraser will sing, accompanied on the piano by Miss Mildred Randolph

CHARTER CHANGE BEING OPPOSED

In response to requests he says he received as to his stand on the four amendments to the city charter to be voted upon next Tuesday, Commissioner of Streets W. H. Edwards, minority member of the council, today issued a statement urging his contingent to vote against the four amendments.

The amendments provide for a raise in salary for the mayor and commissioners; the appointment instead of election of the board of school directors; the creation of a board of museum directors; and the change in term of appointed directors of city boards.

The statement from Commissioner Edwards follows:

The mayor has proposed amendments to our present City Charter which will appear on the ballot next Tuesday, which to my mind are not conducive to the public good and should be voted down.

Amendment No. 1 raises salaries of mayor from $4200 to $7500 per annum and the commissioners from $3600 to $6000, but no change is made in duties or hours of service, which calls for two hours each day only, and positions of this nature cannot be measured in dollars and cents. Besides technical or trained men must be and are employed in every division under the mayor and commissioners to conduct all work. If elected officials were trained men and required to devote their entire time to city services, raises would be justified.

Amendment No. 2 gives mayor power to appoint school directors instead of election by the people. This would give mayor political control of entire school board and employees.

Amendment No. 3 creates a new board of museum directors of five and many new employees all under political control of mayor. Museum is now under control of library board without added expense.

Amendment No. 4 provides that term of office of all directors of various city boards who now serve six years shall expire with term of mayor every four years. This would have a tendency to demoralize every board in city and make every member and employee subservient to mayor politics' control. Thus building up a political machine very detrimental to the best interest of the people.

Therefore in answer to many inquiries I would earnestly urge every voter to cast a negative vote on the above measures 1, 2, 3 and 4.

CONTRA COSTA RACES ARE CLOSE

MARTINEZ, Aug. 24.—Three of the hardest political fights staged in Contra Costa in years will be decided at Tuesday's primary election. Contests for sheriff, public administrator and coroner are attracting the entire country's population and interest in these races is on a par with hat in state contests.

Holding first place in the minds of the voters is the three-cornered battle between Sheriff R. R. Veale, Tony Reggiardo, World War veteran, and Frank Nixon, Shell company foreman. All are from Martinez.

Following closely in interest to the voters are the fights between Ernest H. Kueffer of Richmond and Public Administrator Charles L. Daley of Martinez, and between Coroner C. F. Donnelly and Bert Curry, both of Richmond. Politicians figure that these contests will bring the closest votes of any of the six races for county offices.

Assessor George O. Meese of Martinez is opposed by Louis E. Davis, El Cerrito merchant; Tax Collector Martin W. Jobst of Martinez is opposed by Charles H. Ensign of Richmond, and Superintendent of Schools William H. Hanlon of Martinez is opposed by Mrs. J. Winifred Stidham of Richmond.

Outside of county contests some of the most vigorous battles are being waged for township offices. Twelve of the county's seventeen townships have spirited battles for constableships and justiceships, some with three entries and others with four.

The county registration is 19,968, the heaviest in history for a primary election. County Clerk J. H. Wells predicts a 75 per cent vote.

Berkeley Students Form Drury Club

A Drury-for-Treasurer Club was formed today on the campus of the University of California, in order to promote the candidacy of Wells Drury for treasurer of Alameda county. The college men and women are taking an active part in the campaign, because of Drury's associations with the university community. Clifton Hildebrand has been chosen president of the Drury Club, and J. F. Scott is secretary.

"The university community supports the candidacy of Wells Drury," declared President Hildebrand, "because of his steadfast support of the university during his service as managing director of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce. He co-operated always in the most helpful manner, particularly urging the State bond issues for the university. Mr. Drury has two sons and a daughter who were graduated from the University of California, and both sons were officers of the university, so that his sympathy with the progress of this institution is well known. It was he who organized the University of California Golden Jubilee a number of years ago. Our campus campaign committee [illegible] unity and students of the university will help elect Wells Drury the treasurer of Alameda county."

Berkeley Rally For Moore Tonight

Berkeley voters will have the senatorial campaign brought to their doors this evening when the Moore forces will stage a monster rally at the High School auditorium. Fifty Berkeley Republicans will act as vice-presidents and issue a general invitation to the voters to attend. Charles Mills Gayley will preside and Professor James Hyde of Palo Alto, who has earned the reputation as the most popular speaker on the Moore staff, will analyze the issue of the campaign. Professor Hyde is a master of satire and in ariably drives home his point in a way that cannot be misunderstood. He was one of the big features of the Oakland Moore rally.

Attorney Harold Sawyer, of San Francisco, another star in the Moore aggregation of speakers, will make a preliminary address.

Wine in Auto Jails Bootleg Suspect

BERKELEY, Aug. 24. — Five gallons of wine found under the seat of his automobile landed Frank Perry, who gives his occupation as a laborer, in the Berkeley jail last evening, charged with violating Berkeley's "Little Volstead Act." Perry was arraigned before Judge Robert Edgar this morning and his preliminary examination set for tomorrow. He was unable to furnish the $1000 bail set by the judge.

Perry was arrested in front of his home at 1015 Addison street by Officer William Dean. According to the police, Perry has been selling liquor for some time.

ALARM PROVES FALSE.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 24.—Three youngsters are believed to have turned in a false alarm of fire at the Porter school yesterday. O. H. Schumacher, janitor of the school, heard the sirens of the fire apparatus blowing in the yard and saw the three boys sneaking away through the adjoining high school yard. Acting Chief George Daly is investigating the alarm.

TWO GARAGES ROBBED.

The police are today investigating two garage burglaries which took place in the same neighborhood. The garage of Mrs. Alice Boss, 1533 Peralta street, was the first one to be entered. A number of automobile tools and an inner tube were taken. The second garage is owned by the American Creamery Company. The thieves took tools from two of the machines in the garage. The entrance to both the places were gained by breaking the lock.

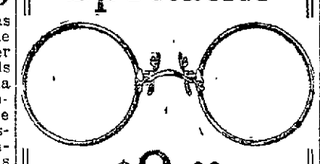

Richardson Issues Campaign Pledges

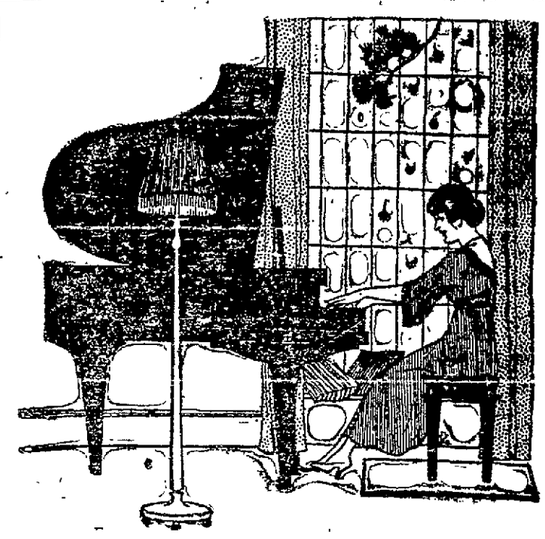

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—Friend W. Richardson, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of California, yesterday issued a statement in which he said he could and would save the state $115,000,000 during his four-year term, if elected. The statement follows:

"If I am elected governor of California, I guarantee in the next four years to save California taxpayers a total of $115,000,000 based upon the current rate of increase of the cost of state government.

"As governor I will guarantee that the budget I shall submit to the legislature in January, 1923, will call for an annual decrease of from $12,000,000 to $15,000,000 below the last bi-ennial budget of $91,000,000. This I will do without crippling a single humanitarian function and without deducting a single dollar from the state's educational funds. A decrease in state expenses will benefit directly every citizen in California, whether or not a tax payer.

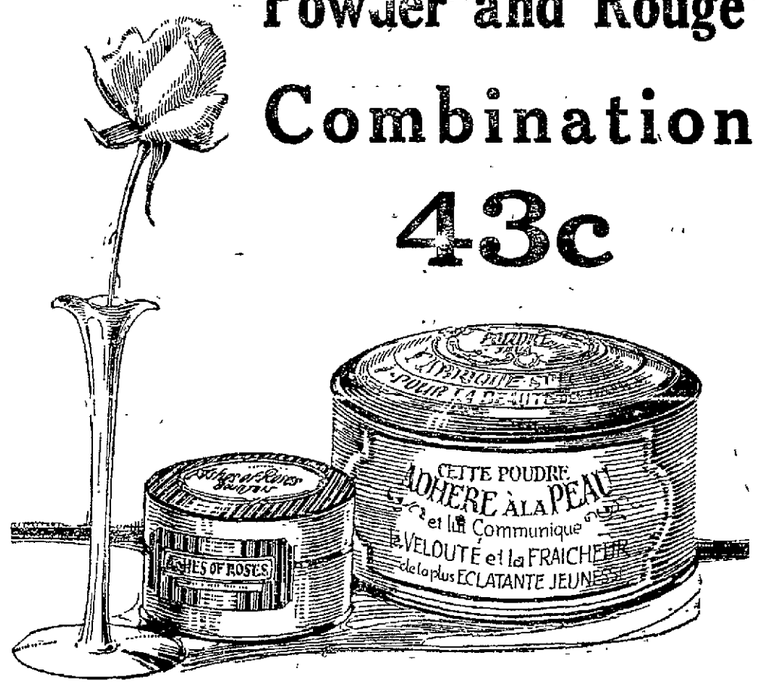

"I have no political machine working for my election; no campaign fund, no one to retard, no one to punish. If elected governor I have but one task in mind, to make good on the job. As state treasurer I know the facts and I can make good; I solicit the support of the voters of California on no other basis."

JOHNSON WILL SPEAK FRIDAY

Friday night Senator Johnson will speak in Berkeley closing his campaign in Alameda county. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Berkeley high school and a large attendance is expected. Friday afternoon Senator Johnson will address Hayward voters. Saturday night he appears in Richmond.

The Johnson-for-Senator committee has completed its program for the final days of the campaign. Tonight there will be a meeting in West Oakland at which James M. Oliver will speak on behalf of Senator Johnson. At Hayward this evening a township rally will be held. W. T. Knightly will preside and C. A. Seccomb will represent Senator Johnson.

The Johnson campaign committee approaches the final days of the senatorial contest with the utmost confidence that no material inroads have been made into Senator Johnson's normal majority in this county, according to reports given out at headquarters this morning.

"This has been an interesting campaign," said Stuart W. Booth, headquarters manager. "It has been mainly noticeable for the unusual number of volunteers who have come to headquarters to express their desire to work for Senator Johnson. In the many reasons given for this desire to help may be found the main planks of the Johnson platform. Mothers have come because they believe Johnson rendered good service in demanding that our boys be brought back home from eastern Russia and the German-French frontier. Service men have reported for volunteer duty because they appreciate what Johnson has done for them in the Senate.

"The campaign in Alameda county has been constructive throughout, not one word of criticism has been made of our opponent or his platform. The Johnson committee instructed all of its speakers to follow this rule and it has not once been broken. The Senator's record has supplied all the talking points necessary for the campaign, which we are sure is already won for him by a big majority in this county."

West-For-Senator Club Is Organized

ALAMEDA, Aug. 24.—A West-for-Senator club was formed last night at the home of Senator Edwin M. Otis, 1538 Paru street, Senator Otis being one of the active supporters of Candidate West for the Republican nomination for state senator in this district. Officers were elected as follows:

President, W. C. Sharpstein, 1st vice, Mrs. Agnes Hauch; 2nd vice, Robert Dorward; secretary Hugh McCoy; executive committee, Captain Rushton McConnell, W. B. Kellmyer, Mrs. Evaline Otis, Mrs. Hazel Jennings, William Tardif, T. H. Williams, D. E. Nichols.

Plans were formulated for an active campaign between now and the primary next Tuesday.

Candidates Speak Many Times Daily in Campaigns

The California Grape Protective Association has sent out a legislative ticket giving the names of candidates in favor of light wine and beer. This is the letter being sent out:

"In accordance with a resolution adopted by our Board of Directors, all the new legislative candidates were given an opportunity to express themselves by letter. From these replies and the past performances of incumbents who are seeking re-election, we have decided to indorse the following candidates, who can be depended on to favor the grape industry of California."

FOR STATE SENATOR.

Fourteenth district—Alfred Morgenstern, John H. Walker.

Sixteenth district — Edgar S. Hurley.

Thirty-fourth district — E. H. Christian.

Thirty-fifth district—Homer R. Spence.

Thirty-ninth district — John Gelder.

That Judge Frank H. Kerrigan will roll up a big majority in Northern California in his campaign for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, is the prediction made today by George James, prominent member of the Olympic Club, who returned today from a tour of the northern part of the State. "Everywhere I went," said James, "I found sentiment strong in favor of Judge Kerrigan's promotion to the Supreme bench."

Judge Kerrigan, who is now winding up his campaign in Southern California, will return here on Sunday, and will in all probability visit Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley on Monday.

Kerrigan Club throughout the state are active and reports reaching campaign headquarters here are that Judge Kerrigan will lead the ticket at the primary elections next Tuesday.

"A public official can be judged only by the work he accomplishes and how well that work is performed," said District Attorney Era W. Decoto, candidate for re-election, in speaking to the men of the American Legion last night. "I come before you without apology for the work of my office. While our work has increased 50 per cent in the last few years, our expenses have only increased 20 per cent, which shows economy. I challenge any reasonable man to show wherein the district attorney's office has failed to do its work properly and well. And I wish to leave this thought with you, that the greater part of our work is not in criminal prosecutions as some would believe, but in taking care of the tremendous legal work of the county, preparing bond issues, okehing contracts, forming resolutions and other matters, of precise law." Decoto is speaking from eight to twelve times daily. He is confident of re-election.

Associate Justice Curtis D. Wilbur, of the Supreme Court of the State of California and candidate for chief justice, yesterday addressed the members of the Rotary Club at Chico in behalf of his candidacy.

Judge Wilbur writes that he finds that the northern cities are strong in his support for the office of chief justice.

The Swedish-American Political club of San Francisco last night endorsed the candidacy of Judge Wilbur for chief justice.

The Christian Citizens' League, of which Col. Leon C. Francis is first vice-president, has endorsed the candidacy of Friend W. Richardson for the Republican nomination for governor. The league met recently at the Brooklyn Presbyterian church.

H. L. Hagan, candidate for district attorney, addressed eight meetings yesterday, speaking to approximately 3000 persons in various parts of the city. Among the gatherings were the Bay View Improvement club, Dimond Progressive club, South Methodist church, Seminary Avenue club and the Modern Woodmen.

The latest organization to indorse the candidacy for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Judge William P. Lawlor is the Los Angeles Taxpayers' League. Judge Lawlor finished his Southern California campaign Sunday and is spending this week in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys. During his travels throughout the State the jurist is ably assisted by Mrs. Lawlor, who goes everywhere with him, distributes cards and does other campaign work.

About forty University of California students representing various campus organizations rallied to the support of Everett Everhart, candidate for the Assembly in the Fortieth district, at a meeting last night.

"If the people in my district want a representative in the State Legislature who will protect their interests and make for greater prosperity, then I seek their votes," said Frank V. Cornish, candidate for State Senator in the sixteenth district, addressing a West Oakland gathering last night.

"I stand on my past record as a public servant when, as the people's representative, I appeared before the State Railroad Commission to fight for reducing gas, electricity and water rates," said Cornish.

E. F. Garrison, candidate for re-election to the office of County auditor, had the distinction of talking to deaf mutes last night. Meeting in a downtown Oakland restaurant, Garrison delivered his talk through an interpreter, who spelt out the speech in the sign language of the mutes. Heavy applause greeted the talk.

A meeting under the auspices of the Fox-for-Assemvly club was held last night at 735 Page street, Berkeley. Chris B. Fox, candidate for the Assembly from the Albany-Berkeley district spoke on the strike question and said that after his election he would work for some constructive legislation that would aim to prevent strikes and lockouts by making arbitration compulsory.

Assemblyman Frank W. Anderson has sent out cards to the voters saying: "I will not bore you with public meetings. For four terms you have trusted me to represent you in the assembly. I consider I am four times better able to serve you than when you first elected me. My only propaganda is my known record."

Edgar S. Hurley, candidate for Senate, spoke at a meeting in the Blake Block last night. The meeting was presided over by J. N. Richardson, chairman of the Hurley club. "While in the Assembly," said Hurley, "I represented a part of this senatorial district and I challenge any one to point to a single vote of mine that was not in the interest of the whole people. I have always been absolutely fair to everybody. I have been perfecting a state bonding plan for Oakland harbor which I am told by experts is the most practical method of developing those shipping facilities."

"Thompson for Assembly" club was formed last night in the city of Albany. In outlining his ideas Thompson expressed himself as being progressive in every way. "I will stand," he said, "for all the greatest progressive measures which have been enacted by our legislature and I will strive to protect the humanitarian measures which mean so much to the laboring man."

Attorney Edward J. Smith, candidate for assemblyman in the Thirty-sixth district, has been making an aggressive campaign and reports from all parts of the district indicate strong support in his behalf. Smith is a local product, having two children attending the public schools in the district. In addition to the many friends whose support he is getting his campaign advisory committee is made up of many leading citizens.

At what he declared to be the most enthusiastic meeting thus far in his campaign, Assemblyman Arthur A. Wendering, candidate for State Senator from the Sixteenth district, told of the political fights on the humanitarian legislation of the last session of the legislature.

The meeting was attended largely by Golden Gate and Emeryville campaigners for Wendering, and formed another Wendering-for-Senator club, the executive and advisory committee of which comprises the following men and women voters of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Assembly districts: Joe Irthum, Mrs. Fred Cook, Edward Feret, Mrs. Bowman, Thomas Fitzgerald, Miss Bard; J. Cleverg, Mrs. M. L. Hayes, Fred Cook, Mrs. Bard, S. Craig, Mrs. Feret, Eugene Timm, Mrs. McDonald, W. Enos, Mrs. Leahy, M. McKinnon, Hugh McGee.

CHAMBER BACKS CHARTER CHANGE

At the meeting of the Merchants Exchange this week the importance of the proposed charter amendments, which had previously been indorsed by that body, and to be voted on at next Tuesday's election, were again discussed. Past President I. H. Spiro made a plea to all the members to enlighten every possible voter regarding the merits of all the proposed amendments. In reference to the first amendment President Spiro said: "Amendment number one would increase the salaries of the elective officers of Oakland and that increase is of much importance. The present salaries of those officers were established eleven years ago and there are now fourteen appointive offices in the city's administration receiving as much or more pay than the chief officials, while the elective officers are responsible for the effective workings of the various departments."

He further stated: "The City of Oakland nor any other cannot expect to indefinitely secure the services of men of the caliber and ability absolutely necessary to the welfare of this city for $3600 per year. Furthermore, the tremendously increased duties of the various departments now require the entire time of the elected officers, whereas but two hours daily was required under the charter when the present salaries were established in 1911. The proposed changes would increase the mayor's salary from $4200 to $7500 and that of the commissioners and city auditor from $3600 to $5000 per year."

Spiro urged his members to enlighten all voters possible to secure the passage of the amendment to make for the continued betterment of Oakland.

Fred B. Mellmann made a plea for ex-service men in boosting the sixth amendment as proposed. Mellmann said: "The sixth amendment will do more for ex-service men than anything we could possibly do for them, without costing the people a cent. The present charter requires that men must have been residents of Oakland for five years before applying for admission to the police or fire departments. Many of our Great War veterans forfeited their residence in Oakland in answering the call to their country and this amendment will make it possible for them to join our police or fire department after one year's residence, provided they are American citizens. Many other cities, including Los Angeles, now have this ruling, and as a consequence those cities have an abundance of first class material for those two important departments, while Oakland is greatly handicapped in not being able to avail itself of the services of many of its war veterans whose training has made them especially qualified for the work."

Elephant Rejoices When Mate Returns

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 26.—(By International News Service).—The friendly trumpeting of "Babe," massive elephant, was heard for blocks when the animal was greeted by Louis Sherer, Walbridge Park Zoo keeper, when Sherer returned to duty, recovered from his death battle with "Tony," giant ape, some weeks ago.

Babe, who has been under day and night police guard with high-powered rifles, in Sherer's absence at the hospital, sat up on his hind legs, rolled over and otherwise heartily welcomed the only one he would ever acknowledge as his master.

While scores of people looked on holding their breath Sherer, with one arm still in a sling, stepped in between the big fellow's huge legs and unlocked the heavy ankle chains that held the beast prisoner for weeks. Realizing with deafening roars of joy that he was to have his first walk in the open in weeks, Babe headed immediately for a big oak tree, where he proceeded to rub his five tons of beef until all the bark was removed.

This done, he then entertained the onlookers as on days before his confinement by sweeping up large piles of dust with his trunk and throwing them over his back.

Satisfied with Babe's meek behavior, Sherer led him into the open-air ring, whence roar after roar of glee came as scores fought to give the now contented elephant peanuts.

CZECHO SLOVAK REPUBLIC SHOWS BIG TRADE GAIN

PRAGUE, Czecho Slovakia, Aug. 24.—Although the Czecho Slovakian republic is only three and a half years old, it is the one state in Europe which has set its house in order and has avoided the evils of the printing press. The Czechs or Bohemians are a hard-working and plucky race, full of common sense, and they have built up an economic and industrial fabric which has made the country one of the most prosperous in Central Europe. Its industry today is beyond the needs of its own population. The Czech crown, which until last autumn had followed the fluctuations of the German mark, has now established its independence in the world's exchanges.

Since the creation of the republic the bulk of trade has been with Germany, although the United States is gaining an increasing share of it. According to official figures, 47.7 per cent of Czech imports in 1921 came from Germany, the latter country taking 36.2 per cent of Czech exports. Every Czech realizes that the future of the country's trade is in Central Europe, but he is anxious to avoid as far as possible any economic dependence on Germany.

Compared with Vienna and Budapest, Prague presents an appearance of prosperity and alertness. There is not that sense of despair, uncertainty and indecision which the American traveler meets in Vienna. While other European capitals suffered by the Great War, Prague was hardly affected until the revolution of 1918, when she awoke suddenly to find herself one of the great capitals of Europe.

Tony Whips Champ And Is Turned Loose

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Tony Drandrana was declared by Judge Murray, in Municipal court, to be lightweight champion of the navy, when he was arraigned before him charged with assault and battery on an unknown person.

"I was walking across the Common, Your Honor," said Tony, "when a fellow came up to me and sair, 'I'm the lightweight champion of the navy, and I can lick any man in the world of my weight.' So I took him on and gave him a beating. I got arrested, while he escaped."

Hughes Attacked On Newberry Case

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (By International News Service).—Secretary of State Hughes was accused in the Senate today by Senator Robinson (Dem.) of Arkansas of "skilfully whitewashing the Newberry case" in his recent letter in defense of Senator Newberry against charges of excessive campaign expenditures in the Michigan Senatorial primary of 1918.

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Advertisement.

HOW TO REDUCE VARICOSE VEINS

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches.

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first-class drug store and apply it at home as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil is very concentrated and a bottle lasts a long time—that's why it is a most inexpensive treatment. It has brought much comfort to worried people all over the country and is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and always bear in mind that anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. Your druggist can supply you.—Advertisement.

RICHMOND

Slot Machines Put Under Ban

RICHMOND, Aug 24.—All slot machines used as games of chance were ordered removed from Richmond premises yesterday by the police department. By a misinterpretation of the police order most merchants also removed the vending machines for gum, candy, peanuts and postage stamps. Only machines, however, that come under the category of games of games of chance will be forced to discontinue.

A number of complaints have been received through the city council alleging that juveniles have squandered many pennies in the operation of slot machines where merchandise valued at from 5 cents to 25 cents might be secured through the lucky placement of a penny.

Heckman Estate Goes Under Hammer

RICHMOND, Aug. 24.—The Fred Heckman property at 560 Ninth street is to be disposed of under an administrator's sale. Bids are now being received for the property, it is announced by Hiram E. Jacobs, attorney for the administrator.

The property consists of two lots, a house, private pumping plant, and personal property of the deceased, including an automobile.

NEIGHBORS TO PLAY WHIST.

RICHMOND, Aug. 24. — Log Cabin Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, will hold a whist party in W. O. W. Hall tonight. Candidates for public office are especially invited to attend the party, in order that the members of Woodcraft may get acquainted with them. The public is cordially invited to attend. Seventeen prizes are listed for the card session.

Congregation Names Lutheran Church

RICHMOND, Aug. 24.—The congregation of the new English Lutheran church, which opened its doors on Sunday, August 13, has chosen the name of Grace Evangelical Lutheran church of Richmond.

The following officers are announced: Rev. Frederick Weisenborn, president; C. C. Nissen, secretary-treasurer. Deacons of the church are to be named later.

The Richmond church will be received into the California Synod of the United Lutheran church at the convention which starts September 12, in Los Angeles.

High Football Team Promises

RICHMOND, Aug. 24.—Despite the loss of several stars through graduation last June, the Richmond Union High school football team looks good for the coming season. With much new material that is both husky and fast, it is expected that the old "wrecking crew" will be perpetuated at least for one more season.

Last year the Richmond High football team rolled up a heavy score against its opponents.

The first game will be played on September 16 against Concord. Other games include Santa Rosa, Hitchcock Military Academy and Mount Tamalpais Military Academy.

Stray Pig Roots Trouble For Police

RICHMOND, Aug. 24. — Richmond police scratched their heads and thought of that old classic, "Pigs Is Pigs," Tuesday, when they rounded up a 670-pound hog that was rooting up vegetables in an East Richmond garden plot. With the aid of the poundmaster, several policemen caught the hog. After learning where the beast belonged it required a dray and the services of six men to transport the porker to his original abode.

Tribune Film News Shown in Richmond

RICHMOND, Aug. 24.—Oakland, Berkeley and Pinehurst figured prominently in this week's TRIBUNE-T. and D. Camera News shown yesterday afternoon and evening at the Richmond T. and D. theater.

The annual picnic of the Oakland TRIBUNE employees, 450 strong, held on August 6, at Pinehurst in Redwood Canyon, was shown in a diversity of views showing the baseball game, the jazz steppers and the contortionist orchestra. The kiddies came in, too, for lots of publicity in the swings, the foot races and the doll contests.

Some splendid swimming and diving pictures were snapped at the University of California pool in Strawberry canyon, showing the summer school swimmers and juveniles in action.

Oakland's $20,000,000 building permits record for 1922 was indicated by views of the big structures now going up in various parts of the city. These views included the recently completed Eastbay Market and the partially completed University High school.

E. F. Schumacher Funeral Is Held

RICHMOND, Aug. 24.—Funeral services for the late Elver F. Schumacher, who died Monday morning, were held today from Curry chapel under the direction of the Point Richmond Aerie of Eagles. Rev. H. E. Hensell, of St. John's L utheran church, delivered the eulogy.

Interment was in the family plot in Mt. Olivet cemetery, San Francisco. Richmond Lodge No. 13, Knights of Pythias, conducted the services at the grave.

Painter, Killed By Fall, Buried

RICHMOND, Aug. 24.—Funeral services for Gus Karalos, who died Tuesday as the result of a fall from a scaffolding while painting the Pullman Hotel, were held today from the chapel of Wilson and Kratzer. The services were in charge of the Greek Orthodox church. Interment was in Sunset View cemetery.

Deceased was a native of Greece and was 24 years old. He is survived by his widow and one child. For the past eleven years he has resided in Richmond.

Whist Party Nets $300 For Red Men

RICHMOND, Aug. 24.—Approximately $300 was taken in by the Red Men's Association at last night's candidates' whist and dance party in Pythian Castle. The hall was crowded for the whist session with 61 prizes offered. A number of candidates were present.

The short program featured an exhibition dance by Oakland Christie. The candidates gave brief talks.

Air Express Line Will Be Initiated

MODESTO, Aug. 24.—The first aerial express service in California will be inaugurated between San Francisco and Modesto September 7, it has been announced by the Varney Airplane company of San Francisco. Regular daily trips between this place and bay cities will be made. Fresno and other San Joaquin valley towns will be included in the service at a later date. The San Francisco terminus of the line will be at San Carlos.

Truck Overturns, Injuring Driver

MERCED, Aug. 24—Gus V. Nojiri, living near Lathrop, is at the county hospital suffering from six fractured ribs and other injuries, the result of being pinned beneath his auto truck when it overturned in the sand beside the state highway. Nojiri had a load of vegetables on his machine and ran off the highway into the deep sand, while on his way to this city. The machine was little damaged.

BOND ELECTION CALLED.

MERCED, Aug. 24.—The city trustees have called a bond election of $87,500 for the improvement of sewers and the establishment of a free auto park, to be held September 18.

Baritone Sings to Aid Church Fund

SANTA CRUZ, Aug. 24.—Hubert Clyde Linscoott, of New York City, a graduate of the Jniversity of California, a baritone, appeared last evening in a recital in his home church, where annually on his return home he offers his services. He has an unusual voice, and as a result of the recital a goodly sum was realized toward the pipe organ fund of the church. The church expects to replace the pipe organ, which has been in service for thirty years with a more modern instrument.

SAN JOSE VISIT BY OAKLAND MEN STIRS INTEREST

First Trip of Western Pacific Train Over New Branch Marks Friendship.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 24.—Felicitations are being passed today over the highly successful "Oakland Day" which took place here yesterday.

Arriving in the first train ever to travel over the new Oakland branch of the Western Pacific, nearly 300 Oakland men and officials of the Western Pacific were received by 400 San Joseans in automobiles and were driven through the streets of the city and then to the Hotel Vendome grounds.

Besides speeches by officials of the Western Pacific, Joseph R. Knowland, publisher of The Oakland TRIBUNE; Charles E. Wehn of the Alameda Chamber of Commerce; Clyde Shrader of the Berkeley Chamber, and S. B. Granger of the San Leandro Chamber were heard with close interest.

Among the railroad officials attending were: B. K. Smith, general passenger agent; J. H. Leary, general superintendent, Archibald Gray, general freight agent; Theodore Hart, assistant general freight agent; A. H. Moffett, Oakland ticket agent; P. R. Tobin, district traveling freight agent, and Wingfield Scott, promotion agent.

Two Fatally Burned in Fishing Boat Fire

SAN PEDRO, Aug. 24.—(By International News Service.)—Two men were probably fatally burned and a third narrowly escaped death in an explosion on board a fishing boat off Point Vincente early today when the cannery tender "A-B" was destroyed by fire. Only the three men were on board at the time and all were forced to leap into the sea as the craft suddenly became a seething mass of flames when one of the gasoline supply tanks ignited.

The men were picked up by an Austrian fishing boat.

Following are the grand directors: Joseph Ganno, of San Francisco; O. K. Gerstner of San Diego; F. A. Sullivan of San Francisco; Ralph Knapp of Oakland; J. W. Henderson of San Jose; John J. Coughlan of San Francisco; Hugh Green of Stockton, and W. W. Sauers of San Francisco.

The new grand officers were installed by Past Grand President Benjamin L. McKinley of San Francisco, who was assisted by Thomas P. Scollan of Sacramento and James A. Hounsell of Richmond.

FAST RUN FROM EAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24. — The Pacific Mail liner President Taft has set up a new record for the run between New York and San Francisco, arriving yesterday a few hours more than 12 days after leaving the eastern port, the Pacific Mail announced. The previous record was made by the H. F. Alexander, formerly the Great Northern, which made the run in 13 days.

JUST ONE HOUR OF WEDDED LIFE ENOUGH FOR PAIR

Just one hour of married life was enough for Muriel and Fred B. Bradlee who decided after a single hour of living together to separate. Mrs. Bradlee filed a divorce action in the superior court today. She alleges that they were married in San Francisco August 19, 1921, and that an hour later they separated. She declares that since that time her husband has never supported her and that she has had to depend on the charity of her relatives and friends for a living. Mrs. Bradlee, who was formerly Muriel M. O'Donnell, asks the court to restore her the unmarried state and award her such relief as it sees fit.

Trial Date Is Set For Turlock Banker

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24. — The case of Gustaf Hemple, former Turlock banker, charged with attempting to defraud H. A. Johnson and the Farmers' and Merchants' bank here of $10,000, will be heard by Justice Channing Follette August 28.

Hemple's case was continued at his preliminary hearing. Hemple was alleged to have forged John's name on a note upon which he later attempted to draw money from the bank. He is held in the county jail in default of $10,000 bond set by the court.

BIG POWER for BIG AUTOMOBILES

You selected your car carefully for quality. Select your motor fuel the same way. It is unfair to feed a good car an inferior gasoline.

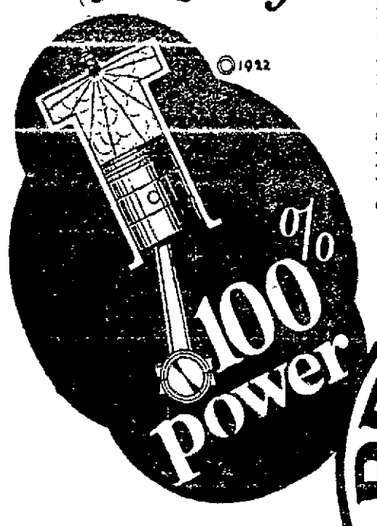

"Red Crown" answers completely the automotive engineer's demand for a motor fuel that will vaporize rapidly and uniformly in the carburetor and explode cleanly in the cylinders. All the heat units it contains are converted into power at the drive wheels.

"Red Crown" is uniform in quality—every gallon is the same, wherever and whenever you buy it.

W. P. Bridge Partly Wrecked in Nevada

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24—Partial destruction by fire of the Western Pacific railroad bridge over the Humboldt river, east of Elko, Nev., was reported to the railroad headquarters here today. A rigid investigation of the cause of the fire was ordered. Western Pacific traffic was maintained by detouring trains over the Southern Pacific lines between Elko and Deeth, Nev., a distance of twenty miles.

WILKENS' TRIAD SLATED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—The trial of Henry Wilkens for alleged complicity in the murder of his wife, Anna Wilkens, will begin on September 25. Mrs. Wilkens was killed last Decoration Day when she and her husband and their children were held up by auto bandits. Judge Louis Ward yesterday set the date of the trial.

HOLD WEINSTOCK FUNERAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Funeral services were held here today for Colonel Harris Weinstock, who died Tuesday from injuries received when he fell from a horse last Sunday. The accident happened near Palo Alto. The injured man died at the Palo Alto hospital without regaining consciousness. The body was brought from Palo Alto to a local undertaking establishment.

MRS HARRIMAN IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Mary W. Harriman, widow of E. H. Harriman, the railroad builder and financier, is visiting in San Francisco. She has been manager of the $100,000,000 Harriman estate since Harriman's death in 1909. She is accompanied only by her maid. She expects to remain here about two weeks before going back East. She is staying at the Fairmont Hotel.

MINT TO COIN GOLD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—F. E. Scobey, director of the U. S. Mint, is here on business and announces that for the present all $20 gold pieces to be coined in this country will be struck in San Francisco. The government now has in its possession approximately four billion dollars in gold bullion. A large quantity of this bullion is now in the San Francisco mint.

TELLER'S WIFE SUES.

Easiest Way to Remove Ugly Hairy Growths

(Beauty Culture)

Here is a method for removing hair from arms, neck or face that is unfailing and is quite inexpensive; mix a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water, and spread on hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes rub it off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. No harm or inconvenience results from this treatment, but be careful to get genuine delatone and mix fresh.—Advertisement.

VOTE DELAYED ON SHIP SUBSIDY UNTIL DECEMBER

President in Letter to House Leader Mondell Assents to Such Action.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—President Harding yesterday assented to a delay in legislation to aid the American merchant marine.

In a letter to House Leader Mondell he expressed deep disappointment that a situation had developed which would make it inadvisable to press the shipping bill just now.

The president's letter to Mondell follows:

My Dear Mr. Mondell:

I have your note conveying the reluctance of yourself and your associates favorable to the bill to aid American merchant shipping to bring the measure up for a vote in the prevailing situation in the House. I am frankly disappointed that the circumstances have combined to make a difficult situation on the one hand and the diminished attendance in the House are chargeable on the other hand to the new complications which have arisen.

It would be folly to ignore the development of the prohibition issue which came up so unexpectedly and we must face the fact that the friends of the bill must harmonize their views to accord with both the constitutional amendment and public opinion on this subject. Moreover, the same friends of the measure must reach a concord in the matter of the favoring position carried in the tax exemption section which was designed to provide indirect aid to American shipping enterprise

I need not tell you that but for the engrossment in the industrial situation I should have long since invited conferences looking to an agreement on these problems.

I am so earnest about the purpose of this measure, I think it so important in furthering our commercial good fortunes and so essential to our self-dependence and our national defense that I had much rather the bill should await consideration until we can rivet the attention of congress with a full attendance than jeopardize its success by pressing for an immediate decision.

I venture to express to you in this way the hope which I have previously uttered that the administration may find a way to deal with these new difficulties with the approval of all supporters of an American merchant marine and that we then may have favorable action before the congress gets too deeply engaged in the pressing legislation which must be considered in the short session.

Very truly yours,
WARREN G. HARDING

SUPERIORITY OF HORSE UNDECIDED

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Superiority of thoroughbred horses over the cow ponies of mustang breeding for use on the plans and mountains of Colorado still remain unsettled, honors in the five-day test for speed and stamina over a 300-mile course about Colorado Springs recently being equally divided between these two breeds.

Norfolk Star, a thoroughbred army charger was given the Broadmoor Remount Endurance cup and first prize money. Rabbit, a cow pony, was given second place. Fox, another cow pony, was given third position and fourth honors went to Jerry, a cross standard-bred army charger. Rabbit placed highest in stamina and Jerry placed first in speed, but general grading brought them down.

In Colorado's early days the breeding of saddle horses was of even more importance than the raising of cattle. Horses were the one method of transportation suited to the country and his horse and his gun were the most treasured possession of the cowboy.

Changing days and a new era of economics lessened the importance of both and the breeding of saddle horses was rapidly losing place in the state. Ranchers and sportsmen, becoming alarmed over the increasing difficulty of obtaining saddle horses suitable for Colorado terrain, quickly took up the plan proposed by Bryant Turner, owner of the Trichara ranch, of holding a five-day endurance test over Colorado territory as a means of arousing interest in the breeding of better saddle horses.

Newer Form of Iron Quickly Increases 'Pep' Strength and Energy

"You cannot be well and strong, and full of vigor, force and power unless your blood is rich in iron," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician Bellevue Hospital (Out-Door Department), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital. "It is your red blood that enables you to resist and overcome disease and that nourishes every organ in your body. Without iron your blood becomes thin, pale, and watery. Poor blood cannot nourish your vital organs and as a result you may have pains in your heart or kidneys, indigestion, headaches, and feel all run-down and tired-out."

When your blood lacks iron do not waste your time taking stimulating medicines or narcotic drugs, but directly enrich your blood with the newer form of iron sold by all druggists under the name of Nuxated Iron, which is like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, and in a form easily assimilated into your blood.

Get a bottle of Nuxated Iron today. Take it for two weeks, and if you have not, like thousands of others, obtained most surprising health strength and energy, the manufacturers will promptly refund your money. The following local druggists will sell you Nuxated Iron with this "satisfaction or money back" guarantee.—Owl Drug Co.

PLUNGER RYAN HAS $8660 TO PAY 18 MILLION

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Tangible assets of Allan A. Ryan, Wall street broker and manipulator of the famous Stutz "corner," who recently went into bankruptcy with liabilities of $18,000,000, were sold yesterday for $8660.

The sale consisted of 17 items —several promissory notes, an accident policy with no cash value; a certificate of membership in a country club, redeemable for $250; 50 community certificates valued at $250; 15 pieces of jewelry; 50 shares of Stutz Motor stock; interest in several mortgages and shares in several small enterprises, including a baseball club.

"Dolly, I'm glad you got Kellogg's Corn Flakes and fruit for supper. I'm so fagged out with the heat that Kellogg's is the only food that would appeal to my appetite. It digests so easily and yet I know it is nourishing! Guess I'll have another helping. Kellogg's certainly are delicious."

Eat sensibly during the warm weather!

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES are nourishing-refreshing-delicious

It's a long step for health and riddance of summer drowsiness and that sluggish feeling if you'll all stop eating so much heavy, greasy foods and let Kellogg's delicious Corn Flakes do your health a good turn! With cold milk and luscious fresh fruits, Kellogg's are extra delightful—so crisp and appetizing.

Kellogg's Corn Flakes —all crispy and wonderful in their flavor— are nourishing and supply all the summer energy you need; yet, they digest easily and actually rest the stomach! On such a diet you'll feel so much better; your mind will be keener and you'll accomplish a lot more work—and help yourself keep cool and cheery!

Be certain you get Kellogg's Corn Flakes—the kind in the RED and GREEN package that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. None are genuine without it!

Cook Quickly with ELECTRICITY

ELECTRIC RANGES COOK QUICKLY. Heat begins in the cooking units the instant the switch is turned to Low, Medium, or High. It rapidly mounts to an intensity that is ample for proper cooking. The heat units are just large enough for quick, perfect cooking, and not so large that electric current is consumed needlessly.

Steadiness of heat in the cooking units also makes for speed in electric cookery. The heat for which you set the switch is maintained steadily without rising or falling, or further attention on your part.

The proper size for the cooking units on electric stoves has been carefully worked out. Rapid cooking is achieved on the 3,000 electric ranges served by the P G and E for an average cost of only five dollars per month.

If the stores you patronize do not carry electric ranges, ask at the local P G and E office for further information on their speed and economy of operation.

NIPPON CONSULS TO MEET IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Regulation of the Kankodan or home sight-seeing parties and matters relating to the treatment of Japanese subjects who have lost their passports are to be the outstanding topics of a conference of Japanese consuls in Pacific Coast cities in San Francisco, September 14, S. Yada, Japanese consul-general here announced yesterday. The meeting will be attended by S. Akamatsu, chief of the immigration section of the Japanese Foreign Office, who is on his way to attend the International Labor Conference at Geneva.

No questions relating to immigration, the Japanese agricultural situation in California or kindred subjects will be discussed, Yada said.

The discussion of the Kankodan system will deal solely with curbing the supposedly extravagant statements made by certain promoters of the parties and not with the bringing back to America of the wives of party members, Yada said. Through the parties young Japanese men here are enabled to make the round trip more cheaply than they could do singly and many make it an opportunity to go home and marry, according to Yada. The parties are intended primarily for the convenience of Japanese who wish to go home to live, however, he said.

Questions relating to the vising of passports the registration of marriages and other vital statistics and consular affairs relating to Japanese nationals will also be discussed.

THREE MINUTE TALES

INTO the satisfactory partnership of Wally Ford and Fred Knapp came Dan Trotter as a gentle but disturbing element. For years the two had lived in a cabin in the Pectonica Bottoms of northern Illinois. They fished and hunted and, occasionally, rescued clam shells from the streams. With the money a button manufacturer gave them for the shells, the fish, and vegetables pulled from a patch of ground indifferently tended, they were able to live in comfort They asked nothing of the world and they got Dan Trotter.

Dan wandered along the river bank one day and stopped in at the cabin for something to eat. He was a helpless sort of man with value ideas concerning problems far removed from fishing or hunting. "To hear him go on," Wally said to Fred, "one would think the difference between the country's exports and imports and the tariff on wool were things that mattered. Now, if he would only weed the garden or dig the bait he could earn his board."

From the first Dan showed no disposition to leave. He washed the dishes, fixed himself a bed and, because they were not yet used to it, entertained the partners with his flow of words. At the end of a week neither could bring himself to tell the older man to leave. For the most part they ignored him and hoped their attitude would cause him to depart.

"Trotter," said Fred one night, "Wally and I have decided that as you are no good fishing or hunting you'll have to be cook. This here arrangement is what you call co-operative, which means every feller does his share, and a blamed sight more."

DAN was delighted. "I'll do the best I can, boys," he said, "and maybe by experimenting I can turn out some tasty dishes. As a kid when I mixed things up I was always lucky in having them turn out pretty good."

The old man took over the drudgery of the kitchen with a resulting element of chance present at meal times. No one, including the cook, had definite knowledge of what the pot and oven would bring forth. To Dan it was an interesting, even exciting experience. Wally and Fred were ready to rebel.

"The only thing we can do is treat him so cold he'll move on" decided Wally. "If it wasn't for the fact he hits something good about once in three tries. I'd shoo him out by force. The old duffer means well but he is lacking in the fundymentals."

So it was Dan awakened to the fact his companions were ignoring him and his culinary efforts. He gazed over the steaming dishpan at the two engrossed in a game of checkers and felt the full weight of a mighty sorrow.

"Here I slave for 'em," he thought, "doin' all the housework and preparing the meals, and what do I get? Some day I'll up and leave."

On the bank of the river Dan poked around while the partners were off after rabbits. A camping party had left the day before and he was in the hopes of finding a pan or something else that could be used in his kitchen. A book was his sole reward. He opened it, grinned and walked back to the house.

THAT evening Dan was lucky with his dinner and the partners were put in good humor. In the morning he surprised them with poached eggs on toast and for three days he continued to delight the astonished men with admirable concoctions. Wally and Fred became genial but the cook, if he was pleased, gave no sign. He eyed them solemnly and went about his work. It wasn't easy to forget they had tried to make him leave.

"Dan, old Trotter," said Wally one night after a strawberry shortcake had appeared as the triumph of the old man's cooking career, "you have shore hit your stride. Fred and me, we are agreed you are the best cook in the Bottoms."

Dan Trotter rose to his feet smiling as a man who had won his reward. He crossed the room, picked up a bundle, and then took his hat from the peg.

"Well, boys, I think I'll be going on. I'm such much obliged to your hospitality and I'm sorry if I overlived my welcome." The protests and appeals which followed were as music to his soul but he held to his decision.

On a moonlit trail beside the river the old man made his camp. Before he went to sleep he untied his package, took out a book and addressed it fondly.

"I don't know as I'll ever need you again," he said, "but you sure did come in handy." Next day Dan Trotter with a cook book under his arm walked out of the Bottoms forever.

Woman Out to Buy Hairnet Lands in Jail on 4 Counts

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

She did not return home. Instead she is in the Long Beach city jail in default of $3025 bail.

She was charged with reckless driving, speeding, operating an automobile without a license and issuing worthless checks.

She was accused of having struck David Martin, police court clerk, 63 years old, and causing him to go to the hospital with various injuries, including possible fracture of the skull.

Mrs. Pettibone blamed her troubles on Jack Moran, motorcycle officer, who stopped her once, on suspicion that she was speeding, but allowed her to proceed when she said:

"I just laugh at you trying to tag me—why, my brother-in-law is a sergeant on the force."

She was quoted as saying Moran "flustered" her, and the alleged reckless driving followed.

Other policemen did not hesitate to arrest her for violation of the traffic laws or to turn her over to Long Beach officers when the latter asked for her arrest on charges of having defrauded a number of Long Beach merchants with worthless checks.

S. F. FLYER WEDS 1000 FEET HIGH, 60-MILE SPEED

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Shouting over his shoulder "I will," as he drove his seaplane 60 miles an hour 1000 feet above the Hudson river yesterday, Lloyd Wilson Bertaud of San Francisco took as his bride Miss Helen Virginia Lent. The knot was tied by former Lieutenant Belvin W. Maynard, the "Flying Parson."

Twenty minutes after they were pronounced man and wife the plane splashed down and taxied to its moorings, where Mr. and Mrs. Bertaud were greeted by a group of friends.

With Eddie Stinson Bertaud won the world's endurance record at Mineola, N. Y., a freezing day last winter, remaining in the air 26 hours and 32 minutes. He also won the American Legion derby at Kansas City last fall and was fourth in the 1921 Pulitzer trophy race. During the war he was a lieutenant and served as a flying instructor in the United States army. He has a record of 3100 flying hours.

$75,000 LOSS IN FIRE.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Aug 24.—Fire having its origin in a restaurant threatened the destruction of the business district of Murrayville, twelve miles south of here, late last night. Seven business buildings with their contents were consumed by the flames, with an estimated loss of $75,000.

Sunday, August 27th, at 8 o'clock

The lift cable slipped as Harnsen and Paehlig stepped into the bucket, and when an employee tried to stop its descent at the 100-foot level, both men were thrown out, according to reports from Randsburg.

DENBY INSPECTS PLANES, DIVERS SHIPS AND MEN

HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Pearl Harbor, the American naval outpost in the Pacific, today received a four-way inspection from Edwin Denby, head of the United States Navy. Secretary Denby looked it over afoot, afloat, awing and submerged.

In a naval seaplane, piloted by Lieutenant - Commander R. D. Kirkpatrick, chief of the naval air service of Hawaii, Secretary Denby took a half hour flight over the harbor and some distance out to sea. Then in the R-17, the pick of the undersea craft and winner of the submarine efficiency trophy from all the submarine fleet, he dived and cruised the underwater lanes of the harbor. Later Denby inspected the harbor afoot and then the naval station afloat.

BOWMAN Quality DRUG STORES

THE consistent recognition of Bowman's as a powerful factor in improving the quality of drug store merchandise sold in this community should be of the utmost interest to the public, because every one is a patron of some drug store.

For over forty years and now in six stores, we have been striving every day to improve not only our service, but the grade of merchandise we sell.

No institute is infallible, but the set of drug store standards built up by our company is bringing to our counters the patronage of the better element of people in the East Bay District.

To Oakland Theatergoers

"JUST SUPPOSE" COMES TO THE FULTON PLAYHOUSE NEXT SUNDAY AFTERNOON, AUG. 27, DIRECT FROM THE COLUMBIA THEATER IN SAN FRANCISCO, WITH ISABELLE LOWE, CREIGHTON HALE, MRS. THOMAS WHIFFEN AND ENTIRE COMPANY, JUST AS PLAYED AT THE COLUMBIA---BUT AT FULTON PRICES.

"THE GREATER DRAMA SEASON!" BEGINS SUNDAY, AUGUST 27 AT THE FULTON PLAYHOUSE!

In a newly decorated theater—on a beautiful stage—with a superb new dramatic company—and a wonderful play—and a big, new orchestra—and a series of "musical dancing pictures"—that's what we mean by the Fulton Theater's GREATER DRAMA SEASON! Beginning Sunday, August 27th.

Study the Five Points!

POINT NO. 1!

The play is "JUST SUPPOSE"—the Henry Miller success, by A. E. Thomas, author of "Come Out of the Kitchen," "The Rainbow," and others. It comes direct from the Columbia Theater in San Francisco. The entire production—scenery, costumes, settings complete, as used at the Columbia, are to be transferred to the Fulton. The Columbia prices are $2.50. The Fulton prices are 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25. The Fulton prices will NOT be advanced for the "Greater Drama Season" at the Fulton.

POINT NO 2!

Isabelle Lowe, Creighton Hale, and Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, head the wonderful new company at the Fulton, for the Greater Drama Season. The San Francisco newspapers, for a month have rung and resounded with the praises of Isabelle Lowe, Creighton Hale, and Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, at the Columbia Theater, in the Henry Miller play, "Just Suppose," and the Sam Harris success, "Little Old New York."

THIS is the superb, expensive, glorious dramatic inauguration that George Ebey is bringing intact—plays, costumes, scenery, and players—ALL direct to the Fulton from the Columbia, AND AT FULTON THEATER PRICES.

POINT NO. 3!

THE THEATER, ALREADY KNOWN AS THE "BEAUTIFUL DRAWING-ROOM THEATER OF OAKLAND," HAS BEEN FURNISHED THROUGHOUT—WITH NEW DRAPERIES—NEW CARPETS—BEAUTIFUL NEW LAMPS—NEW VELVET STAGE CURTAINS—NEW FOYER FURNITURE—A VERITABLE BOWER OF BEAUTY.

THE THEATER HAS BEEN MADE EXQUISITELY BEAUTIFUL, AT A COST OF $20,000.00, FOR YOUR COMFORT AND JOY. IT IS A WORTHY SETTING FOR THE RARE JEWELS OF PLAYS AND ARTISTS—ISABELLE LOWE, CREIGHTON HALE, MRS. THOMAS WHIFFEN, WALTER SCOTT WEEKS, JOHN MILJAN, DOROTHY BLACKBURN, LOUIS MORRISON, FRED THOMSON, WILL LLOYD—WHO ARE TO APPEAR IN "JUST SUPPOSE"—"LITTLE OLD NEW YORK"—"EAST IS WEST"—"EXPERIENCE"—"SEVENTEEN"—and MANY OTHER GREAT PRODUCTIONS.

POINT NO. 4!

The orchestra, under Conductor W. Haworth, has been augmented with flutes, violins, and horns, until it is easily the paramount orchestra in Oakland. This orchestra will hereafter begin its concert promptly at 8:05 o'clock at night. Do not miss one of the beautiful overtures of Conductor Haworth's big band. Watch for them, and come early.

POINT NO. 5

Delightful musical and dancing spectacles—set in rarely beautiful stage designs—the whole portraying what we are pleased to call "Musical Pictures" will hereafter be a feature of Fulton performances.

They will precede the plays, and will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

They will be an important part of the Greater Drama Season at the Fulton.

The first will be shown Sunday, August 27th.

Fifteen radiant dancing girls, in a quartette of marvelous dancing pictures—under the direction of Anita Peters Wright, will give you a gorgeously costumed, richly staged, perfectly trained performance. Their art will surely be worthy the title of "Musical Pictures."

Don't miss them—and do not forget that they appear promptly at 2:15 and 8:15 o'clock.

The Play Is "Just Suppose"

"Just Suppose" that the Prince of Wales, on an important visit to Washington, D. C., should escape from the cares of state for a few hours—

"Just Suppose" that, with a "pal" from his retinue, he should motor to a lovely Virginia home, and—

"Just Suppose" that in the moonlight of a Virginia summer night a lovely Virginia maid should win his heart—

"Just Suppose" that the Prince of Wales fell very deeply in love, and that the maid returned his ardor, while all the wheels of state in Washington stood still and the whole world buzzed with wonder over his absence, and—

"Just Suppose" that the Prince and his Virginia sweetheart sipped the sweets of love on that moonlight night, and planned a daring marriage until—until—until——

Well—"Just Suppose"

And, while you play the game of "Just Suppose", with Isabelle Lowe and Creighton Hale, and Mrs. Thomas Whiffen and A. E. Thomas, the brilliant author—ask yourself the fascinating question—"Did it really happen"—"Could it really have happened?" Anyway—

"Just Suppose"

MEDICAL EXPERT DIES.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 24. — Dr. Lee Ben Clark, 54, well known in medica circles throughout the world for his writings on medical research, is dead at his home here today following a stroke of apoplexy five weeks ago. Dr. Clark inaugurated the glandular treatment for defective children.

TO JAIL AUTO SPEEDERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24 — After assessing 24 automobile speeders a total of $340, Police Judge Lile T. Jacks yesterday served notice from the bench that beginning next month jail sentences will be substituted for fines.

Only 2 per cent of the population of Kingstown Jamaica are white.

STOP ITCHING SKIN

Zemo, the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Gives Prompt Relief.

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and that cleanses and soothes the skin.

Ask any druggist for a 35c or $1 bottle of Zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that irritations, Pimples, Blackheads, Eczema, Blotches, Ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

Zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy.—Advertisement.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrhu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenrhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.—Advertisement

WAS A BROKEN-DOWN WOMAN

Then I Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicines

Donaldsonville, La.—"I write with pleasure to praise your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—which has done so much to restore my health. I was a broken-down woman until my husband brought me a bottle of your Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine. I had been having pains every month and at intervals between, was weak and seemed to be smothering at times, but in a week I felt like another woman. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. It did me a lot of good too. I cannot praise your medicines too much and will be more than glad to recommend them to any woman who is suffering from female troubles. You may print my testimonial, as it is true."—Mrs. T. A. LANDRY, 612 Miss. St., Donaldsonville, La.

Note Mrs. Landry's words—"as it is true." Every letter recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is genuine. It is a statement telling the merits of these medicines just as the women in your own neighborhood tell each other.

Stage and Film Stars Seen in Oakland

ORPHEUM

Charlotte Greenwood, Oakland's favorite stage commedienne, who played to the largest week's business of her entire career in this city when she appeared here last in 'So Long Letty" is to pay Oakland her annual visit and will present her newest and most popular comedy success, "Letty Pepper," at the Orpheum Theater here next week.

Critics say that "Letty Pepper" affords Miss Greenwood many opportunities for her unique comedy ability. The supporting cast includes Ray Raymond, Master Gabriel, Frances Victory, Thomas Walsh, Stewart Wilson, Ruth Rickarby, Mann Holiner, Marie Holly, Wilfred Young, Virginia Clark and a dashing chorus of Broadway beauties.

Manager W. A. Rusco of the Orpheum announces that the engagement of 'So Long Letty" will open at that house on next Monday night instead of Sunday, owing to the fact that Miss Greenwood never plays on Sunday. Leo Carrillo in "Mike Angelo" is delighting large audiences at the Orpheum this week.

AMERICAN

Whatever triumphs have been won by Pauline Frederick in her previous screen efforts, it is her wonderful work in "The Glory of Clementina," now playing at the American theater which will rank as her finest dramatic presentation according to the capacity audiences now viewing the picture.

On the same bill is a highly interesting murder mystery, "For the Defense" featuring the versatile Ethel Clayton. The story is of the murder of a Hindu hypnotist and the subsequent efforts of three women to attempt to shoulder the responsibility.

Next week the American presents [illegible] York critics have pronounced the most stupendous picture to have ever been flashed upon the screen.

PANTAGES

Miss Ethel Lawrence, Oakland girl returns home after years and will appear for the first time on a local stage at the Pantages next Sunday in "Springtime Frivolities."

A brilliant number is promised in Perry Corwey, musical clown from the New York Hippodrome. Scotty Weston, dancer, will display graceful and original steps.

Victoria and Dupree do dancing and acrobatics in clever manner. Other features will be found on the bill along with the regular film features.

FRANKLIN

With Jack Holt in the latest Paramount production "While Satan Sleeps" and a Pathe novelty picture showing the ice-covered polar regions, the bill at the Franklin this week satisfies both young and old to perfection.

"Nanook of the North" is a 5000 foot film, the two year work of the famous explorer and discoverer Robert J. Flaherty and has been proclaimed a screen classic by both [illegible] North" will terminate its engagement tomorrow.

Thomas Meighan in "If You Believe I Do" [illegible] today noon.

FULTON

Unusual interest apparently has been aroused by the announcement from the Fulton of its greater drama season, which is to begin next Sunday afternoon, with the first appearance of the company of stars from the Columbia theater in San Francisco in the Henry Miller play, 'Just Suppose."

Isabelle Lowe, who is to star in "Just Suppose" with Creighton Hale and Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, is to appear in "Just Suppose" and "Little Old New York." Creighton Hale was originally chosen for the part of the 'Prince of Wales' in the Henry Miller production of 'Just Suppose," but a London engagement prevented him from creating the role in New York. Mrs. Thomas Whiffen's fame is such that everyone knows of her ability.

Managing Director George Ebey announces that a pretentious dancing spectacle in which fifteen girls will participate will precede the place "Just Suppose."

This week James Gleason is saying good-bye to his admirers in the rollicking comedy, 'She Walked In Her Sleep." The Royal Hawaiian Serenaders are providing at all the performances an unusual offering in advance of the comedy of the evening.

AUDITORIUM

In presenting a revival of "The Bohemian Girl" Ferris Hartman and Paul Steindorff have again done the music lovers of the Eastbay district a real service. The old opera modernized by modern scenery and lighting effects and delightfully sung is proving a popular success.

Hartman has the role of Devilshoof Rafael Brunetto the role of the governor, Hazel Van Haltren the part of his niece and Robert Carl[illegible] Campbell is cast as the Queen of the Gypsies and Edna Malone has the part of La Zingara, a dancer. Hartman's little daughter Virginia Lee is seen for a moment in the kidnapping scene in the first act and his son Paul appears as Captain of the Guard. Elfreda Steindorff, daughter of the musician, has the role of Ruda, a nurse.

STATE.

May McAvoy has the support of a most capable cast in her latest release "A Homespun Vamp," which is the current feature at the State Theater. Darrell Foss is leading man.

Miss McAvoy has the role of a pathetic little small drudge who soul worships a distinguished young author who is spending a few weeks in her native village. Circumstances bring about their marriage.

The vaudeville this week featuring Joe Boganny's Comedians, eight men and three midgets, is especially pleasing. The five other acts on the bill are of a high calibre and applause is in effect all during the showing of the varieties.

Coming to the State, Sunday, is Colleen Torle in "A Wide Open Town."

"Bits of Dance Hits" is the scenic versatile dance extravaganza to be [illegible] as a headline among [illegible].

T. and D.

Motorists who have difficulty in downtown traffic will have a fellow feeling for Eddie Gribbon who drives his motorcycle and side-car along Main street in "The Crossroads of New York," the Sennett special playing at the T. & D. this week.

"The Crossroads of New York" is an affair of action and dramatic qualities as well as humorous, and boasts besides a large number of the Sennett favorites a cast of eminent screen artists including Noah Berry, Kathryn McGuire, George O'Hara and others.

Other features of the program are John Becker and his syncopation ists Dustin Farnum in "Strange Idols" and "Felix," the cat, a cartoon character in 'Felix at the pair,' an animated cartoon comedy.

NEW BROADWAY

Any Wife," starring Pearl White, and "The Devil Within," which offers Dustin Farnum in the title role, make up two big first-run attractions at the New Broadway theater today and tomorrow.

"Any Wife" is Julia Tolsva's stage drama of the same name which depicts a discontented wife covetous of a gayer life.

"The Devil Within' is one of Dustin Farnum's greatest screen characterizations.

Anna Q. Nilsson is announced to appear in "Why Girls Leave Home" next Sunday.

NEPTUNE BEACH

Preparations are being made at Neptune Beach for Friday, when Henry F. Vogt, secretary of the Oakland Board of Park Directors will entertain the children of the Fred Finch Orphanage. More than one hundred kiddies ranging in ages from four to twelve will be taken to the beach in special cars and treated to free rides and swims and candy.

After the children have been returned to the orphanage, Vogt will entertain his grown up guests with a dance in the beach pavilion. Saturday is Baum's Candy Day at the beach. "Fun on the Beach," is the order for Sunday. The Neptune swimmers who have amused on several occasions with their antics are arranging a program that will vie with a series of vaudeville acts for finished humor.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(By Associated Press)—Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt has made public a message to President Harding from the presidents of Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua, on board the United States steamer Tacoma, where on Monday they signed a convention.

The message follows:

"The undersigned presidents of Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua, in signing the convention, which serves to insure peace in their states, return thanks to your excellency for the luxurious hospitality accorded them on the U. S. S. Tacoma of the United States navy and for the noble interest which your friendly nation, worthily represented by its three ministers plenipotentiary, has manifested in the prosperity and fraternal relations of these peoples and they avail themselves of this occasion to reiterate to your excellency the protestations of their friendship toward your great nation and its illustrious executive.

$40,000 FURS STOLEN.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 24. — Fur coats and other wearing apparel to the value of $40,000 was stolen by thieves, woh early today tunneled their way through an adjoining piano store into the Engle & Wetzer Fur Company's building here. The robbery was discovered when employees opened the store for the day's business.

CENTURY

In the story Jack Russel plays the part of a man married to a woman who to her way of thinking through ill health is destined for an untimely end. This wife believes it her duty to select a suitable mate for her husband after she has passed into the great beyond.

"Two of a Kind" is the title of the new musical revue Jack Russell is bringing to the Century Theater Sunday.

NEW CHIMES

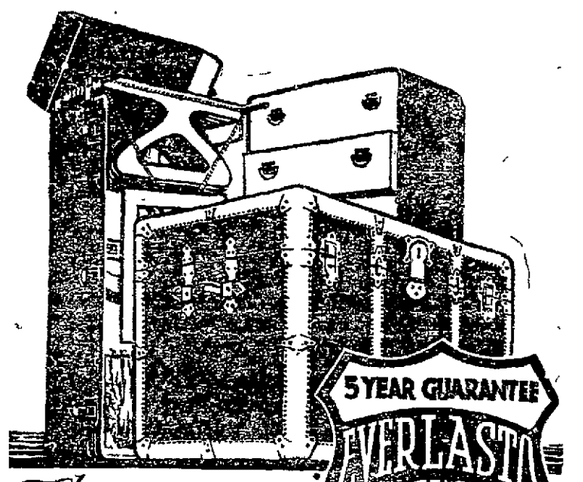

No better story for motion picture purposes has ever been utilized than the tale which forms the basis of "Reported Missing," starring Owen Moore, which commences a two days' engagement at the New Chimes theater today.

The production deals with the attempt of a far eastern capitalist to obtain possession of a huge fleet of ships owned by an American shipping company.

EAST OAKLAND SHOWS RAPID GROWTH

View on Hopkins street, a portion of the cross-town thoroughfare which, it is predicted, will solve some of the problems of transportation which confront the East Side. Melrose Heights are seen in the distance and in the immediate foreground is Hopkinstown.

IMPROVEMENTS ARE MADE FOR EAST OAKLAND

Terminal Railways Spending $100,000 on East Fourteenth Street.

According to officials of San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, the work now being done on East Fourteenth street between Fifteenth and Twenty-first avenues at a cost of approximately $100,000, is but one of a number of improvements planned by the company for East Oakland which are now made possible by money which has not heretofore been available. It is said that W. R. Alberger, vice-president and general manager of the company has been conducting an exhaustive investigation into traffic requirements which have convinced him that East Oakland residence development has caused one of the most important problems with which the company is confronted.

The work on East Fourteenth street is of the most permanent character. The street is being excavated to a depth of two feet from the rail level of the finished track Beneath this sub-grade a six inch terra cotta drain tile is laid lengthwise below the center of each track The bottom of this tile is nearly three feet below the finished track level.

California redwood ties six by eight inches and eight feet long are placed at twenty-two inch intervals. On these ties are fastened the 106-pound girder rails. Crushed rock ballast is tamped between and under the ties to bring the rails to the proper level, Tamping is done with shovels, bars and pneumatic tampers in such a manner as to give a certain elasticity coupled with definite and permanent rail levels, relieving passengers of unnecessary jars and at the same time making the construction permanent.

Concrete is run to a uniform depth of six inches over ties with added depth of six inches underneath each rail, filling pockets between ties which are made by digging out the ballast. The depth of concrete underneath rails is therefore twelve inches. All the concrete is run at the same time, so that all unites and sets in one mass giving greatest possible rigidity to the whole structure

The high character of this work is indicated by the fact that the cost amounting to $100,000 is for a total of 3,430 feet of track mileage. The curves at Twenty-third avenue alone cost in the neighborhood of $20,000.

VOLSTEAD DRINK LIKE CHAMPAGNE ONLY DIFFERENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—"I have found a drink which will solve the prohibition question"

With that sensational announcement Camille Mailhebuau, for years proprietor of the famous "Old Poodle Dog" restaurant in San Francisco, was "back home" from France today.

He described it:

"It is like champagne but different. It contains no alcohol. It is made from herbs, sugar and grape juice. It serves as a wonderful appetizer. The American consul at Bordeaux has sanctioned it, so there will be no trouble with customs officials"

But there is one risk about it, Camille admitted.

"I don't know yet whether it will ferment in transportation," he said.

Bobbed Beauties to Enter K. of P. Revue

Bobbed hair beauties of Alameda county are sending in entries for the "flapper's revue" to be held as a feature of the three-day carnival and bazaar to be given by the Alameda County Knights of Pythias in the Oakland Municipal Auditorium on the evenings of August 31 and September 1 and 2. The revue will be held on the evening of September 2, and women with bobbed hair are requested to send their names to D. H Wyckoff, room 102, 529 Twelfth street.

Charles J. Creller, grand keeper of records and seal, will officially visit the auditorium on September 1 and will be the guest of the Oakland lodges. Other grand lodge officers who will be present include Jesse W. Carter, grand chancellor and district attorney of Shasta county, and Dr. O. E. Jackson, grand vice chancellor of Petaluma. More than 3000 visitors are expected to be in Oakland during the three nights.

Campaign Workers Guests At Smoker

Men who assisted in the recent Chamber of Commerce campaign will be guests at a smoker to be held at the Hotel Oakland Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Invitations to this reunion are being sent out today.

J. D. Allen of San Francisco, spoken of in the invitation as "one of the most inspiring speakers on the coast, a man who has given the better portion of his life to community service," will be chief speaker.

This meeting will see the formation of the "Onward Oakland" Club which is expected to play a very decided part in civic advancement in the future.

MEETINGS FOR MEN.

Weekly meetings of men for the study of New Thought, psychology and metaphysics, under the auspices of Oakland Truth Center, will begin tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at Social hall, 1450B Alice street. Charles H. Seccombe will deliver a course of half-hour lectures on the "Science of Being and Power of Thought." The remaining half hour will be devoted to discussion. The subject of the lecture tomorrow evening is: "The Secret of Success—I Am."

CHURCH EDITOR SPEAKER.

Rev. Robert C. McQuilkin of Philadelphia, formerly associated with The Sunday-school Times, will be the speaker at the Friday Fellowship luncheon of the Y. M. C. A. at 12 o'clock tomorrow.

Sweep of Street Bisecting Hopkinstown East of Dimond Shown.

A fact concerning Hopkinstown to which attention has recently been called is illustrated by a photograph taken by the California Subdivision Company's photographer showing the sweep of this street to the east and southwest where it bisects Hopkinstown a short distance east of Dimond.

Officials and committees representing the East Side Board of Trade and various improvement clubs are giving earnest attention and much study to the problem of relieving the great accumulation of east and west bound traffic that floods East Fourteenth street to an extent often resulting in congestion and entire blocking of traffic A committee of East Side Board of Trade is now in consultation with city planning experts with a view to understanding the problem and devising an adequate solution.

SEEK CAR LINE.

Prominent among the various plans considered is the one which will include Grand avenue, Excelsior avenue and Hopkins street in one main thoroughfare so arranged as to width and grades as to accommodate a large volume of traffic. It is hoped that ultimately a street car line may be arranged for over this route, connecting with the G or Hopkins car which now supplies Hopkinstown with a service transporting the Hopkinstown home owner to his place of business in th center of Oakland in twenty-two minutes.

Lawrence Block, who is managing the sale of homesites in Hopkinstown for the California Subdivision Company, expresses the opinion that Hopkins street is to be a very important avenue of traffic between Oakland and Alameda county points, particularly those sections ranging along the higher lands and foothills of East Oakland and the territory further east.

Block points out the fact that Hopkinstown, which lies along both sides of Hopkins street at and near Peralta avenue, is almost exactly midway between the limits of Oakland to northwest and southeast, respectively, and that, as the main business center is to the west and the population is spreading to the east and southeast at a rapid rate, causing an almost unprecedented demand for homes, Hopkinstown is destined to be an important residence section; therefore that property bought here at the present bargain prices must inevitably show a material increase in value as soon as the present offering of homesites is sold

PLAN INVESTMENTS.

It is considered significant that old residents of the immediate vicinity of Hopkinstown are discussing the idea of buying lots during the present sale and holding them for investment. One man who has lived at the corner of Hopkins and [illegible] has raised a variety of fruits of the choicest quality on his own home lot, has recently purchased one of the Hopkinstown lots for approximately one-half the price he offered for it a few years ago.

This man knew the San Antonio of old, which is said to have been the first trading port on the Pacific and from which four and six horse stages used to take passengers and mail to Fruitvale and other more remote points. He has seen East Oakland develop and has come to the conclusion that, as present prices are the lowest for years and population rapidly increasing, the pressure of actual residence value will force prices up in Hopkinstown very shortly.

The sightly land of the old Rose farm, now Hopkinstown, is arousing intense interest in this property among the people who visit the California Subdivision Company tent at Peralta and Hopkins. Many drive out by Grand avenue, Excelsior avenue and Hopkins street from central Oakland while others take the G car at Twelfth and Broadway, reaching Hopkinstown in twenty-two minutes. There are many expressions of the opinion that conditions which force the sale of this property by the present owners offer an exceptional opportunity for those who make their homes here at this time

Progress Made On Electric Plant

Much preliminary work has been done looking toward the speedy erection of the new General Electric plant to be located on the property at Fifty-fourth avenue and East 14th street It will be of steel, brick and concrete and the first unit will cost approximately $200,-[illegible] tured great switchboards for the vast hydro-electric installations to be made for power interests throughout the west

CALMET COOKERS ADD PLEASURE AT LEGION DINNER

Electric Contrivance Manufactured by Westgate Company Is Popular.

At the entertainment of the American Legion in their hall at Twelfth and Harrison, Tuesday evening, added pleasure was lent the occasion by the service of "hot dogs," rolls and coffee from Calmet cookers made in East Oakland and loaned to the American Legion for the purpose, along with the services of employes of the manufacturing company, the Westgate Metal Products Company.

The "hot dogs" were prepared in a manner novel and affording special flavor, through placing them in the rolls, afterward placing the combination in the cooker and subjecting it to the regulation heat in the containers which are air tight The result was to preserve all juices and distribute them partially through the rolls, affording a delectable article of diet.

GAINS IN FAVOR.

The Calmet Electric Cooker is gaining favor because it does several things in a different way and more successfully than they have been done before it was perfected. It is not only a combination of clock, mechanism, electric heat and fireless cooker. All these principles have been combined, it is true, and in addition, much experimentation has been made concerning temperatures and lengths of time for cooking. Also, especial study has been given to combinations of meats, vegetables, desserts, etc., which will cook ideally under the same conditions. As a climax to these investigations the company has produced a valuable cook book especially for use with its marvelous cooker.

In the cook book it is stated that the cooker is entirely automatic and is designed for use on an ordinary electric light socket. It is designed particularly to cook foods that ordinarily take a long time by prevailing methods. Such foods as tough meats, stews, beans, brown bread and puddings are especially mentioned. Light breads, corn bread and cakes of several sorts are included among the recipes which are sufficient and adequately varied to suit any family difference of taste that can be conceived

RETAIN ALL MOISTURE.

One of the main advantages of the Calmet Electric Cooker is found in its ability to retain all the moisture, juices and flavor of the foods during the entire process of cooking. To one who has observed the

CALMET
Cooks Everything at the Same Time

All the meal goes into the Calmet Automatic Electric Cooker at the same time and is ready for serving at the same time—as is indicated in the typical Calmet menu printed above.

When she has filled the Calmet and set the time-clock for the hour she wishes the cooking to start, the housewife's work is through. She has the remainder of the afternoon to herself—for visiting, sewing, reading, any of the pleasures of which she is often deprived by ordinary cooking methods.

Even if the meal is delayed the food will not burn or scorch. The Calmet maintains an even low heat through the automatic control of the temperature that retains every particle of flavor and makes the toughest meat tender and juicy.

$70,000 STOCKTON FIRE THREATENS PHONE BUILDING

Two-Story Brick Structure and Number of Automobiles Destroyed.

Special to The TRIBUNE.

STOCKTON, Aug. 24. — The main office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company was threatened by a fire which destroyed the two-story brick building occupied by the E. R. Jessop company, automobile dealers, with a loss estimated at $70,000, early this morning.

Fire of undetermined origin broke out in the building shortly after two o'clock and before the fire department arrived the brick structure had been converted into a furnace. At the risk of their lives the firemen endeavored to save the burning automobiles.

Many of the machines were rolled to safety and the loss is devoted chiefly to other cars, all partially covered by insurance. The firefighters were assisted in their hazardous work by residents of Stockton who were attracted to the scene by the flames.

While the fire was confined within the walls of the Jessop concern's building, it threatened to spread to the building of the telephone company and the 5-story Belden building on the other side of Jessop's. Investigation into the origin of the blaze is being made by the police and fire departments.

Many in Attendance At K. of C. Smoker

A packed house attended the smoker held by the Knights of Columbus, Oakland Council No. 784, at their auditorium last evening. The lecturer, Frank M. Flynn, assisted by George Prefontaine and Robert E. Smith, arranged for the entertainment.

Company E, League of the Cross Cadets, furnished the boxing talent under the management of Joseph Dias. The main event between Anchor Dolan and Johnnie Madden was stopped in the third round and the decision given to Dolan.

Eddie Hurley and Jimmie Adams boxed a draw. Tommy Prendeville won a decision over Joe Moriarity. Frankie Hilkens knocked out Ted Sullivan in the second round.

Paul Dempsey refereed and the judges were Deputy County Assessor Edward F. Doyle and Deputy Sealer of Weights and Measures John J. Donovan.

Murphy and Scott put on a black face sketch, and Leo Hanley, tenor, sang. His "Dreams of To-morrow Land" and "Tennessee" drew applause. William Brusher at the piano, accompanied.

Freight Cars Delay Ferry Commuters

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Is profanity on the increase among commuters? It seemed so at 7:16 o'clock this morning, when a locomotive dragged 26 freight car over the tracks of the Belt railroad, past the Ferry building. Several of the commuters, Oakland bound, missed the 7:20 boat and were 20 minutes late to work, it was reported.

Complaints growin out of similar delays have been made to the Harbor Commission on several occasions in the past, it is said.

New Navy Plane Can Fly Without Pilot's Control

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—A new type of seaplane which is almost capable of flying without a pilot has been delivered to the navy department. The plane, designed for the training of student aviators, combines safety features never before equaled in aircraft, navy officers said, with qualities of speed and maneuver ability. It recently made a successful 700-mile flight from the factory at Ogdensburg, New York.

"In testing the plane for stability, the pilot released the controls, taking his hands and feet off of them," said Commander T. G. Ellyson, of the bureau of aeronautics, who brought the craft to Washington. "The throttle was cut to low speed and the plane went into a long glide. He then speeded up the engine and the plane leveled off and continued in normal flight.

"Finally the engine was speeded up with the throttle wide open. The plane began to climb. Then she fell off on one wing and dove until a speed of 100 knots was registered, when the plane again leveled off in normal flight. During the entire demonstration, the pilot, Lieutenant Nielson, did not touch the control with either his feet or his hands."

The plane will be known as the "Huff-Navy-HN-1."

RAIL SURGEONS TO HOLD MEETING

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—The twentieth annual meeting of the Pacific Association of Railway Surgeons will be held here in the Medical building at Bush and Hyde streets tomorrow and Saturday. The sessions will start Friday afternoon and conclude with the annual dinner at the Fairmont hotel on Saturday night, when Dr. Richard Cabot will deliver an address.

The program is as follows:

Friday, August 25—Addresses by Dr. J. B. Cutter, San Francisco; Dr. W. C. Shipley, Cloverdale; Dr. R. A. Peers, Colfax; Dr. S. C. Rodgers, Watsonville; Dr. L. R. Ramey, El Paso.

Trial For Murder of Workers Begun

The trial of Angelo Basille, charged with murder, began today with the selection of a jury in Superior Judge Lincoln S. Church's department of the Superior Court.

Basille is charged with killing Chris Lutras during a quarrel between the two, who were employed as track workers on the Southern Pacific. The alleged murder took place March 3 of this year.

Deputy District Attorneys Frank Shay and Donald McClure are prosecuting the case and Attorneys Wilbur Pierce, Thomas Carlson and Richard M. Lyman, Jr., are defending Basille.

$52,400 Inheritance Tax Ordered Paid

Alameda county and the State of California will be richer by approximately $52,400.73 in inheritance tax on or before September 3, according to the report of the inheritance tax appraiser who has filed with Fred Foss, county treasurer, appraisements on the estates of the late Julius A. Bohn, amounting to $450,159.59 and of Miranda W. Lewis, former Piedmont resident, amounting to $432,770.27. The county treasurer has ruled that the tax must be paid before September 3.

Oakland Waterfront Earns $14,225 in July

The city of Oakland collected $14,225 from its waterfront during July, according to the monthly report of Wharfinger W. J. Masterson, $5610 coming from tolls.

During July, 442 vessels arrived in the port, of a tonnage of 276,090, bringing 65,080 tons of cargo, 13,712,000 feet of lumber, 239 bundles of lath, and 69,000 railroad ties. Of the cargo, 11,000 tons came from foreign ports.

MRS. STIFF GIVEN DECREE.

A divorce was granted Ruth E. Stiff yesterday by Superior Judge Dudley E. Kinsell on her testimony that her husband, Isaa Stiff, alcohol and hurt her and that he failed to provide her with the necessities of life. The couple were married June 26, 1926, and separated March 5, 1922. Attorneys Dunn, White and Aiken represented the plaintiff.

STAGE COMPANY SUED BY WIDOW FOR MAN'S DEATH

MARTINEZ, Aug. 24.—Charging that an automobile stage of the California Transit Company on which the late Harry Storey, of Napa, was a passenger was negligently operated resulting in it striking an embankment and overturning, inflicting injuries to Storey that resulted in his death, Storey's widow, Mrs. Nellie Storey, and two daughters, Vesta Sheldon and Olive Coombs, today filed suit in Superior Court asking damages of $30,868 of the stage company.

The accident occurred on what is known as Rodeo Hill, one mile south of Rodeo, on March 4 last, when Storey was a passenger from Oakland en route to his home at Napa. Storey was 62 years old. His death occurred seven days after the accident.

The complaint claims $868 was expended for doctor's fees and funeral expenses. Claim is made that Storey's widow is deprived of his earning power, his society and comfort, with the latter allegations made applicable to the daughters.

Milk Trucks Haled For Tes of Purity

Throwing a cordon about the roads leading into Oakland, Milk Inspector Andrew I. Smith and R. L. Griffith last night "held up" long processions of milk trucks and secured 45 samples, which will be analyzed by the authorities in order to check up on the purity of lacteal fluid coming into Oakland.

The inspection was an all-night affair, and the first of a series of like functions in the near future.

In the past milk was generally delivered into Oakland by train, but various dairies on the edge of the city lately have been bringing their product in by motor truck and there was danger that some of these dairies might escape inspection.

As dairies come and go, or are sold to new owners, the health department authorities decided to keep closer tab on these nearby ones, especially those from San Leandro, Hayward and the nearer foothills.

The result of the inspection will be known in a few days.

Oakland Legion Post Holds Dance

An entertainment and dance was held by Oakland Post No. 5, American Legion, at the clubrooms, 306 Twelfth street, last evening. The post will vacate the present quarters at the end of this month.

The former soldiers and sailors were served refreshments which were the gift of the Women's Auxiliary and the American War Mothers. The program was arranged under the direction of Bestor Robinson, deputy city attorney. Among those who participated in the program were: Mrs. Minnie Palmer, Dudley Manlove, Barbara Pfeifer, Ruth Bowman, Karla Kevlin, Joey Otis, Doris Whitmore, Doris and Thelma Hubbard, Billy Lewis, Mrs. Carl Wymer, Robert Robertson.

Play Production Course Is Offered

An unusual opportunity to learn play production is being offered by the University of California Extension Division in a class which was organized on Wednesday, August 23, 7:30 p. m., room 108, Hotel Oakland, and is now open for enrollments. Miss Jean Campbell Macmillan, dramatic reader and instructor for the Extension Division, and Miss Virginia Wiles are directing the group.

Instruction will be given in the principles of acting by the method of character portrayals of well-known classics. There will be also a study and presentation of one-act plays and students will have the opportunity to both act and direct these productions.

Masons Will Hold District Conference

PLEASANTON, Aug. 24. — Alisal Lodge of Masons is completing plans for the big meeting here next Saturday evening. It is expected that fully 200 members from the Masonic lodges of Livermore, Hayward, San Leandro, Centerville and Pleasanton will attend the district conference, composed of the five lodges in the eastern end of the county. The lodges are competing for a silver gavel. Pleasanton lodge leads the race now.

Pleasanton Post Entertains Delegates

PLEASANTON, Aug. 24.—Pleasanton Post, No. 237, American Legion, was host recently to the members of the county committee of the Legion, which includes delegations from the various posts in the county. The meeting was held at the clubrooms in the Odd Fellows' hall, and there was a large attendance of ex-service men. A program was furnished, concluding with a supper.

EVERY CLASSROOM TO BE INDEPENDENT UNDER UNIT SYSTEM

Construction Will Begin at Once on Plan Embodying Distinctive Ideas to Accommodate Needs.

CONCORD, Aug. 24. — Excavating on the local grammar school grounds, preparatory to the erection of a new $70,000 building, began this week. According to the plans and specifications made by Francis W. Reid, local architect, the new structure will be completed by the first of the year.

The school when completed will have ten class rooms and ten accessory rooms and will contain many features not usually found in even more expensive buildings. Each class room, which will be 23x32 feet, will contain its own apparatus known as a "Univent," which furnishes heat when required and at all times thirty cubic feet of fresh air per pupil each minute. This ventilating system is the most expensive and effective system known and but few school districtss in the state have felt able to meet the expense required. The building will be a one story structure and will have entrances to each class room from outside porches, which will mean a free and easy exit in case of fire.

The building will have reinforced concrete foundations and porches, over two miles of steel rods being required. Maple flooring will be laid throughout the building. The accessory rooms will comprise a reception room, principal's office, library, teachers' room, rest room and a room for a school nurse.

A large basement under the central portion of the building will contain the steam boiler, oil set, vacuum pump, motor-generator and other heating apparatus. The building will be wired for electric lights and an intercommunicating telephone and program clock system.

The school is being built close to to the street, and the lawn and shrubbery which will surround the entire building, with the general layout and harmony and simplicity of design, will lend it an air of attractiveness most pleasing to the eye.

The general contract has been awarded to L. V. Perry, local contractor, for the amount of his bid, $29,710. The heating and ventilating contract has been awarded to the T. J. Kennedy company of Martinez for $8600 and the plumbing contract to F. P. Brady of Martinez for $3795. These contracts call for the completion of the work by the last of December.

The board of trustees includes Charles Dunn, Joseph Williams and Mrs. George Barnett, and they are planning to have the school equipped with every facility for aiding the teachers in developing and educating the pupils. The two bungalow class rooms are to be fitted temporarily for the work of the domestic science and manual training departments, after the new building is occupied and until the new auditorium and other rooms are completed.

For several years the local school has been far too small and accommodations inadequate for the growing needs of the community. Fully four hundred pupils are expected to enroll for the coming term, which will open August 28. This term twelve teachers will be employed.

News Notes of Vallejo And U. S. Navy Yard

VALLEJO, Aug. 24.—Saturday evening Oakland Post of the American Legion is to bring up its "wrecking crew" to initiate fifteen candidates into the "40 and 8," one of the special degrees of the Legion. The ceremonies will be held in Moose hall, with a banquet to follow at the Legion headquarters.

Gilbert French, athletic director of the American Legion, was the principal speaker at the luncheon held by the directors of the chamber of commerce on Wednesday. The speaker outlined the athletic program that has been carried on by the Legion during the past year, and also spoke of the plans for the next twelve months.

C. B. Josephs of the Nathan Dorman Company of San Francisco visited here yesterday as the guest of J. H. Cooper.

The unsightly dump in Fifth street, South Vallejo, is to be removed, and it is said that a sign prohibiting future dumping of garbage in that vicinity will be installed. A petition for refuse cans to be placed among the streets of South Vallejo will also be submitted to the city council in a few days.

The Flying Squadron, consisting of some twenty machines, made a trip to Petaluma last Tuesday night to boost the Knights of Columbus bazaar which is to be held here in September.

The windows have been installed in the new K. C. hall in Marin street. The contractors are putting the remainder of the stucco finish on the north side of the structure.

The California Automobile Association "Sign Truck" arrived here yesterday, and the crew installed some new signs in this section of Solano county.

Lieutenant B. R. Peoples, U. S. N., has been ordered detached from the yard and will join the U. S. S. Seattle at the Bremerton station.

Contractor Louis Tagon has started to install the new cement sidewalk at the foot of Georgia street. The job is to be paid by the city.

The fuel oil system at the navy yard is to be changed, and it is stated that at least $36,000 will be spent on the project during the fall months.

Raymond J. Fitts, a navy yard employee, died at his home yesterday after a long illness. Deceased is survived by a widow and an infant son.

The sum of $200,000 has been set aside by the Navy Department for repairs to the north end of the sea wall. The work will be performed by the public works department men.

Congressman C. F. Curry is expected to visit Vallejo the latter part of September or early in October, according to letters received here this week from him.

A campaign to have Sonoma street extended out to the Napa highway has been started by the Vallejo Chamber of Commerce. The board of supervisors is expected to set aside some of the money for the project.

A new salt water regulating system is to be installed at Mare Island at a cost of $100,000. The bids for the big job will be opened early next month.

Santa Cruz Man Killed By Auto

SANTA CRUZ, Aug. 24.—Charles Johnson was fatally injured and died about seven hours after he was struck by an auto driven by Orlo Wilson at the intersection of Laurel street extension and Front street. Johnson was thrown to the pavement and was picked up unconscious. He never regained consciousness. He suffered a fractured skull and hemorrhage of the brain developed so rapidly that an operation was not possible.

Johnson was 61 years old and leaves a brother and sister in San Francisco. He has for many years been the gardener at the summer home of William Iliff, a Denver banker.

Perils of Flight Proved by Disaster

VALLEJO, Aug. 24.—Mare Island officers in commenting on the disaster that happened to the seaplane Sampaio Correia, which was on its way from New York to Brazil, stated that it proved without a doubt that the flight made a year or so ago by Colonel Caldwell Turner, U. S. M. C., formerly of Mare Island but now of the eastern division, from Quantico, Va., to Santa Domingo, was more hazardous than was at first supposed. The plane used by navy experts in the flight this week was of a more improved type over that used by Colonel Turner. The latter is now at the head of the marine aviation division in the east.

Legion Post Plans For Football Team

WATSONVILLE, Aug. 24.—Edward H. Lorenser Post, American Legion, decided at a meeting this week to put a football team in the field for the fall season. Elmer Beck, S. A. Leddy and E. A. Winn were appointed to perfect an organization. Athletic Instructor Briggs of the high school promised to lend his assistance to making the team a success.

Assemblyman George Cleveland, Phil Ling, Herbert Rappe, S. A. Leddy, Dr. G. S. Tolman, R. J. Stuart and George Freiermuth were chosen delegates to the Legion convention to meet in San Jose September 6 to 8.

Woman to Dispose of $40,000 Estate

Elma V. Galvin, 2233 Bancroft way, Berkeley, today was appointed administratrix of the estate of the late Lozette Van Fleet. The estate is estimated to be worth more than $40,000. This includes $25,000 in Liberty bonds, $13,000 in promisory notes and real property. The heirs named in the petition, beside the executrix, reside in Colorado, Kansas and New York. Superior Judge E. C. Robinson granted the petition.

WAR-TIME COAL RULES FORESEEN DURING WINTER

Lightless Nights, Curtailed Car Service Predicted As Mine War Sequel.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(By The Associated Press.)—Establishment of a federal distribution agency to meet the present coal emergency and the extension of broad powers to the Interstate Commerce Commission with respect to the issuing of embarties and priorities is proposed in a bill introduced today by Senator Cummins (Rep.), Iowa, chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce committee.

By JAMES T. KOLBERT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Lightless nights, curtailed street car service, closing down of non-essential industries and other restrictions practiced during the war, and post-war coal conservation periods, probably will have to be duplicated this winter, Ellis H. Searles, editor of the United Mine Workers' Journal, forecast today.

Searles, who has made a careful survey of the fuel situation, believes the railroads of the country will not be able to haul all the coal that is mined and required to meet the business and domestic needs.

"The people do not realize the seriousness of the fuel situation," Searles said. "In 1920, the railroads, in excellent condition, broke down under the strain of trying to haul twelve million tons of coal weekly. From now on until the end of the coal year, April 1, they will have to carry from 10,000,000 to 11,000,000 tons weekly to meet the normal demand and the extra requirements caused by the exhaustion of private stocks during the coal strike.

"According to all reports, the railroads are in the worst shape of their history, due to bad order engines and other equipment caused by the strike of shopmen. Even if the railroad strike is settled today, the railroads could not begin to haul the fuel that soon will be mined, or fill the country's requirements."

MEN PLAY PRICE RAISE.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 24.—(By The Associated Press.)—Coal mine operators in Central Illinois today announced they had increased the price of coal $1.25 a ton. The raise was followed by a protest from sub-district officials of the United Mine Workers, who termed the increase "legalized robbery."

"Miners have returned to work under the same wages and conditions," Secretary John Watt of the sub?district said: "There has been small loss to either miners or operators. Because of the fact that mines would have lain idle whether or not there had been a strike, the operators cannot with good grace lay their increase in prices to the losses they bear. It is just plain profiteering. Legalized robbery is not too strong. The government has taken no steps to stop it, has passed no laws for the purpose, and so in a way encourages it. The operators are coming back on the public for losses they have not suffered."

Miner's Mule Routs Bear in Mountain Fight

VOLCANO, Aug. 24.—Pat Haley's mule and a bear gladiated briefly and the mule almost kicked bruin out of the world. Haley says he was prospecting on the Mokleumne river, with the mule as a pack animal, when the second battle of the wilderness took place. The bear evidently intended to rob his camp, attracted by the odor of bacon, but forgot the mule, which planted its rear hoofs against the ribs of the invader with force enough to bowl it over. Then the bear came right back, and as it reared, Haley declares, the mule put every ounce of its strength into the kick which hurled bruin over a high bank and landed it in a deep pool with a lusty splash. It swam ashore, made its way up the opposite bank and disappeared.

Americans Finding America, Is View

"For the first time in our history, American readers are discovering America," said A. E. Anderson in discussing the course he is to give on American authors at the Ebell club hall, 1440 Harrison street, beginning tomorrow evening at 7:30 p. m.

This awakening, Anderson thinks, comes as a culmination of a long period during which Americans have been diffident regarding their own literature.

Also, American novels of today are reflecting plain, unvarnished American life as they have never before done.

Anderson's career as a student of letters, a writer of short stories, a world traveler and an instructor in the University of California, fits him for a successful handdling of such a course.

Accused Autoists Plead Not Guilty

Frank Titos, charged with failing to render aid following an automobile accident, entered a plea of not guilty before Judge Church today and his trial was set for September 25.

Alfred Fynn, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, entered a plea of guilty, his case being referred to the probation officer. In a statement to the court Fynn admitted that he had taken one drink but said that, as the result of gassing during the war, liquor affects him more strongly than otherwise and he was not responsible for his actions on the day of the trouble.

LOAN TO BRITAIN USED BY BRITAIN, MELLON ASSERTS

No Indorsements for Other Nations Required, Says Treasury Chief

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. — Funding of the $4,135,000,000 war debt owed by Great Britain to the United States was declared today by Secretary Mellon to have no relation to the war loans made by the United States and Great Briain to other governments or to questions arising in connection with reparations payments of the former central powers.

The secretary made his declaration with respect to the British debt in a formal statement, issued, he said, on account of numerous inquiries reaching the treasury as to the exact status of the obligations of the various European governments held by the United States with respect to the British debt. Reports have been published and statements made in some quarter, Mellon said, that the British liability was not incurred for the British government but for the other allies and that the United States in making the original arrangements had insisted in substance that though the other allies were to use the money borrowed, it was only on British security that the United States was prepared to lend it.

"This statement that the United States government virtually insisted upon a guarantee by the British government of amounts advanced to the other allies is evidently based upon a misapprehension," Mellon said. "Instead of insisting upon a guarantee, or any transaction of that nature, the United States government took the position that it would make advances to each government to cover the purchases made by that government and would not require any government to give obligations for advances made to cover the purchases of any other government. Thus the advances to the British government, evidence by its obligations, were made to cover its own purchases."

ROMANY CLUB TO HIKE.

Plans for a hike through the woods to the home of Dr. Florence Sylvester have been made for next Friday evening by the members of the Romany club who will congregate at Twelfth and Broadway early in the evening and will be led on their jaunt by Birdie Pileher, secretary of the organization. The club announces itself in favor of the bonds to save the sequoias.

DRINK PARLOR ROBBED.

The soft drink parlor owned by Joe Ferrera at 301 Filbert street was entered by burglars during the night. The thieves took $395 and a check for $42. The money and check was in a can under the bar. The entrance to the place was gained by cutting a hole in the rear door.

The Truth About the Park Bond Scheme

The first proposal was for $850,000 bonds, of which $750,000 was to buy one thousand five hundred and forty-seven, (1,547) acres of hill land now owned by the East Bay Water Company, the Realty Syndicate, Mrs F. C. Havens, Charles Snook and others in the Northeastern section of Oakland, and the remaining $100,000 to be used for preliminary improvements, etc.

After careful inspection and appraisal, certain citizens made a strenuous protest against the purchase of so much land and against the price per acre it was proposed to pay. After considerable controversy a Board of Appraisal was appointed by members of the Oakland Real Estate Board, consisting of real estate agents and representatives of banks. This board valued all the lands at $488,000 and were able to persuade the City Council to reduce the money proposed to be paid for these lands from $750,000 to $488,000 and reduce the amount for improvement from $100,000 to $50,000, making the final figures for the bond issue $538,000 instead of $850,000, a shrinkage of $312,000.

The law governing expenditure of bond moneys provides that, when it is specified in the bond election proclamation that so much money is to be devoted to a certain purpose, then all of that money must be devoted to that purpose only and that sum of money must accomplish the entire purpose stated. For example, if the election proclamation in this case stated that the $488,000 must be used to purchase the particular one thousand five hundred and forty-seven, (1,547) acres of land contemplated, describing it, then that $488,000 must buy all of that land. If all of that land should be bought for less than $488,000, then the remainder of the money must be devoted to paying off bonds when due.

Accordingly the City Council was requested, in framing the proclamation of election, that they state therein that the sum of $488,000 was to be devoted to the purchase of this particular one thousand five hundred and forty-seven, (1,547) acres of land and $50,000 to their improvement if purchased.

THE CITY COUNCIL REFUSED TO FRAME THE PROPOSITION THIS WAY. Instead they framed a wide open, blanket bond issue of $538,000 to be used by them without restriction in the purchase of park lands. Under the proposition as framed the City Council may purchase as much or as little as they please of this one thousand five hundred and forty-seven, (1,547) acres and may pay whatever price per acre for all or any portion that they please. If they pay the whole $488,000 for half the land—say seven hundred, (700) acres, that will not be accomplishing the purpose which the voters have in mind when they vote "Yes." But it will be too late to criticise or protest then.

This wide open blanket bond issue leaves opportunity for dickering that may result against the public interest, as very powerful influences will be brought to bear on the City Council. Had they framed the proposition the other way, there would have been no uncertainty—the money would have to be made to do exactly what the voters are being led to believe it will do and the valuation of $488,000 is a very great plenty for the land.

In view of the coming necessity for more bonds for schools—possibly $10,000,000 and for the tube across the estuary to Alameda another $3,000,000, necessities for harbor improvement bonds, increased expense for equipment for the fire department as the city grows and larger costs for all items of government, what will be the answer of the taxpaying public—and we will all pay taxes whether we own or rent—to this proposal to fritter away more than half a million dollars put up in this shape to the voter—particularly when we will still be without the neighborhood parks which many believe to be the greater need of a growing city?

TWO KILLED AND SIX INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

One San Jose Man Dies When Auto Upsets and Another Plunges Into Ditch.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 24.—Two local young men dead and six persons in the hospital is the tally today in three automobile accidents in this vicinity.

The dead are Archie Rodman, son of R. H. Rodman, for years a prominent business man here, and E. O. Edwards, youthful employee of a road construction company. The injured are Mike Saramas, Weed, Calif; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Costolus, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Caranecas, and Tom Drokus, of San Jose.

Young Rodman met his death in an inexplicable accident, his auto, when apparently in perfect condition and proceeding at a slow speed, turning completely over. He was killed instantly. The body was brought here today. Rodman is brother of Earl Rodman, principal of Heald's business college of Chico.

Edwards was just starting on his vacation when his auto went into the ditch near Morgan Hill. He was accompanied by his wife, who was only slightly hurt. The young woman is prostrated. She and her husband had been in particularly high spirits because of their plans for their vacation. It is thought that a break in the steering control caused the pile-up.

The six injured sustain their hurts in the same crash when the auto of Saramas turned over near Sunnyvale. The driver claims that he was forced into the soft dirt at the side of the road by another machine, traveling at the rate of 50 miles per hour. All six were brought to the hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Costolus of Oakland being most seriously hurt.

Traffic officers investigating the latter accident say that, from the marks in the road, Saramas himself must have been traveling at a terrific clip.

Victims of Wreck Safe in Honolulu

HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 24.—(By The Associated Press.)—The British steamer Hauraki arrived last night from Australia, bringing Captain Olsen and all eight members of the crew of the small American schooner Henriette, which was wrecked July 16 on one of the islands of the Ellice group, about midway between Australia and Hawaii.

The Henriette was bound from the South Seas to San Francisco with a load of copra. Three days after leaving the port where the copra was loaded, the little schooner struck a reef off the coral ribbed Ellice island group and the vessel sank in thirty minutes.

The Hauraki was sighted August 5. Frantic signals attracted the passing steamer's attention. A small boat was put off and Captain Olsen and his men were picked up.

Alleged Robber Pleads Not Guilty

Owen Graham, charged with robbery, entered a plea of not guilty before Superior Judge Lincoln S. Church today and refused to have an attorney appointed for him. His case was set for trial September 5.

It is charged that Graham went into a soft drink parlor at 471 Eighth street and displayed a wallet containing checks and currency. Upon his return to his room he missed the wallet. He had been drinking, it is charged, and thereupon took a gun, returned to the soft drink place and held up Martin Slattery, the bartender, taking the amount which was originally contained in his wallet.

Auto Victim's Heirs Sue Car Occupants

A suit for $25,000 damages was filed with the Superior Court by the widow and children of George Kaiser. In the complaint the plaintiffs declare that on February 18, 1920, Kaiser was killed by an auto driven by M. Adler, Edward I. Veitch and R. Agustus, who are named defendants in the action. The accident occurred on Fourteenth street between Broadway and Franklin, when the auto driven by one of the defendants hopped the curb and ran down Kaiser.

The plaintiffs named in the action are the widow, Agatha C. Kaiser and the children, Ruth Westover and Georgia, Fred E. and Freda Kaiser. They ask $35,000 damages.

HOTEL MAN DIVORCED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Albin Lundbourg, formerly one of the proprietors of the fashionable Hotel Belview, was divorced today by Mrs. Lundbourg, on cruelty grounds, the decree being signed by Superior Judge J. J. Van Ostrand. Mrs. Lundbourg testified that her husband was a good fellow downtown, well liked in the business world and generally popular, but that he had no sense of household responsibility.

HAYWARD

HAYWARD, Aug. 24. — Dedication of the First Methodist church here will take place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, it was announced today by the Rev. H. J. Winsor, pastor, with joint service by all of the Presbyterian churches in the city. Bishop Adna W. Leonard, of Oakland, assisted by the Rev. H. E. Milnes of Oakland, the Rev. Josiah Daniels, pastor of the local Presbyterian, and the Rev. A. P. Orth, pastor of the local Congregational church, will officiate at the ceremonial.

The church, a $25,000 structure, has recently been remodeled and re-fitted. The Rev. C. W. Null, former pastor of the Methodist church, now in Oakland, will be a guest of honor at the ceremonial.

The services will be opened with an anthem by the choir. Mrs. Henry Verney of San Francisco will sing the offertory. Special singers for the day will be Miss Anne Obermuller, Mrs. Adolph May, Dr. H. B. Knox and W. B. Kammerer. Millard Williams will be violinist for the occasion.

On Monday evening a community supper will be held in the building. The workmen who worked on the building will be special guests of the church members at this banquet.

On Sunday morning, September 3, Rev. Null will preach in the new church. Rev. Null was largely responsible for the rehabilitation of the building.

45 Alameda Knights Are Hayward Guests

HAYWARD, Aug. 24. — Forty-five members of the Knights of Columbus of Alameda were special guests of the Hayward council at a smoker meeting Tuesday evening. Among the guests were Jack O'Day, district deputy, and H. M. Eden, financial secretary of the Alameda council. Frank Mitchell, of Hayward, gave a talk on the ideals of the order.

Hayward will send a delegation of about 100 members to the dedication of the new Knights of Columbus building in Vallejo September 17, it was announced here today. The council will elect officers September 12.

Hayward Masonic Officers Assemble

HAYWARD, Aug. 24.—Masters, wardens and senior deacons of Masonic lodges in the 32d district met last night at the home of Herman Bernett here, master of Eucalyptus lodge. Plans for the district meeting to be held in Pleasanton Saturday were discussed. Practically the entire lodge will go from here to the Pleasanton meeting. Degrees will be conferred on candidates by officers of Eden lodge of San Leandro.

PAWNBROKER ACQUITTED.

M. E. Grossman, pawn broker, was found not guilty of receiving stolen property at the conclusion of a trial in the Superior Court late yesterday. Grossman was alleged to have purchased stolen property from a youth named Gray now on probation. The jury deliberated but a few moments and returned the verdict. The case was tried before Superior Judge L. S. Church.

Schools Sponsor Health Research

HAYWARD, Aug. 24. — Weighing and measuring children in the Hayward grammar schools, in order to discover the extent of malnutrition existing in the school and to determine the health of the individual students so that malnutrition and other weaknesses may be properly counter-acted, was started yesterday by Miss Oline C. Shafer, of the Hayward health center. The work can not be completed, Miss Shafer said, in less than a week's time, owing to the increasingly large number of pupils in the school system.

A conference of principals of the various schools and Miss Shafer with representatives of the milk committee of the Hayward Civic League of Women Voters will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4, it was announced today by Mrs. L. M. Turner, president of the club. Mrs. Turner said that the league's milk supply will be extended to the Orchard avenue school, and probably to the Pacific primary and the Fairview and Hayward Heath schools.

Hayward Delegation Rides on New Train

HAYWARD, Aug. 24. — Hayward sent a delegation of nine citizens to San Jose yesterday aboard the first passenger train over the Western Pacific branch line from Oakland to San Jose. The train was greeted, on its arrival here, by practically every business man in the city.

Those who made the trip from here were E. A. Hey, J. D. Armstrong, George T. Parks, H. R. Robinson, Carlisle Crosby, W. W. Haley, M. A. W. Lee, R. J. Larkey and C. W. White.

Robbery of Oil Station Attempted

HAYWARD, Aug. 24. — An attempted robbery of the Castro Valley Junction oil station, on East Fourteenth street below the city limits, was reported today to the police. According to the story told the police, a window in the station had been broken and the cash register shoved on the floor, probably by means of a stick.

It is believed that the supposed robbers were disturbed before their work could be completed, as nothing was missing from the station.

TRIP NORTH CONCLUDED.

HAYWARD, Ag. 24. — H. R. Robinson, president of the Hayward Realty board, and Mrs. Robinson returned to Hayward yesterday from a month's touring of Washington and Oregon. They were guests, for a part of their trip, of their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Wurfel, in Portland.

VACATION TRIP ENDS.

FAMILY RETURNS.

FINGER PRINTS PLANS EXPLAINED

The method used to transmit finger print rescriptions by wire was explained to the members of the Oakland Round Table at the weekly luncheon meeting in the Hotel Oakland yesterday by Harry H. Caldwell, chief of the identification bureau here and past president of the international association for identification.

Caldwell traced the history of finger print identification from its inception in this country in 1904 and its start in Oakland in 1908. He said that it is now possible through a central state bureau at Sacramento and a United States department of justice bureau at Leavenworth to trace and identify all known criminals.

"The scientific organization of the United States," said Caldwell, "are making an effort to have the finger prints of every man, woman and child taken, classified and filed in every state. This will make possible the positive identification of the thousands of persons who die each year and are buried unidentified."

The meeting was presided over by Dr. Harold H. Meredith and vocal selections were given by Mrs. Richard Papandre. At next week's meeting R. A. Abbeu of the Berkeley department of identification will give an illustrated talk on the new system of identification of handwriting in vogue in Berkeley.

Irrigation District May Be Organized

MODESTO, Calif., Aug. 24.—The signing of an agreement with Miller and Lux and the formation of a new irrigation district to be known as the San Joaquin River Storage district practically was made certain, it is believed, by land owners of the west side, by the appointment of five new directors of the Madera irrigation district by the board of supervisors of Madera county. The new directors are: George Phillips, D. B. Harris, W J. Scott, A. L. Coffee and T. S. Archibald.

The board was split three to two on the appointment of the new directors, the appointments coming after considerable debate.

Under the agreement, tentatively made between the irrigation district and Miller and Lux, the interests of the two bodies would be pooled and the San Joaquin river storage district formed, taking in the Madera irrigation district, the West Stanislaus storage district, comprising 500,000 acres, dry lands of the Webster and Mendano irrigation district and other arid west side lands.

Drill Encounters Gas in Napa Operations

VALLEJO, Aug. 24. — A. W. Stremmel is home after a visit to Berryessa valley, Napa county. While in the upper valley he inspected some of the section where oil drilling operations are under way, and says that a strong flow of gas at times forces water to the top of the oil drilling rigs. One of the wells has reached a depth of 1520 feet, according to Stremmel.

A Message to Mothers

YOU know the real human doctors right around in your neighborhood: the doctors made of flesh and blood just like you: the doctors with souls and hearts: those men who are responding to your call in the dead of night as readily as in the broad daylight; they are ready to tell you the good that Fletcher's Castoria has done, is doing and will do, from their experience and their love for children.

Fletcher's Castoria is nothing new. We are not asking you to try an experiment. We just want to impress upon you the importance of buying Fletcher's.

Your physician will tell you this, as he knows there are a number of imitations on the market, and he is particularly interested in the welfare of your baby.

PADRE OF RAINS RELIEVES MINDS OF LEGION BOYS

The above pronouncement, made after repeated searching of the sky by Father Jerome Ricard, University of Santa Clara "padre of the rains," was today hailed with joy by American Legioneer at work on the details of the huge celebration scheduled in connection with the state convention of the Legion, which starts here September 4.

So elaborate are the decorations and other features planned that a rain during the convention would cost the Legioners thousands of dollars. As a consequence Father Ricard is one of the most popular men in the valley today.

One of the most spectacular of the street adornments will be a huge fountain of electric lights at First and Santa Clara streets, crossing this important corner. This single feature will cost thousands, itself. Other decorations only slightly less elaborate will line all the principal streets.

It was announced today that Eddie Rickenbacker, "ace of aces," will in all probability fly to the convention and do a few loops for the buddies by way of renewing old times.

A field meet, to which the Pasadena post has promised to bring Charlie Paddock, will mark one of the days.

Directly at the conclusion of the Legion conclave the festivities will be taken up by the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West, who will assemble here to the number of 40,000 or 50,000 for their annual Admission Day celebration.

A score of bands will mark the huge parade on Admission Day, and each parlor is putting hundreds of dollars into a specialty or surprise feature of some kind. The local "natives" prophesy that the parade will be the most brilliant in the history of Santa Clara valley.

A barbecue, dancing in the streets, and thousands of dollars worth of fireworks on two evenings will mark the Admission Day celebration.

Electric Cooked Food Enjoyed By Legion

steam arising from a dish cooked on gas or other fuel, this advantage is said to be at once apparent. In fact it is claimed for this cooker that it is not only convenient and economical as to time and cost but that foods thus cooked have greater food value and are in addition more appetizing and digestible than when cooked in any other way.

Grape fruit jelly, roast chicken, stuffing, cream squash, scalloped oysters, mashed potatoes, cranberry jelly, fruit pudding, hard sauce, toasted cheese, creamed shrimp, English mutton chops, coffee, salmon box, string beans, scalloped potatoes, tomato jelly salad, apple dumplings—these and an almost endless variety of dishes mentioned in the cook hood are cooked in the Calmet Electric Cooker and it is stated that when thus prepared they are superior in every way to foods prepared by any other known process, in addition to which they may be left for hours without deterioration, for they are kept evenly warm by thermostatic control and all gases and juices are retained in the cooker until it is desired to serve the food.

Mining Man Dies After Long Illness

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Nathan T. Mansfield, at one time actively identified with banking and mining circles in Colorado, died here last night after several years' illness. He was 60 years old and resided at 2128 Parker street. He had lived here more than 20 years.

Mansfield was one of the mining engineer responsible for the development of the famous Smugglers' Union mine in Colorado. He was a member of prominent clubs both here and in San Francisco. He is not survived by any immediate relatives.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 2174 University avenue. They will be under the auspices of the Durant Lodge of Masons.

15 Billion Warriors

There are 15,000,000,000 white cells to the cubic inch of blood in the human system. The white cells build up the body and preserve it. They are the staunch, friendly little warriors that fight off the invading army of disease germs that menace the system from the cradle to the grave.

Olive Oil increases the number of white cells and thus helps build up the body and send the rich blood of perfect health coursing through the veins.

Taken internally, or as a massage, the human system absorbs the life-giving qualities of this perfect food and often brings to weak, run-down, nervous systems the exhilarating feeling that comes from physical strength and mental courage.

Use Sylmar Olive Oil for this treatment and watch the amazing results that often seem just like magic.

COLLEGE SAVANTS 'CRIB' IDEAS, SAYS U. C. CO-ED CRITIC

Impossible? Not so, for pretty Miss Barbara Burks, junior student at the University of California and daughter of Dr. Jesse D. Burks, university psychologist, startled campus circles today by taking an unusual fling at the staid faculty members on the Berkeley campus.

"The shrewd college professor can attract as much attention as the king of circus elephants," flings forth Miss Burks to the world this morning in the "Daily Californian," student paper on which she is a special writer.

And then Miss Burks set forth to criticise good-naturedly the "clever" and "original" thoughts claimed by the average college professor as his very own.

CLAIM IDEAS STOLEN.

A bright inspiration on the part of one college teacher hasn't a chance in the world to bloom forth as the perfect blossom of that professor's inspiration, in the opinion of Miss Burks. Immediately a new thought is launched a whole crop of similar ideas sprout up from all parts of the campus, each professor claiming the inspiration for his own, is the way Miss Burks' criticism is interpreted.

As a result, says the clever young college student, a half dozen departments on the campus are offering identical courses except that each has a slightly different name. And students are finding themselves confused by names and sitting through the same kind of lectures more times than is actually necessary, she avers.

Miss Burks refuses to call her arraignment of the ways of professors "harsh criticism." "I'm merely offering friendly comment," she laughs. "Goodness knows, there is room for improvement on the campus as far as the duplication of courses is concerned, but who am I to criticise professors who know so much more than I?

SUPPOSED SATIRE.

"My likening them to circus elephants is supposed to be satire. It is humorous, not serious, but at the same time I am offering a thought of my own and that is that the student should really be considered in things academic on the campus!"

The article in which Miss Burks takes writers' license and compares the university to a circus, follows:

The shrewd professor can attract as much attention as the king of circus elephants. All he has to do is to take advantage of the arbitrary and accidental boundary lines drawn between subjects taught in certain academic departments.

Take, for instance, some such topic as the effect of the industrial revolution on English living conditions in the nineteenth century. Professor —— of economics sees it first. "Finders keepers," he says, and announces a new course: "Econ 182. Studies in the standard of living."

RUSH FOR COURSES.

A professor of the history department catches him posting up the announcement and makes a dash for his own office. In a few minutes he is at the bulletin board placing a new announcement: "History 251. Studies in English institutions."

Political science is not to be outdone. Result: "124, a survey of the working political institutions of England."

But this is too broad a hint to the English department. A professor proudly announces the course, "English 123: Liberal thought in English literature, with readings from the pioneers of socialism."

Miss Burks attracted attention shortly after entering the university by her experiments with the radio, fixing an apparatus to her bed by which she received messages. She declared that she planned to serve as a radio operator during her college vacations.

Business Women to Picnic in Redwoods

The members of the Business and Professional Women' Club and of the Soroptomist Club will join in a basket supper in Oakland Sequoia Mountain Park Saturday afternoon of this week. The advance guard will select a site in the park, where they will display a banner, and parties in automobiles and hikers from the two clubs will join them during the afternoon. The picnickers will bring a basket lunch, and coffee for all comers will be served by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

The B. and P. W. C. will have a theater party at the Fulton on Wednesday evening, September 6. The play will be "Little Old New York." A card party tonight at their club room is the opening of their full season's activities.

Wyming's Governor 121 Votes Behind

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 24.—Revised figures of the recent primary for all but 117 of Wyoming's 657 precincts as announced here today show that John W. Hay is leading Governor Robert D. Carey by 121 votes for the Republican nomination for governor. The totals were given as: Carey, 14,649; Hay, 14,770.

Boy Slain by Blow From Falling Pole

"Dad, it looks as if that pole is going to fall," the boy said, pointing to a heavy timber on the turntable.

No sooner had he spoken than the timber fell, killing the boy instantly.

East Side Property Greatly Benefited

its workers or whether it will be left to be cut up into camp-sites.

There can be no question that actual property values are increasing rapidly all over the East Side. When the pressure of liquidation of large areas shall have been removed, prices will almost immediately feel the pressure of accumulated value and will rise fast.

Those who buy and hold property in this large civic area will be fortunate. The acquisition of approximately fifteen hundred acres of forest crowned skyline land for park purposes will add greatly to the value of all East Side property and will tend to make Diamond and the hills to the north and northeast very choice residence property which will be sought for homes by people of wealth and high standards.

Great enthusiasm has been expressed by the thousands of people who have visited the park from time to time during the campaign and particularly those who made up the crowd of between one and two thousand participating in the barbecue held in the lower ampitheater last Sunday. It appears that the success of the campaign is assured and that the skyline forests are to remain intact, perpetuating the beauty of Oakland and insuring playground and breathing space for her children.

Woman Arrested For Embezzlement

SANTA CLARA, Aug. 24.—Mrs Mabel Palmamesa, a former resident of Fresno, was arrested yesterday by Constables Maloney and Fallon on a charge of felony embezzlement, following telegraphic advice from Chief of Police Traux of Fresno. It is alleged that Mrs. Palmamesa rented a lodging house with furniture, and that she decamped with the furniture to Santa Clara. She will be turned over to officers from Fresno.

Record Air Flier Visitor in Oakland

Lieutenant Westside T. Larson, who recently established a record flight between San Antonio and San Diego, was a visitor in Oakland this week. He was at the home of his brother, Huga Larson, of 902 Linden street. He has been on a lecture tour of this part of the country. At the conclusion of his visit he left here for the south.

TWO SQUADS OF DRY ENFORCERS ALMOST CLASH

"Impostors" All But Hurled When Raiders Meet in San Jose Office.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 24. — Two sets of dry officers, operating in this county on the same night, got the surprise of their lives when they met at the sheriff's office while bringing in their prisoners yesterday.

"They must be imposters," said each group, when informed of the presence of the others.

It was only when they were brought face to face that they could be restrained from each swearing out warrants for the other crowd as fakes. When they had recognized each other and had shaken hands all around they agreed that here was an excellent demonstration of the efficient secrecy methods pursued by Samuel Rutter, prohibition enforcement officer.

Each party raided a large alleged liquor manufactory. The Hogan ranch and the Junction house on the Mount Hamilton road, each yielded its contraband a quality of near-beer, in the case of the first place, and a large amount of moonshine brandy in the case of the second.

ELEPHANT USED TO LEVEL FENCE IN CIRCUS ROW

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—A bit of Old India was transferred to San Francisco today when an elephant, thrust into service as a battering ram, knocked down a portion of a heavy board fence in what started to be a war between representatives of rival circus organizations.

When the Sells-Floto show reached town from Oakland the managers found a heavy fence separating a lot, 50 by 175 feet, which barred the circus from an entrance on Market street. Two deputy sheriffs, J. T. MacDonald and M. Ryan, guarded the fence, occupying a tent inside. As soon as the elephant appeared and battered the section, the officers showed their authority and the circus employees made no further efforts to utilize the lot, but began arranging for their entrance on Twelfth street.

Meantime a riot call had been sent to the Mission station, and Sergeant Kavanaugh and a posse of officers responded.

It was learned that the deputy sheriffs had expected an attack from the circus after its close in Oakland last night, and were armed with shotguns.

The trouble is the result of a shows and the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey's Circus, which has been going on all over the country. Each aggregation had been trying to reach the important towns first. The Ringlings succeeded in reaching the Market street lot, but could not prevent Sells-Floto from obtaining the rear space. It is said that some of the cages and sideshow features will have to be eliminated by reason of the battle.

Neighbors Complain Police Probe Singing

ALAMEDA, Aug. 24.—Policeman Alvin Olsson has been deputed as the police department voice culture expert. Complaint has been made to the department by E. P. Allen, 1810 Buena Vista avenue, regarding the singing of neighbors in the early morning hours. He states that the vocal efforts disturb his peace. Olsson has been delegated by Acting Chief George Daly to determine if the singing is such or is just plain noise.

THE RUHR BASIN

France has proposed to take over the private plants and properties in Rhineland and in the Ruhr district unless prompt settlement is made by Germany of overdue debts to French firms. Germany has announced that it cannot consent to relinquishment of any of its interests and will resist the French plan. Behind all of the arguments, at all of the conferences, is this tempting morsel, the Ruhr district. Before it can be taken over there will be more conferences, critical situations and, even, fighting. It has been called "the richest jewel in the crown of Prussia."

Before the Peace Conference the entire Rhineland was only a little larger than the state of New Hampshire. Since then the Saar Basin has been cut off by plebescite, Eupen and Malmedy have been ceded to Belgium and a thousand square miles have been subtracted from the area. The Ruhr Basin is the best of what is left. It extends beyond the Rhineland into Westphalia.

The Ruhr was the power plant and factory of old Germany. It has coal, iron and other minerals. Coblenz, Mainz, Cologne and Wiesbaden are its cities. Aix-la-Chapelle, market place; Dusseldorf, iron city, and Duisburg steel center, are almost as well known. Greatest of all, in its way, is Essen, home of the Krupps, where factories which made cannon are turning out roller skates.

To imagine this map speck which is known as the Ruhr district, a writer to the National Geographic Society has suggested that the reader think of the Pennsylvania coal fields packed in this tiny area; pour in the combined population of Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cleveland and St. Louis; then take all of the biggest American steel mills and railroad shops one can recall and set them down along the Ruhr. To complete the picture fill in the gaps with paper, silk, and cotton mills, glass factories, dye, chemical and salt works.

Such is the much-discussed Ruhr Basin. The French want it as payment for debts. Germany must hold it if she is to pay her obligations. It is the center of an argument which will be a long time in the settling.

GOOD ACT RECOGNIZED.

It is not every day men are honored for putting their money in a hole in the ground. Those automobilists who have been enabled to climb Oakland's skyline boulevard and look down upon a scene which rivals any in the world and then dart through a bore, into a wonderland of wooded slopes, canyons and orchard lands know what the tunnel has meant to this community. Those whose business takes them to Contra Costa county and the residents of that county who would come here are appreciative of what the Merchants Exchange of Oakland did when it came to the rescue in a time of need and helped finance the tunnel through the Contra Costa hills.

That tunnel is one of the largest things Contra Costa and Alameda county have in common. The visitor who travels its well-lighted length never fails to comment upon the enterprise responsible for its construction. It was fitting, then, that county and city officials, and others, met at the mouth of the long bore, raised a flag and left, on a brass tablet, a mark of appreciation for an unusually worthy accomplishment for the public good.

TO CHECK UP EINSTEIN.

Next month, if the skies are clear at Wallal, the world will hear once more a great deal concerning Mr. Einstein and his upsetting theories of relativity. The skies and Wallal must be reckoned because it is near the Australian city one of the most important of the scientific expeditions will study the eclipse of the sun. It is hoped the observations will settle the disturbing question, brought up by Einstein, whether a ray of light is absolute, as has been believed, or may respond and curve to the attraction of the sun.

The eclipse is to take place at 1:40 o'clock on the afternoon of September 21 and will be total from all points in Australia and other places in the South Pacific. In search for information concerning the sun's mysterious corona and for the proof or the confounding of Einstein's declarations, expeditions from many lands are headed for the South Seas.

Such an expedition as will represent the United States means a large financial outlay. Costly equipment must be carried over the Pacific, set up and trained on the skies. A number of scientists make ready for the brief moment of darkness. Maybe a cloud will blow by, as one did when the telescopes and men went to Russia and all of the work will have been for naught.

It is significant that the part the United States will play in studying the eclipse will be that of the University of California—the Lick Observatory at Mount Hamilton—and that the money to make the journey possible was the gift of a California man, William H. Crocker.

In another part of California today a group of scientists are studying the structure of matter. They have a large sum of money at their disposal and, in the circles of their fellows, are said to be nearing a stage in their researches in which astounding revelations may be announced. Within a short time, then, it will not be surprising if California makes two important contributions to scientific knowledge.

BROUGHT CLOSER TOGETHER

The first train on the Western Pacific has gone into San Jose from Oakland. There were flags on it and a large number of Oakland businessmen eager to celebrate the completion of a new link in the state's transportation facilities. At the other end there were bands, a parade and a dinner under the trees. The train which had carried the men and the bunting had also brought Oakland nearer to San Jose and San Jose nearer to Oakland.

A city may well celebrate the coming of a new railroad, the opening of a new line. San Jose made the occasion memorable. Those of the Eastbay who took part in the ceremonies expressed the feeling of the community at this end of the line of rails. The Eastbay recognizes the leading position the Santa Clara Valley is taking in many branches of agriculture, it rejoices in the growth and development of San Jose into a prosperous and metropolitan city. There are many ties, other than railroads, which bind the two places and each new one is an occasion for rejoicing and congratulation.

Because of the new railroad, the hospitality of San Jose, and the opportunity to the making and enriching of acquaintance the ceremony of yesterday has brought the two communities closer together. It should be all the easier now to recognize and make the most of the many opportunities for co operation.

It may not be certain that the decision of the International Stewards' Association will accomplish it, but if it does there is likely to be a more ready understanding of what is available to eat in higher class American public dining places hereafter; for this association has decreed that it will not be at all unfashionable to call it a "bill of fare," and to name the dishes in straight-forward English, instead of foreign languages. Why the custom has been so persistent of printing American bills of fare in French or Italian is not readily explainable. By no means a majority of those who are served in place using "menus" can understand or even pronounce the terms in which the most ordinary dishes are set forth. This is quite contrary to the country's American ideals, as well as confusing to a very large division of the American understanding, and if the custom now goes into the discard what may be regarded in some quarters as "style" will perhaps suffer, but there will be a greater frankness and a quicker understanding of what is offered at many dining places.

Some of the activities of Henry Ford have been subject to criticism, and jokesters have been rampant in many ways with his mechanical creations. His celebrated peace ship which went over to settle the war came in for much comment, and his effort to break into politics has been severely condemned. Whether all that has been said as to his outside activities is warranted or not, when he operates strictly within his sphere he achieves creditably, indeed. Because of the coal shortage his factories met the situation by changing to oil. It must have necessitated changes in a great number of furnaces, but it was all accomplished so his army of 42,000 workers lost no time, not even a day. When it comes to "doing things" mechanical you have to hand it to Henry Ford.

How the freedom of individuals, including tenants, is restricted in these later times is illustrated through a suit that has been filed in San Francisco. A landlord has brought an action to oust a tenant who has occupied his premises for twelve years because the tenant has had iron bars placed before the windows of the same. It is informing that the tenant conducts a delicatessen shop, and that the bars were put on the rear windows. In the absence of further particulars it appears to be a freaky objection on the part of the landlord, for bars over the back windows of a delicatessen shop would not seem to be a definite outrage against the property, nor the tenant who erects them guilty of malicious mischief.

FROM A WINDOW

Far out the window where I mope
The fog rolls up the Berkeley slope
All rolling white, like suds of soap,
I watch it drift.
Proud homes that overlook the bay,
The quarry where I used to play,
With this damp sponge are wiped away.
Soon it will lift.

Beckons, dances, twist and twirl,
Lengthens in a far-flung curl
To ride on high.
'Tis clear again now at the base
And climbing up the ridge's face
The line of vision moves apace
To meet the sky.

The Campanile Bells.

(A defender of the bells appears today in the person of the well-known artist, dramatist, poet, floor-washer and Hawaiian beauty whose name is signed. Are there any others who have decided, and metric, views on the subject?)

Wile them bells were ringing
O, how my heart wuz singing—
Fer wunce I went ta Colludge,
Wunce daily trod 'that Halls uv Knowludge
But them happy days is over now.
Now, I fill up tha old bucket
And that old black skirt I tuck it
Up behind, and that old Back Hair rewind
For the happy days uv childhood are no more—
But in my heart them bells are chiming
As I go scrubbing sometimes rhyming (erk)
Fer I hev a youthful spirit
Though I may not look uv such tender years.

MISSUS HARRIS.

A police story halted at the copy desk long enough for this to be stopped. "The authorities are going to stop the reckless cutting of coroners."

"Picture Ahead."

When the time comes for government by signboards the busy man will save time and the necessity for a cultivation of the senses. He will enter the elevator and remove his hat because a sign will tell him to; he will offer his seat in the streetcar for the same reason and will find at hand the handy legend to regulate all the niceties and demands of conduct. It is well to consider that time for, by all the unprinted signs, it is approaching. Imagine, if you will, the attitude of mind of the man who is responsible for the "picture ahead" boards which greet the motorist. "Here is something beautiful," he says to himself, "something worthy of the camera and the appreciation. It is too bad the general public does not know beauty when it sees it. Therefore I will nail up a sign."

So he nails up a sign and automobiles are supposed to halt while the film-shooters load for the clicking. The only complaint we have is this self appointed director of esthetics has not gone far enough. There are spots in California we have always believed beautiful. Maybe they are and maybe they are not. We are without confidence and in need of advice. When a place which looks beautiful is not beautiful it should be someone's duty to nail up a sign saying: "No picture here." Then we could be assured. The proof would be in the painting, the lesson in the letters.

There should be more signs—surely a nation which does not know when it wishes to snap a picture without a printed reminder, is ignorant of other things. When we cross a bridge we shall expect to read: "Don't let your hat blow in the river." When we sit on the beach in our modest bathing suit we shall look around for the warning: "Don't get sunburned." A field of golden-rod would ripple around a legend "sneeze twice, all ye who have hay fever," and the first glimpse of the Sierra should be marked off with a sign which says: "All together now. Oh, how beautiful!"

The conscientious man will read all these signs and will have to drive slowly in order to do so. In the end, then, something may be accomplished. When we shall have hidden the scenery with painted boards and regulated our lives by admonitions boldly lettered it is to be expected we will be very happy. If we are not, we shall have signs painted to solve the difficulty. They will read: "Smile!" and we will all smile.

Sir: Did you by any chance notice that on page 18 of Our Favorite Newspaper, edition of Tuesday, August 22, we are told that "Among the many tales of bravery coming out of the explosion on board the liner Adriatic is the story of how Mrs. Friml quieted and grew." It is doubtless to be assumed that for a woman to become quieted at the time of an explosion on board a liner is something to crow about. —Kay.

ANOTHER NORTHERN CALIFORNIA FORWARD MOVEMENT.

NOTES and COMMENT

Washington Star on a new species of boob: 'Are you a 'flivver boob,' Mr. Motorist?' Perhaps you do not realize what a flivver boob is. According to the proclamations now posted in the street car, he is a 'jay walker on wheels.' Now, every man who drives a motor has scorn for the jay walker, the pedestrian who strays aimlessly or recklessly, or absent-mindedly through busy streets and gums up the traffic, or gets hit and congests the hospitals. But a 'jay walker on wheels' is a different proposition. Usually he is most of all contemptuous of the jay walker on foot. Just because he is on wheels he thinks that he is superior to rules and has an inalienable right of way against all others, afoot or awheel."

Capper's Weekly: "John Hays Hammond, famous engineer, is home from China filled with enthusiasm over its incalculable undeveloped natural wealth. Yet nowhere is poverty so colossal as in China. Hammond says it is lack of transportation that keeps China poor. 'The neck of the bottle in modern industry is distribution,' says George L. Record of New Jersey, on the stump. The big D in distribution in this country is the railroads. We can only prosper when they are freely used."

Chicago News on the necktie census: "Among the straw votes now being taken we should not overlook the nationwide survey of neckwear worn in the street which is being taken by the Associated Men's Neckwear Industries, Inc. The poll in four large cities now stands 65 per cent for the cut silks to 35 per cent for the knitted ties. The knits, though visibly chagrined at this early showing, protest that the rural districts have not as yet been heard from. It is hoped that when the agricultural ballots have been counted the knits will be running neck and neck.

Kansas City Star: "As the entente weakens other alliances emerge in Europe as a new balance of power. France, Belgium, Poland, Czecho-Slovakia, Rumania and the Turkish Nationalists have treaties. Germany and Russia have one. Britain and Italy are in accord and Britain is also backing Greece. Let's see, wasn't it the object of the League of Nations to prevent these national groupings?

New York Herald: "Judge Mancuso sentenced a gun-toting ex-convict to three years in State prison the other day, remarking, 'I hope this will be a lesson to other ex-convicts who are carrying revolvers.' It may be; and then again some intervention of soft-headed sentimentality may free the gun-toting ex-convict before the lesson has a chance to soak in."

* * *

Judging from this, found in the Kansas City Star, it is much the same all over: "Is it surprising that crime flourishes in this city, when punishment for it is so lax and uncertain. Here are the circuit judges, according to the records of the La Enforcement Association, granting paroles to 136 of 138 who apply in a single year. Here are forty-six prisoners who have received penitentiary sentences since the first of this year saved from prison by the judges acting as a parole board."

* * *

Chicago News: "President Harding's cordial message to President Ebert of Germany on the occasion of the celebration of the third anniversary of constitution of the German republic has had a happy effect upon public opinion in that country. Coming in these days of plottings by German kaiserists and militarists, the message was particularly well timed."

* * *

Washington Star: "In the opinion of Will Hays some allowance should be made for the motion picture because of its youth. As an industry the the film business is comparatively young, but some of those engaged in it are old enough to know better."

SPIRIT OF STATE PRESS

The Sacramento Bee records the experience of receiving an anonymous letter signed "A Daily Reader," which gives an endorsement of the Ku Klux Klan and an attack on the Bee and dares the editor to publish the letter, stating he does not think the publisher "has the moral courage to face an issue of this sort." The Bee replies to the anonymous writer by an editorial promising to publish the letter whenever the writer has the moral courage to disclose his identity by sending in his own name and address for publication.—Palo Alto Times.

"Only a few years ago," said someone the other day, "the boys were tickled to death to be given a $30 bicycle. But now a lot of them won't look at a bike. In many places it is a common sight to see youngsters not out of high school making a plaything of their father's automobiles, costing anywhere from $1000 to $5000.—Fairfield Enterprise.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

MY BEST.

If I were loyal to my best
I should not whimper at the test,
From dawn to dusk I should be fair,
And bravely stand my bit of care;
I should be friendly, just and kind,
And big of heart and broad of mind
And find in every circumstance
I'd made the most of Time and Chance.

The best of me, nor do I boast,
Would keep me faithful to my post,
'Twould guard my tongue from bitter things,
The speech of malice and its stings,
'Twould spur me on in times of stress,
And bring me safely to success;
The best of me would never let Me stoop to things that I'd regret

If to my best I would be true,
Men would rejoice in all I do;
With merit would my toiling glow
And none its worth could overthrow.
Then scornfully no man could say:
"Your hand has injured me today!"
And no pale sufferer tell that I
Had seen his want and passed him by.

But oh, so often I desert
And speak the petty things which hurt,
And shirk the task, and spoil the day
By madly rushing on my way;
When selfish interests come first
Then I am living at my worst.
Lord, till the night brings me to rest,
Let me be loyal to my best.

TODAY 20 YEARS AGO

B. L. Weymouth has been elected president of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Alameda.

The Marie King, from South America, is discharging a cargo of nitre for the local powder mills.

The work of macadamizing the last stretch of unimproved road between Elmhurst and Fruitvale on the San Leandro road, has been started.

The newest style of hairdressing is to wear the hair almost as low on the forehead as Queen Alexandra does.

EIGHT YEARS AFTER.

Crowds are gathering in German cities these days—and they have a poetic fancy to gather on palace grounds or in front of some building that belonged to the former imperial government—to express their opinion of the war that began eight years ago. That opinion on the whole, though by no means unanimously, for every demonstration calls out a counter-demonstration, is against war, or at least against that particular war.

This is not surprising, considering how that war turned out for Germany. It has been the fashion to say that the German people don't know they were defeated in that war, but probably this is an exaggeration intended to emphasize the point that Germany did not suffer from defeat as much as some of the allies suffered from victory. The German people know pretty well by this time that they were defeated and they are likely to recognize it more and more as time goes on. When they consider all of the results, even as far as they have been disclosed, they cannot escape the realization that their defeat was as complete as any the history of war records.—Kansas City Star.

What Loss of Appetite May Mean as a Symptom

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

There is an old saying that "appetite is the best sauce." When you look forward with pleasure to your meals and digest them without discomfort, you may be confident you are in pretty good condition.

On the contrary, loss of appetite, unless it appears only occasionally and lasts but little while, is an evidence of disease.

There are many causes for anorexia, but it may be put down as a fact that habitual abscence of appetite is a sign of poor health. Some of the underlying conditions are trifling, but, on the other hand, many of them are extremely serious.

The most common conditions with this symptom have to do with the stomach. Simple gastritis, that is simple inflammation of the stomach, may have an occasional day when the appetite flags, but there may be many days when there is a normal demand for food.

But if the inflammation becomes chronic there may be constant loss of appetite. This is invariably the case in certain forms of cancer of the stomach. In that rare disease called "cirrhosis of the stomach" where there are hardening and thickening of the walls of the stomach, loss of appetite is a symptom.

Many young girls have anaemia and absence of appetite is one of the signs. In tuberculosis at all ages it is noted.

In Bright's disease and in all forms of kidney inflammation it is met very frequently.

Excessive indulgence in tobacco, alcohol, opium and its derivatives and other drug addictions cause loss of desire for food.

There are various nervous conditions, like hysteria, nervous prostration and emotional insanity, where anorexia is present.

In the treatment of this condition, attention must be given the cause. It is not enough to prescribe a tonic. Of course, there are many useful appetizers, particularly the "bitter tonics," but before they are taken the general health should be considered. They are important but since the anorexia is merely a symptom it would be unscientific to disregard the fundamental cause.

Where loss of appetite follows a nervous disturbance, rest in bed, fresh air and quiet may help to repair the broken nerves and restore the appetite.

CITY HORSES FEWER.

Ten years ago the horse population of cities totaled 3,200,000. There now are about 1,700,000 horses left in cities, according to the 1920 census. This is a loss of 40 per cent. It indicates gasoline has taken the place of 120 million bushels of oats, 300 million bushels of corn and 5 million tons of hay. Wallace's Farmer figures this represents the product of about 8 million acres of land.—Capper's Weekly.

WHO'LL BE THE LAST?

They have fixed it on a radio pioneer, the responsibility for coining the phrase, "I'll tell the world."

What the sad world needs is not to know who first said it, but how long it will be before the last one gets through kicking the old thing around.—Stockton Record.

GLENVIEW JOINS COMMITTEES IN BOY SCOUT DRIVE

Appointment of a new committee to work independently in the Glenview district and add it quota to the total, was today's development in the plans for the Boy Scout drive for funds in Oakland which opens next Monday.

This committee will solicit funds in its own neighborhood and will raise a definite quota which will be added to that collected by the central committee and the workers in the regular canvass downtown.

Scout Executive Homer J. Bemiss will go to San Leandro today to aid the county councils in their drive, which will be carried on simultaneously with Oakland's campaign. Bemiss will also start the new plan by which the Oakland council exercises certain executive functions over the smaller county councils. Boys from the county will come to Oakland, and Oakland boys will go to the county in an exchange of courtesies to aid both campaigns.

President Abe F. Leach, chairman of the central committee, said yesterday that the drive organization is being rapidly perfected and that the names of the 200 men will be announced in a day or two. The opening dinner will be held at Hotel Oakland tomorrow night and will be attended by the full organization. The canvass for funds will start following the opening luncheon of next Monday.

10,831 Enrolled in Berkeley's Schools

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—A total of 10,831 pupils are enrolled in the schools of Berkeley according to latest figures from the office of Superintendent H. B. Wilson. Of these 10,415 are full-time pupils and the remainder enrolled in part-time classes. Last year the registration was 9644.

The enrollment is divided as follows: Kindergarten, 596; grammar grades, 5233; intermediate schools, 2707; high school, 1726.

LAST 6 DAYS OF REDWOOD DRIVE VITAL

Campaign to Save Sequoias Enters Whirlwind Finish; Volunteers Seek Votes and Tag Day Aid Is Planned

Only six days remain before the people of Oakland will decide the fate of the Sequoia Mountain park.

With the election less than a week hence, the members of the S. O. S. committee and the scores of volunteer workers are redoubling their efforts to carry the message of the "Save Oakland's Sequoias" into every home in the city and to bring about an overwhelming "yes" vote at the election next Tuesday.

As a final feature of the campaign, plans are about complete for a 'tag day" to raise the funds necessary for the success of the campaign.

S. B. Swan, Oakland merchant, is treasurer of the S. O. S. committee and one of the most active workers in the campaign. In a statement today he declared that the treasury was exceedingly low and that it would be a lasting shame to the people of Oakland to jeopardize the success of the $538,000 bond issue through lack of funds.

TO MEET DEFICIT.

It is to make up the deficit in the treasury that Ernest J. Engler, chairman of the S. O. S. committee, set the wheels in motion for a 'tag day," when the S. O. S. buttons will be distributed on the streets of Oakland.

Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of Oakland schools, and members of the board of education have promised the co-operation of the high school girls to do the selling.

Meanwhile Fred M. Kerruck, chairman of the finance committee and director of the sales of acreage in the proposed Sequoia Mountain park, has his workers busy cleaning up the drive for funds from this source.

The members of the One Hundred Per Cent club have joined in the fight with other organizations to save the redwoods and will hold a picnic lunch among the redwoods Friday noon. Charles Keeler, managing director of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, and well known poet, will be the speaker of the day.

The Soroptomists club and the Business and Professional Women's club will stage a luncheon at the temporary camp just off the Joaquin Miller road Saturday noon.

CHURCHES SUPPORT.

The Christian Citizens' League, representative of more than fifty Oakland churches, is unanimously on record in favor of the proposed park bond issue and the endorsement of this league will appear on the ticket to be sent each of the league members. Pastors in the several churches will talk on the S. O. S. campaign from their pulpits Sunday.

The Vernon-Rockridge club, one of the largest organizations in the city, also is backing the S. O. S. drive strongly and has planned to meet the ferry trains and line up the commuters' vote. Circulars also will be distributed throughout the district of the Vernon-Rockridge club, urging the citizens to vote "yes" on the bond issue.

The 2000-foot film showing the beauty spots in the redwoods is drawing hundreds to the Oakland showhouses this week. This film, which was prepared by James Winterburn of the Curtis-Baum company, appeared last night at the Rialto theater and will be run tonight at the Franklin theater.

The S. O. S. radio truck continues its work in the drive and is being heard in various parts of the city throughout the day and evening.

Better Films Board Discusses Problem

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Film censorship and other features of the motion picture industry as viewed from the layman's angle were discussed Tuesday at a meeting of the Berkeley Better Films Committee. The meeting took place at the College Women's clubhouse on Bancroft way. Mrs. J. F Johnston, president of the organizationfi occupied the chair.

Those present included Mrs. Bean Miss Kingman, Mrs. H. N. Herrick, Mrs. Grover, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Collom, Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. L. W. Bartlett, Mrs. G. L. Stovick, Mrs. King, Mrs. Whitney and others representing the Parent-Teachers' association, Civic league, University Mothers, Hillside club, College Women's club, Town and Gown, Twentieth Century club, Chamber of Commerce, Trinity Methodist church, First Presbyterian church, Cavalry Presbyterian church and other organizations.

Wife Took Paycheck, Is Plea For Divorce

Eugene W. Clark, 5467 Shafter avenue, told court commissioner Clarence Crowell that his wife took his pay check and instead of paying bills left him and squandered the money. The testimony was given during the course of a hearing of Clark's divorce suit against Evelyn Katherine Clark. Superior Judge J. S. Koford granted Clark an interlocutory decree.

Clark's mother, Mrs. Estelle D. Clark, who was a witness for the plaintiff, testified as to her daughter's housekeeping, saying that her hair was never combed, the beds never made and that Mrs. Clark left the dishes unwashed and that the house was so dirty that it was over-run with ants.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Damage amounting to $200 was caused by fire shortly after 8 o'clock this morning to the home of H. C. Collier, 1325 Parker street. The blaze was caused by spontaneous combustion and had its origin in a clothes closet. Members of the Collier family sought to extinguish the fire and failing in their efforts called the fire department. The blaze had gained considerable headway when the fire department arrived on the scene.

BOY BICYCLIST HURT.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Vance Rowley, 18, is recovering from injuries suffered yesterday afternoon when he drove his bicycle into the rear of an automobile operated by Mrs. Leslie Einstein of the Euclid apartments at Piedmont avenue and Dwight way. Mrs. Einstein took the youth to Temple hospital where it was found that he was suffering from severe cuts about the hands and face. He was later taken to his home at 1314 Parker street.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL BULIDING GAINED

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.— A new building devoted to the purposes of religious instruction will be added in Berkeley this fall with the announcement of plans for a $100,000 library for the Pacific School of Religion.

The library will be erected on the southerly end of the school's property on College avenue opposite the university infirmary, and will be the first structure in a new group of buildings planned for the school's campus.

The sum of $100,000 for the library building has been given by Charles Holbrook, retired San Francisco capitalist and member of the board of trustees. W. H. Hatcliff Jr. is drawing plans for the new building, work on which will be started in the early fall.

SLEUTH, WIND MAY RECOVER STOLEN HOSE

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Mrs. K. W. Coplin, 3042 Woolsey, is minus three pairs of her best silk stockings today and to H. P. Lee, veteran sleuth of the Berkeley police department, has been entrusted the job of recovering them for her.

Lee says the only way of finding the culprit is to wait for a windy day. The stockings were stolen from a clothes line in the Coplin yard.

According to Mrs. Coplin her hosiery is marked in such a manner that it could easily be recognized should they be worn on the street. She has furnished Officer Lee with a detailed description of the missing articles.

U. C. Students Spurn Bootleg, Leader Says

BERKELEY, Aug. 23.—"Drink her down boys" may have been the slogan at the university in the old days, but it doesn't hold good any more, according to Gus Bowen, varsity yell leader. "The big men in student life will not touch bootleg stuff," declares Bowen. "It is too dangerous."

At the same time, Bowen say that the "Pussyfoot" Johnson type will not get by at college. The average college man hates the reformer, he says. Bowen is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and Skull and Keys honor society.

New Law Professor Arrives At U. of C.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24. Monroe Smith, professor of Roman law and comparative jurisprudence at Columbia University, arrived today from the East to take the place of Professor Orin K. McMurray, who is exchange professor at Columbia this year.

Dr. Smith will take up his work in the school of jurisprudence at the university. He is the author of several authoritative books on technical subjects.

President Elected By Photo Engravers

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Matthew Woll was re-elected president of the International Photograph Engravers' Union here today. Henry F. Schmal, of St. Louis, was re-elected secretary and treasurer. Vice-presidents chosen included Charles Horrocks, Seattle.

FORTUNE IN POSTAGE ON RUSS LETTER

Away with the "Yard of Puppies" that once adorned the parlor wall! "Yard of Roses" and "Yard of Apostles," farewell! Nowadays the thing that is "erziskwyurzlswz" (Russian for "chic"), is the "Yard of Roubles."

Square yard would be more to the point perhaps, for Albert Benarz, an Oakland tailor, living at 36 Grand avenue, has received enough 7500-rouble stamps to cover that much wall space. They were used to cover postage on a letter from his father-in-law, L. Strzelzyk, in Harkoff, Russia.

There were 125 stamps attached to the letter and the total value of the postage was 937,500 roubles. The stamps took up about seven times as much space as the letter.

The present wraith-like condition of the rouble is a strong temptation to those prone to toy with statistics. If enough roubles were laid end to end to encircle the globe, the amount, if helped out with a little regular money, would just about buy a pair of knee pants for a mosquito. A stack of roubles as high as the Oakland city hall would pay for a stack of hotcakes and leave a bushel basketfull over to tip the waitress. In Russia, gambling has ceased to be an indoor sport. "No limit but the roof" is about equivalent to penny ante. You have to get outside and pile the roubles up on a vacant lot when you sweeten the pot.

Man Sues Wife For $1000 Savings Fund

That his wife had accepted his earnings and savings under the condition that she would return them to him upon his request and that upon such request she had refused to produce $1000 which he claims he has given into her keeping, was charged in a damage suit filed in the superior court today by H. E. De Hart.

DeHart claims that through his determined economy he was able to save the sum of $1000 and that he gave this money into the keeping of his wife. He declares that later when he asked her for the money she refused to turn it over to him and further refused to disclose the whereabouts of his earnings.

De Hart claims that all this money is community property and petitions the court to order his wife to turn the entire sum over to him.

Divorce Suit Causes Banker to Lose Job

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24. — The board of directors of the Citizens' Trust & Savings Bank of Los Angeles announced today the election of A. J. Waters to succeed President Ora C. Monnette, whose wife is now suing for separate maintenance.

Mrs. Monnette's rather sensational charges in her complaint are credited as responsible for the move, as Monnette's conduct of the bank's business affairs have been most successful.

One of his rules for banking was never permitting his wife to phone him or see him during business hours, it was alleged. Monnette is at present in Japan.

FRAME TYPE OF THEATER UNDER BAN

An ordinance purposing the ultimate elimination of frame theater buildings was passed to print today by the city council, as approved by the Motion Picture Theater Owners, Builders' exchange, and city fire department heads.

The ordinance specifies that, if a frame theater building ceases operation for 30 days, it cannot thereafter reopen as a theater. No present frame buildings used as motion picture or other theaters can hereafter be reconstructed, enlarged or altered.

If any building used as a theater, frame or otherwise, is not provided with proper exits, corridors and emergency exits, and is closed for 30 days, it cannot be used again as a theater unless equipped with the necessary exits and corridors.

ORDINANCES' PURPOSE.

According to Commissioner Frank Colbourn, the ordinance is so drawn that it works no hardships upon present frame motion picture theaters, but provides that there shall be no new ones, and in time the old ones will have been abandoned.

The city council passed to print an appropriation of $25,000 for new fire apparatus. This will include two engines and a roadster.

A single family residence zone was established for the tract bounded roughly by Elliott, Bay View avenue, East Twenty-eighth, Park boulevard, and East Thirty-fourth.

The sum of $8129 85 was appropriated to pay half the cost of sewering Madison street from Second to Twelfth.

WALKS STANDARDIZED.

An ordinance calling for standard width sidewalks on Fourteenth street from Harrison to Oak was passed to print, ending some controversy on the width of this sidewalk.

The improvement of Seventy-sixth avenue was ordered from East Fourteenth to its northerly termination. Other street improvements ordered were: Sixty-fourth avenue from East Fourteenth southeasterly; and Maine street from Maple to Laurel avenues.

AUTO INJURES MAN.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 24. — James J. Hall, 1518, Grove street, was struck by the automobile of Paul Koenig, 2237 Alameda avenue, at Park street and Blanding avenue, yesterday evening. He was taken to the emergency hospital by oKenig, where he was treated for bruises and contusions.

Manuscript Gone Alleges Husband Of Myra Jacobs

A manuscript invaluable in the eyes of science and dealing with psychological observations of thousands of prisoners in the Folsom State prison disappeared at the same time that his wife left home, it was charged yesterday by Manuel J. Jacobs, former University of California professor, in the course of his testimony against his talented wife, Mrs. Myra Jacobs, in a divorce action now being heard before Judge F. J Murasky.

According to Professor Jacobs, his statistics on criminal psychology were compiled in manuscript form, the entire magnum opus being ready to pass into the hands of the printer. The manuscript cannot possibly be duplicated, and it represents the toil of many years, according to the professor.

Professor Jacobs is contesting his wife's suit, and is presenting his own cross-complaint, charging cruelty. In the course of yesterday's hearing he produced a letter [illegible] presented without statement of its direct relation to the charges made, and without identification of authorship, and says in part:

"And so, my love, if you tell me that before you had cared for others, I shall feel all the more flattered, for I shall know you have gained discrimination, that instead of the novice undeveloped fancy, I am receiving the cultured offering of a strengthened, seasoned spirit."

In regard to other letters previously submitted against her in evidence, Mrs. Jacobs testified yesterday that she had been a patient in a sanatorium and that letters received or written by her during that period were out of relation to her normal life.

Mrs. Jacobs was formerly Myra Friedenrich, honor graduate of the University of California, and for several years a student in the Colleges of Vienna and Berlin, where she specialized in music, art and Oriental languages.

At previous hearings of the case Professor Jacobs produced several missives to affirm his claim that his wife was ready to accept the affections of any man who would provide her with the means of a musical career. The Professor also charged that his wife had thrown cooking utensils, dishes and other appurtenances of the kitchen and dining room at his head. He also accused her of saying that their child was "a hindrance to her career."

Author Named On U. C. English Staff

BERKELEY, Aug. 23. — Professor R. P. Utter, author and instructor in English at the University, has been appointed secretary of the English department it became known today. Professor Utter has been working toward the establishment of a graduate school of journalism, along the lines of the graduate school of business administration at Harvard.

Miss Kleinicke, who has been secretary of the department for the past four years, will be in charge of all freshmen courses in English at the university.

Mrs. Grace Billing, a graduate of Carleton college, will act as assistant secretary.

WIFE ASKING DIVORCE MAY BE DEPORTED

Woman Seeking Alimony Appears in Custody of U. S.; Senational Charges Made in Complaints By Couple

When Mary Anna Humphries appeared before Judge Dudley Kinsell while a motion for temporary alimony was being argued [illegible] she was in custody of [illegible] States immigration authorities. Humphries was arrested last June on charges made by Frederick Humphries, whom she is suing for divorce.

Humphries alleged that his wife entered this country for immoral purposes, and that she gave false testimony to the authorities at the time of her entry. The case has been heard and is pending before Washington bureau heads on deportation proceedings.

Following her arrest Mrs. Humphries filed suit for divorce, which was answered by a counter suit on the part of the husband. Both documents teem with sensational charges.

In her complaint Mrs. Humphries charges that her husband at one time attempted to smother their three-weeks-old daughter, Irene, saying, "Let it die and we'll have one less to feed."

At another time, she alleges, he tied her to a post and tortured her by burning her arms and beating and kicking her. She also alleges that while the couple were living in Wales he stole her jewelry, fled to Canada, and after persuading her to join him there told her that now he had lured her away from her relatives and could do as he pleased with her.

On another occasion, she charges, he wrote to an affinity saying, "Mrs. Humphries is going to die. That is good, for now you and I can get married."

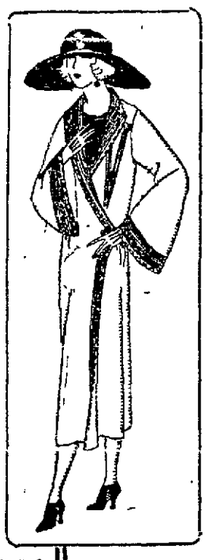

Humphries, on the other hand, alleges that his wife left their home in Canada and came to this country where she met a man named Robert Redhead, and that the two lived together at 1048 Peralta street and at 2530 East Fourteenth street. It was at the latter place that Mrs. Humphries was arrested by the federal authorities.

The motion argued today was for temporary alimony of $30 a week, which Mrs. Humphries asked in her complaint. She is represented by Attorney Rodolph Hatfield and Attorney Louis Silver represents Humphries.

BROWNS TAKE AMERICAN LEAD FROM THE N. Y. YANKEES

BILLY LANE'S CLEVER PLAYING FOR SEATTLE COSTS THE CRIPPLED OAKS ANOTHER GAME

Former Oak's Work Beats Local Club

By EDDIE MURPHY.

With the race so far advanced, and only seven more weeks left, the Oaks are now fighting to finish in the first division, and to do that they have a fight on their hands to the finish, as bad luck continues on their trail and there is no telling where they will wind up if it keeps up. The locals took a 3 to 1 defeat at the hands of the Seattle Indians yesterday afternoon. They were forced to present a very patched lineup with George Lafayette out. George was rushed to a hospital when he became ill. Ivan Howard thought it might be an attack of typhoid fever, but the illness did not prove serious, and George may be in the lineup in a day or two. In the fifth inning, Denny Wilie was hurt while stealing second, and will be out for a few days. Claude Cooper is also on the shelf with a broken hand. So the best that the Oaks can do now is to show they are game and go out and fight hard in the hope of finishing in the first division.

OAKS MUST BEAT BEES.

The Salt Lake Bees are the ones the Oaks will have to beat out in order to finish fourth at least. These Bees pulled a game ahead of the locals yesterday afternoon by beating out the Seals, while the Indians were roughing the Oaks. Harry Krause pitched a fine game for the Oaks, allowing only six hits. Elmer Jacobs also pitched a great game for the Indians, allowing seven hits and being quite effective in the pinches.

The work of Billy Lane, along with the pitching of Jacobs, put the skids under the locals, for Billy proved to be bad medicine. For the past couple of weeks Billy has been playing great ball for the Indians, and when Billy gets going right, it is hard to stop him. The Indians scored two runs in the third. Jacobs walked and advanced to third when Lane singled to left, and took second on the throw in. Mariott tossed out Orr, and Krause tossed out Hood as the runners held the bases. Mariott made a great stop of Eldred's bounder back of third, but could not recover in time to throw anybody out, so Jacobs scored. Then came some fun when Lane was trapped off third base. He looked a dead out, but like a mouse trying to get away from a [illegible] cats, Billy ran back and forth and ducked as the entire infield and battery chased him. He finally got away and scored the second run.

OAK RALLY SPOILED.

Knight's double, and Brubaker's double gave the Oaks their lone run in the fourth. They had a great chance to score in the ninth when with two out, Arlett and Howard as pinch-hitters got hits. A freak double play killed their chance. Brown tried to duck a wild pitch by Jacobs and the ball hit his bat. Jacobs' throw got Arlett at third, and Brown was thrown out at first before he could even pick himself out of the dirt.

The Indians scored their third run in the eighth when Lane singled and moved to second, while Brown juggled the ball for just a moment. It was daring base running. Lane then stole third without a play even being made for him, and he scored when Orr laid down a bunt.

OAKS SIGN CHAVEZ.

The Oaks added another youngster to their list yesterday afternoon when they signed Percy Chavez, a young lad from San Leandro. He started in the Oakland TRIBUNE Class C two years ago and moved along fast. Louie Guisto had him at St. Mary's college last spring, and Duffy Lewis took him for a tryout with the Salt Lake Bees. He went big in the Bee's camp, but the Salt Lake climate got his goat, and Lewis let him go. He is a great little fielder and now that he has added some weight since he left the Bees, he may be able to deliver. He is about as good an infield prospect as there is in the bushes.

Ira Caffey made his debut to the local fans and was given a great hand on his first trip to the plate. In the outfield he handled himself like a regular, but at bat he appeared over anxious and fanned the first three times. On his last trip he hit to Wisterzil and in going down to first base he showed plenty of speed. Maybe when he gets acquainted here better he will click the apple. The score:

Tigers Get Even Break and Gain On S. F. Tossers

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—The Vernon Tigers lost a good chance to make a big gain on the San Francisco Seals by losing the second game of yesterday's double-header to the Portland Beavers by a score of 3 to 2, but still they are satisfied as they won the first game 5 to 1, and on the day's doings, made a gain of half a game on the league leaders. Jesse Doyle pitched the first game for the Tigers, while his teammates bunched hits on "Lefty" Leverenz.

Jolly and Crumpler staged a pitching duel for eight innings without a score in the second game, but in the ninth, Jolly weakened and three runs were scored by the Beavers. The Tigers tried hard in their half, but got only one run on Bodie's double, Locker's single and Cox's error. The scores:

Clarence Walker Hits Another Homer

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24.—Clarence (Tilly) Walker hits his thirtieth homer of the season for the Philadelphia Athletics and is now tied with Rogers Hornsby of the Cardinals. Kenneth Williams of the St. Louis Browns still leads in the race for homers in the two leagues, with thirty-two. Howard Ehmke was pitching for the Tigers when Walker hit the one yesterday. It happened in the third inning.

Portland Twirler Is Out For Season

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—Harvey "Suds" Sutherland, ace of the pitching staff of the Portland club of the Pacific Coast baseball league, is not likely to hurl another game this season, it was learned here. He may undergo an operation for kidney trouble. His physician has ordered him to take a month's rest in hopes that the operation may be avoided.

President McCarthy Overrules Protest

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—President William H. McCarthy of the Pacific Coast Baseball league, has overruled the Vernon club's protest against a game played at San Francisco between San Francisco and Salt Lake, which the Vernon club said should have been played at Salt Lake, according to word received by Howard Lorenz, secretary of the Vernon club. McCarthy says that the league directors had given him permission to transfer games to California cities in the belief that the railroad strike might interfere with playing them elsewhere.

CRICKET LINGO IS TOO MUCH FOR POP BOYER

"Many a peek I have took at the old sport pages but I took one too many and flattened I am," roared Pop Boyer last night.

He pulled some folded sheets from his pocket and spread them for inspection under the street light, which floods his place of business.

"This has me plenty," said Pop, "but it ain't published in this country, so 'at helps. I guess I can manage anything that's wrote round here but if this is sports and I aint sure it is, then I'm through."

It is still a question whether it was sports or not, on account of it turning out to be an article on some English cricket matches! (Pop may have raised a fairer question than he knew.)

"You read it," said Pop in his husky from here to San Leandro whisper. "This light aint any too good."

He poked a strong thumb at a starting point and the following perfumery rose in the air:

"The great trouble with the Universities' cricket was that introspection disturbed the game overmuch; there was all the tentativeness present which is the mark of the subtle mind."

"Yeh, yeh, I understand all that," said Pop, "but go on, go on." More incense floated around the Thirteenth street sage, "Ponder too well the intricate adjustment and readjustment that goes on in the muscular organization as you alternately play forward or play back, and the thought of all the complications may overawe you to immobility."

"Ponder, Ponder," meditated Pop, "he's that Los Angeles pitcher with a bum wing, aint he?"

"You weren't listening, Pop," he was advised. "This has something to do with the longoffs or outfielders playing up close or laying back by the fence according to the dope on the hitter."

"Like Hack Miller used to come right up behind Pinelli when Maury Rath was batting last year, or play deep for one of Sam Crawford's long ones, I get you," thudded Pop, delighted.

"Yeh, now I understand it good, perfectly," he ruminated, "but just supposen somebody spilled that dictionary at Hack Miller or Dinnie Wilie or even at Honus Mitze. Gosh, they'd be sore. If Eddie Murphy tipped over that bucketful at Hack, Hack he'd 'a' thought Eddie was accusin' him of throwin' games, sure. Even Mitze would 'a' grabbed a bat and chased Eddie clean over to Alameda but what he would 'a' made him take it back!"

Irish Polo Team Arrives for Match

The team is composed of Captain Goulding, a veteran of the British army during the war, J. A. B. Trench, G. C. V. Douglas, and F. R. Gill, all members of the All-Ireland Polo club of Dublin, and Major F. B. Hurndall and Major Vivian Lockett, two Englishmen of the English-American "Eastcott" team entered in the tournament.

Their first game will be against the Shelbourne team Tuesday in the Herbert Memorial cup tournament.

Whiskaway, Slipping, Is Defeated Again

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Whiskaway, the season's champion 3-year-old, recently purchased by C W. Clark for $150,000, yesterday finished fourth in the twentieth running of the Huron handicap, which was captured by Montfort Jones' Rockminster.

Margaret Cameron Leaving For East

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—Miss Margaret Cameron of Los Angeles, Northern California golf champion, will leave tomorrow for the east. She plans to enter two national tournaments—the Canadian national at Toronto, September 11 to 16, and the American national at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va, September 25 to 30.

Last Sunday they walloped the Chevrolet Motors and Cliff Durant will treat them to a fine banquet tomorrow night.

S. L. BEES GIVE SEALS OF S. F. FINE SURPRISE

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 24.—The San Francisco Seals were given the surprise of the season here when they went down to an 8 to 7 defeat before Duffy Lewis' Salt Lake Bees yesterday afternoon. With the score 7 to 2 against them in the last of the ninth, the Bees staged a rally that netted them five runs and tied the score, and then they went out and got the winning run in the tenth inning when Schick doubled and Henie Sand drove out a single. Schick played a prominent part in defeating his old teammates as he cut off a Seal run in the tenth. Ellison opened the tenth with a double and went to third on Strand's wild throw. O'Connell hit a long fly to Schick and the latter's throw got Ellison trying to score.

Alten was on the mound when the Bees started in the ninth. Schick started the frame by fanning. Sand and Kerns got singles. Thurston batting for Kallio, skied out, but Vitt and Wilhoit singled and Lewis doubled. That put three of the runs over and Coumbe relieved Alten. Coumbe tried to show his nerve by pitching to Strand and the leading hitter of the league doubled and the score was tied. Jenkins grounded out. Thurston finished the pitching and got credit for the win. The score:

Baseball Fodder

The Brooklyn Dodgers put another dent in the pennant hopes of the Chicago Cubs by handing the Windy City boys a 6-to-0 whitewashing. Ivan Olson and Jimmy Johnston each got a hit and scored a run for the Dodgers.

Hack Miller hit a double and single for the Cubs. Hollocher, Maisel and Terry each got one hit. Terry and Hollocher played great ball around the keystone sack, handling nineteen chances between them without a boot.

Bigbee and Schmidt each got two hits and scored a run for the Pirates, who walloped the Phillies.

The Cards defeated the Braves 6 to 3. Bottomly, the first sacker who took the place of Jack Fournier with the Cards, assisted with two timely hits; one a triple.

Kenneth Williams stole two bases, scored a run and got a single for the Browns, who took first place in the American league race by defeating Boston, while the Indians were beating the Yanks.

Stan Covelskie held the Yankees to three hits, Witt, Schang and Ward being the lucky ones.

Lead Goes To Browns In American

Cleveland Pitchers Upset the Plans of New York to Sweep to Pennant.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—The New York Yankees, held to five hits in two games by Cleveland pitchers, have relinquished the American League lead to the St. Louis Browns. In the second game of the series with Cleveland, Coveleskie held the Yanks to three hits by Witt, Schang and Ward, and won 4 to 1, while the Browns walloped out a six to three victory over the Red Sox at Boston.

Everett Scott, the Yankees' shortstop, went through the game against Cleveland without making an assist. He was credited with one put out.

In the National, while New York was idle in Cincinnati because of rain, the Cardinals took a six to three game from the Braves. The Pirates continued their winning streak, defeating the Phillies 11 to 3, and Sherrod Smith, of Brooklyn, shut out the Cubs six to nothing. Cobb's Tigers suffered their first defeat of the week, failing before the Athletics, 6 to 3, and Washington trounced the White Sox, 11 to 3.

The Yankees have touched the Indian twirlers for only five hits in two days.

Clarence "Tillie" Walker's thirtieth home run of the season helped Pitcher Rommel to turn in his 19th victory of the season.

Harry Heilmann of the Tigers crashed out his twentieth circuit drive of the season, but it wasn't enough to win for his club.

Hauser, playing the initial sack for Connie Mack, poled three hits, one of which was a four-bagger. He jumped from 19th place among the batters to fifth.

The Browns played errorless ball behind Wright and Van Gilder and beat the Red Sox 6 to 3. Ferguson was hit hard in the first two innings.

Manager Gleason sent Leverette, Davenport and Hodge against the Senators, but they were wild and ineffective, and the White Sox were beaten.

Several of the second string players on the White Sox roster were given a chance to show their wares after Washington had taken a commanding lead.

Johnny Mostil had a perfect day at bat, making three hits and a sacrifice in four times up.

Cooper was hit on a finger in the seventh inning of the Pirate-Phillies game by the first ball pitched to him. He wrapped the bleeding member in a handkerchief and drove out a homer.

Percy Jones could not get his balance and the Dodgers hit him for five blows in a row and he went to the showers, the Brooklynites winning.

Cobb Slips Back in Batting Race

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—George Sisler today led American league batters with an average of .413. Ty Cobb, manager of the Tigers, the runner-up to the St. Louis star, has an average of .400, 13 points behind his rival.

	Games	AB.	Hits	Pct.
Sisler	114	470	194	.413
Cobb	108	423	169	.400

WILLIE MEEHAN DECISIVELY DEFEATED BY KRAMER

RUNNERS FROM LOCAL INDUSTRIAL PLANTS WILL BE STRONGLY REPRESENTED IN BIG RACE

PHAT PHIGHTER IS GAME BUT UNABLE TO COPE WITH YOUTH

Gene Cline Stops Bud Soules in the Second Round; Arlos Fanning Must Get Speed

By BOB SHAND

Willie Meehan's neck is not exactly like a swan's or anything like that but Willie sang his swan song just the same at the Auditorium last night when he was out-pointed by Cliff Kramer. When Willie, the lad who licked Dempsey and a lot of other good ones, cannot hold his own with a green youngster like Kramer he is about through. Meehan was so fat that he waddled and he was so short winded that he had to stand still at times and take punches that a couple of years age he would have ducked. The Phat Phighter tried his best and he succeeded in giving the big gathering of cash customers a good entertainment but he took a severe beating in every round. Kramer was not unscathed as Willie swung scores of wild ones to the pantry and head and at times had Cliff worried. Kramer showed his verdancy by looking towards his corner for advice every time Meehan bass-drummed his larder and Cliff was up in the air when the Meehan loop-the-loop punches started.

There was a lot of chatter before the fight about Meehan going to mistake the ring for a diving pool, but there never was a harder fought battle in the local ring. Willie took everything that his younger opponent had and he never whimpered or stopped trying with his own peculiar punches. He was a badly beaten fighter at the finish, but his gameness earned him as much applause as his conqueror.

Despite earnest training, and a conscientious effort to get into fighting condition, Willie looked more like a prize porker than a prize fighter last evening. There were rolls of fat around his stomach and his legs were packing about twenty pounds of excess weight. The phat boy has simply taken on weight that cannot be removed and the additional poundage has killed his speed and played havoc with his wind.

Kramer at Times Shows His Lack of Experience

Kramer looked good in spots and he looked bad in spots. He should have put his man away in the second round when he had him on Queer street, but Cliff did'nt know what to do when the opportunity presented itself. When Old Man Opportunity comes to the Kramer domicile he will have to kick the door in to wake up the tenant. Cliff won't pay any attention to the electric bell.

Bud Soules was stopped in the second round by Gene Cline. A long right hander to the talking apparatus put Bud to the bad and another one put him to the floor, where he took a count of seven. Cline started pumping punches into Bud when he arose and he was in danger of being knocked into Lake Merritt when the referee stopped the fight. It was a wonderful scrap while it lasted. Turn Gene Cline loose with Duffy and watch the customers trample one another at the entrance.

Arlos Fanning, the Kansas City lightweight, will have to speed up if he wants to get by here. He won a decision over Sailor Johnny Webber last night but the crowd gave them both the razz. It was a poor fight with both boys falling into clinches with provocation. Fanning may be a good distance fighter but they're only going four rounds out here. The decision was close at that, but Arlos had the edge.

Lucky for Bobby Ertle That McCann Was Sick

Frankie McCann was a sick boy when he entered the ring to do battle with Bobby Ertle, which probably accounts for the fact that Bobby is still able to be around. For two rounds Ertle worked nicely with both feet and hands, but McCann started in the third and hammered Robert all around the ring to take the decision. Body punches took the sap out of Ertle.

When Billy Wallace was informed that his stuff was good in a dancing academy but the bunk in a ring, he warmed up to his work and took a decision from Pete Francis. There was no damage done in the first two rounds as Wallace refused to lead or take any chances. Billy fell for a final warming at the end of the second and started tearing in the third. His "class" showed and Pete was soon on his way to defeat although he never gave an inch of ground. Pete took a short count in the fourth and came close to taking a longer one. Both went through the ropes in the final round, they were battling so earnestly.

Wild Swinging Gents Entertain Customers

Johnny Conde, past president of the Goofy Club, entertained his old pal Frankie Oldrich, grand ruler of the Cuckoo club. It was a draw at the end of a mess of swings. They both took everything and neither tried to block anything. This made it interesting for the cash customers but there are enough ex-phighters making paper dolls now. It was a wonderfully willing exhibition and most of the cheers went to Conde, where they belonged.

Joe Avery and Eddie Kelly staged a poor fight in the curtain raiser. It was called a draw and a lot of other things.

Looks like J. Duffy and J. Cline next week with the winner meeting G. Cline.

LOCAL HUNTERS MISS LION BUT BRING IN BUCK

Devotees of the gun who are wont to stray afar from home in search of game sport or excitement may well confine their activities to the limits of this vicinity, according to the reports that have been coming in to this office regarding game found in the hills of this county and adjacent counties within a radius of fifty to seventy-five miles.

The most recent of these experiences to be recounted was that of a party of Oakland hunters who went out in the neighborhood of Livermore over the week-end in search of deer and had their share of thrills and were well rewarded for their efforts.

In the party were Charles Dean, Johnny Powers and J. Kelly. This trio, accompanied by Shirley, a veteran trapper of Livermore, left camp at 4 o'clock Sunday morning and just at daybreak spotted a lion and two cubs on the edge of Devil's Hole.

Powers sighted the lion and, when telling about it afterwards, said that without exaggeration, the animal would have measured twelve feet from tip to tip. Two shots failed to take effect and the lion moved off to parts unknown. Efforts to have the dogs take the trail were unavailing.

Just around the hill at the Sugar Loaf Dean brought down a beautiful specimen of Pacific buck which scaled at 155. This proved to be sufficient reward to the party for their trip with the lion thrown in for good measure. Why leave home to shoot lions when they are to be had near Livermore?

BOWLING

The first annual city Class C tournament which closed Monday, August 21-22 at the bowling center, brought out new champions among the Class C men. The event was won by Carl Deleu winning 39 and losing but 6 games. He also won high 4 games with a total of 774. Second place went to Ed Harding of the Pacific Telegraph and Telephone Co. Third place was taken by Schuyler from the Native Son Athens parlor.

After being in the 6th place, C. A. Pugh of the class C Splicers' team beats his team mate LaRoche 5 games and took fourth place.

The two-man event is now at full swing at the Bowling Center. It is open to all bowlers and will continue until August 29. Happy Harry Smith and Tom Smith of the Texas Tommy's lead with the score of 465.

The Independent Class B tourney is going big. A. Montijo and Ruddie are tied for first place. J. Montijo and Nichols tied for second place while Demetroff is giving them all a run for their money and will be near the top at the finish.

There will be a meeting of the Oakland Handicap League at the Bowling Center Friday night. All captains are requested to attend.

Colvin Heath New Assistant Mentor

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—Colvin "Beefy" Heath has been engaged as assistant to Coach Eugene Nixon of Pomona Colleg at Claremont, it was learned here. Heath was captain of the Pomona football team in 1916.

GOLF

By W. D. McNICOLL

At Claremont tonight the tournament committee will hold a meeting at which several matters pertaining to inter-club matches and tournament events will be discussed. The old versus young golfers contest, which takes place Saturday, will be arranged in four-ball foursomes with a dividing line somewhere between the 17-year boys and the 70-year veterans. The boys have selected Walter Johnson for captain, while the veterans have chosen C. C. Hillis to lead them. Already sufficient entries for twenty four-ball matches have been received, but further entries may be made today. The event will be at handicap, but the method of handicapping has yet to be decided upon.

Sometimes it pays to be out of bounds. If you doubt this ask Harry Mosher, who has a real hard luck story to tell about the third hole at Claremont. Mosher's famous hole-in-one spoon failed to get a good hold of the ball for his first tee shot, which sliced and was signaled out of bounds. Teeing a second ball, a perfect drive was recorded, the ball coming to rest about 18 inches from the cup, but just as he was about to hole out his caddy, who had gone to recover the first ball, found it in bounds in an almost unplayable lie. The putter had to be discarded and replaced by a niblic, which failed to do more than move the ball a few inches at the first attempt, a six was finally recorded instead of a perfectly satisfactory three.

Next month will see a resumption of the women's tournament contests at Claremont. Miss Alice Knowles is still out of town, but her able assistants, Mrs R. R. Yates and Mrs. B. P. Legare have arranged a series of events to take place during the ensuing month. Tuesday, September 5, will be "invitation day." Tuesday, September 12, a flag tournament will be held. The subscription cup contest will take place on September 19. The last Tuesday of the month will be given over to play for the president's cup.

Pelsinger Draws While Vierra Wins

MODESTO, Cal., Aug 24.—Sammy Pelsinger of San Francisco and Wildcat Borba of Crews Landing fought a fast four round draw in the main event at the Crows Landing Athletic club last night. The men are welterweights.

In the semi-windup Battling Vierra of Oakland won a decision over Roy Morgan, Lodi lightweight. Vierra had the better of three rounds out of four.

Benny Leonard May Fight Charlie White

NEW YORK.—Benny Leonard will fight Charley White for the world's lightweight championship as soon as he recovers from the injury to his teeth, sustained in the Tendler fight, according to his manager.

Longwood Net Play Reaches The Doubles

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—The National doubles lawn tennis championship play at Longwood yesterday was marked by a demonstration of youthful strength by a pair of western lads, Walter Westbrook, of Detroit, and James Hennessy of Indianapolis, who battled the Australian Davis cup team, Gerald L. Patterson, and Pat O'Hara Wood, through three extra game sets. The scores were 7-5, 8-6, 8-6.

The national mixed doubles championship, inaugurated yesterday, brought together several notable partnerships, including some inter national alliances. The national men's and women's championships, Mrs Molla Bjurstedt Mallory and "Bill" Tilden teamed; Miss Helen Wills, the girl star, had as partner Robert Kinsey, her fellow Californian.

The summaries:

Miss Edith Sigourney, Boston, and W. E. Davis, San Francisco, defeated Miss Dorothy Neyhart, Providence, and Elon Hooker, Greenwich, Conn., 6-3, 6-3.

Miss Helen Wills, Berkeley, and Robert Kinsey, San Francisco, defeated Miss Katherine Gardner, Boston, and Phil F. Neer, Los Angeles, 6-4, 10-12, 6-2.

Mrs. W. M. Henry, Los Angeles, and Count de Gomar, Spain, defeated Miss Marion Fehno and J. Fenno Jr., Boston, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Third round:

Miss Eleanor Sears, Boston, and W. W. Johnston, San Francisco, defeated Mrs. Trumbull, Weston, and J. Seabury, Boston, 6-3, 6-3.

Kirksey, Thompson to Compete in Trials

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—Earl Thompson, world's champion high hurdler, will try out for the Los Angeles Athletic club track and field team to the A. A. U track and field championship to be held at Newark, N. J, next month. The Los Angeles Athletic club will hold its tryout at Bovard Field, University of Southern California, Saturday afternoon. A complete track and field program will be held with more than fifty Southern California athletes participating, among them some of the nation's greatest track and field men.

Morris Kirksey, former Stanford University sprinter, will tryout, according to Dean Cromwell, who will coach the squad.

Glen Hartranft and Clarence ("Bud") Houser, national intercollegiate and inter-cholastic shot-put champions respectively, are also expected to compete.

Mike Brady Leads Field In Golf Play

Western Championships at Oakland Hills Produce High Scores.

OAKLAND HILLS COUNTRY CLUB, BIRMINGHAM, Mich., Aug 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Determination to reduce their scores in the second qualifying round took an equal place today in the minds of more than a hundred professional and amateur golfers competing in the Western open tournament, with their desire to annex the championship, after many of the experts yesterday found a course they could not easily master.

So difficult did they find Oakland Hills that out of the brilliant array of players only 28 finished the first 18 holes under 80 and only one par was turned in. That was by Mike Brady, Oakland Hills professional, who took 37-35. Many of the professionals were of the opinion today that it ranks along with Skokie, Oakmont and others that have put stars to the test.

The numerous traps, bunkers and natural hazards proved too much for such golfers as Emmet French and Bobby Cruikshank, who turned in 80s, Bob Peebles and H. C. Lagerblade, who had 84s, and many others of note.

Brady's performance in the first round was not a surprise to local golf enthusiasts for Mike's familiarity with the course and his record of 67 promised to place him at or near the top of the list. His 73 was hung up early in the day and it was not until Johnny Farrell, the Mamaroneck, N. Y., professional, and "Chick" Evans finished late in the afternoon, that the low score was threatened.

COURSING NEWS.

The Central California Coursing Club has arranged three strong stakes including the open, the reserve and the puppy for the races to be staged at San Pablo near Richmond on Sunday. Rex, Bill Bernheim's great dog; J. C. Wild Bill, stake winner last Sunday; Mr. Jiggs, a stake winner of some time ago and several other fast hounds, start in the feature stake. The reserve has several fast hounds entered, while the puppy has some classy Oakland comers starting.

Phillip P. Higgins will be judge of all courses, while James F. Grace will slip the hounds. The first course is at 11:30 o'clock.

The drawings follow:

OPEN STAKE.

J. C. Wild Bill vs. Busy Body; Jerry Wild Bill vs. Rex; Prince Eugene vs. Steam Belle; Gorilla vs. Blended Bourbon; Desert Sand vs. Mr. Jibbs; Sportsman vs. Bungalow Boy.

RESERVE STAKE.

Desert Gold vs. Pastime Girl; Oakland Wild vs. Liberty Girl; Good Rule vs. Blended Motto; Three Spot vs. Bit of Fawn; Eva F. vs. Paymaster; Recognition vs. McKenna.

PUPPY STAKE.

Tom Murphy Drives Trotters to Wins

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Thomas E. Murphy, Poughkeepsie's reinsman on the Grand Circuit, drove Peter Manning, 1:57¾, the world's champion trotter, to a mark of 1:59¼ at the Hudson River Driving Park yesterday afternoon and piloted Hope Frisco to victory in "The Union" 2:16 trot, purse $2000, and Margaret Dillon to a win in the free-for-all pace. In equaling the best time of the year on the Grand Circuit made by Nedda at Toledo, Murphy lowered the local track trotting record held jointly by Napoleon Direct and Miss Harris M., at 2:00¾. Miss Harris M. was driven by Murphy when she squeied Napoleon Direct's time made in a race.

Leonard Is Ready For White Match

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Benny Leonard is ready to defend his lightweight boxing championship against Charley White, Chicago challenger, as soon as he recovers from injuries sustained in his last few bouts, his manager, Billy Gibson, said today.

Davis Knocks Out Josephs in Sixth

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 24.—Coming to Seattle with the prestige of victories over a string of boxers known on the Pacific Coast, including Jimmy Sacco and Bobby Harper, Jack Josephs, Minneapolis welterweight, was knocked out in the sixth round by Travie Davis last night.

Referee A. D. Schact awarded the fight to Davis at the end of the third round, when Josephs went to his knees. The local boxing commission decided that the bell had rung before Josephs went down. Davis, who was already in his dressing room, was recalled.

Eddie (Kid) Billings, of Superior, Wis., gained a decision over Harry Casey, Seattle.

While watching a boxing match following that in which Travie Davis knocked out Jack Josephs here last night, Wm. A. Pinney, a photographer, died in his seat. A newsboy saw the body slumped down in the seat and discovered when he shook it that life was gone.

MISTER TUT ARRIVES.

NEW YORK—Tut Jackson, Ohio negro heavyweight, who is to fight Harry Wills in Brooklyn ball park next Tuesday night, is expected to arrive here tomorrow to finish his training.

Leads Unattached

LOUIS SORENSON JR., who represented Vocational High School in the TRIBUNE Marathon last year, is again entered in the Lake Merritt classic. Sorenson will run unattached this year and figures to place well up in the list at the finish over the three and one-eighth mile course, having always made an excellent showing over the longer course in previous years.

WESTERN ELECTRICS LEAD ALL EASTBAY INDUSTRIES IN RACE

By DOUG MONTELL

Yesterday was marked as a day of competition between Industrial plants for entering their picked men and continued rivalry in the high school field. Between the two six more entries were received, swelling the list to a total of forty-six and the fifty mark will be left behind today. There are but nine more days left for entries to be sent in the Tenth Annual TRIBUNE Merritt Marathon. It is absolutely essential that all entries be sent in to this office not later than midnight on the night of Saturday, September 2. All entries bearing a postmark not later than midnight of that day will be admitted, but the work of checking up of entries will require some time and a week has been allowed for the task.

Oakland High took the lead further in the high school race today when Eddie Schlosser sent in his entry for the Blue and White team. It has been five days since a Technical high lad has entered and as a result the downtown high school will be leaving the Purple and Gold in the dust unless the men of Coach Hanson display greater activity suddenly.

Western Electrics Enter Two More

The Western Electrics followed up the advantage they gained by having the first industrial runner to enter the Tenth annual TRIBUNE marathon by sending in two more entries this morning. They now hold a clear lead over all Eastbay Industrial plants for team honors, and have the best chance of having a runner from their plant carry away the honor of being the first industrial runner to finish.

But the individual trophy is by no means secure. Several runners have already availed themselves of the training privileges of the Oakland Y. M. C. A. who stated that they were representing one of the largest industrial plants of the Eastbay and that the only reason that they had not as yet sent in their entry blank was because the plant was organizing a team of a dozen men that were to be entered in a bunch. Look out, Western Electrics, some one is on your trail it would seem.

East Bay Enameling Co. Enters Field

The first other Eastbay industrial plant to challenge the right of way of the Western Electrics to honors was the East Bay Enameling Company. The entry of Tim Mahony of that company was received in the same mail that brought the names of Jack Marshall and Art Hansen of the Western Electric team. At last the Eastbay industries have found a field in which they can meet on an equal plane in distance running with an excellent chance of being well up in the list of winners at the finish.

Harold Eskimo, an unattached runner, filed his blank late yesterday to further complicate the unattached problem. With several well known runners, including Wayne Fox and Louis Sorenson, Jr., in the race the unattached list is to be carefully watched at the finish.

Vocational High Is Represented

Evidently Vocational High school has merely been waiting to see what the other schools would do in the matter of entries for the first from the Twelfth Street school came this morning. James Bland is the first Vocational runner to enter but there will be several more in the field shortly to rival Oakland, Alameda, Tech, Berkeley, Fremont, University and Golden Gate Junior highs for the high school medals and team prize for having the largest number of starters in the big race on the morning of Admission day.

It will not be long before high schools from outside of Alameda county will be sending in entries. In past years runners from San Jose, Vallejo, Pittsburg, Tracy and nearby towns have always come in during the last ten days. Therefore the next few days should bring the first of these entries for the big race.

GOLF FACTS worth knowing

by INNIS BROWN

Q. Suppose in a single match with both balls on the putting green a player's ball has the opponent stymied, but the opponent's ball lies in casual water and he is entitled to lift. Must the stymie be retained when he places his ball elsewhere?

A. No. The stymie can not recur. Even if the player's ball can also be lifted and placed because of the casual water, he is not entitled to lift and place his ball until it comes his turn to play, which is after his opponent has played.

Q. In a single match with both balls on the putting green and A's caddie holding the flag, B putts and the ball stops a foot short of the hole. A tells the caddie to take it up, meaning the flagstick, but the caddie misunderstands him and picks up B's ball. What is the penalty?

A. A loses the hole, because his caddie moved B's ball.

Q. A player's ball lands in high grass necessitating a search. After a minute or so, the opponent's caddie finds what he thinks to be the ball. The player plays the ball, but after both reach the putting green, he discovers that he has played a ball that belonged to some one else. Is he penalized, considering that his opponent's caddie found the ball?

A. He loses the hole. The rules give him the right to lift his ball for identification if necessary.

Q. What is the penalty in a medal play round for a player's caddie, seeing that the player's ball is about to roll out of bounds, deliberately stops it?

A. The penalty is one stroke only, though such action would of course be a gross violation of the spirit of the game.

Q. Is a marker for two competitors in a medal play round responsible for keeping correct track of the strokes played by each?

A. It is assumed that the marker will keep count, but the competitors are expected to call their scores for each hole as play is completed, and they are also responsible for seeing that the scores are properly marked before the cards are signed and tuned in.

If any golf rules puzzle you, write Innis Brown, care of our Sporting Editor, enclosing stamped, return envelope.

Alameda Legion Post to Stage Big Show

Alameda Post, No. 9, American Legion, will stage a boxing and vaudeville show at Surf Beach Friday night. Athletic Officer Claude P. Deal, who has given the boys some classy cards recently, has lined up another nifty set of battles and in addition will offer some real music and vaudeville. Following is the boxing card:

Red Ruther vs. Bill Ritchie.
Johnny Vierra vs. Eddie Perry.
Frank Herman vs. Harry Nelson.
Frank Perry vs. Frankie Micco.
Ted Lewis vs. Norman Galindo.
"Phat" Larue will referee.

Tabloid Sports

NEW YORK Aug. 24.—(United Press)—Football has so many appealing features that it is developing into America's biggest sport.

The gridiron has its unique features also and one of them was pointed out a few days ago by "Ernie" Quigley, National League umpire and one of the prominent gridiron referees.

"Less is known about football rules and the inside part of the game than any other big American sport. It is rather surprising to think sometimes that such immense crowds will turn out to see a game that the majority know so little about," Quigley said.

"Take baseball for instance. The base runner is being run down between two bases. He evades one of the basemen and gets safely to the bag, but is called out by the umpire. Practically every spectator knows that he was out for running out of the line.

"Boxing rules are known to the letter by the youngest fan. When one contestant in the ring is disqualified the majority are able to tell the reason without a moment's thought.

"On the football field, however, a forward pass can be thrown and the play apparently successfully executed. The whistle of the referee is blown, the ball is brought back and the team in possession is penalized a down. It is safe to say that not three per cent of the spectators are able to quote the rule that was violated.

"When the time comes that the football rules are familiar to the ordinary layman and when the fine points of the game are known, it will be impossible to accommodate the crowds."

* * *

Football in its fine points is more or less mysterious not because it is a highly complicated game, but because the rules are so hazily worded and so many changes are made from year to year that it almost takes a corporation lawyer to get clear on the rule book.

Quigley teams in his empire work with Charley Moran, the Center College coach, and they claim that they spend most of their summer evenings, many times until the wee hours of the morning, going over the changes in the rules and figuring out just what they mean.

When two football experts have to go to all that time and trouble to get straight on the legal end of the game, it is no puzzle why the ordinary fan who sees football once a week—from a great distance—is satisfied with a rudimentary knowledge of what is taking place on the field.

After all, however, the fan knows that the main idea is to get the ball over the goal line and that's where the interesting work comes.

The same holds good for polo, which has the most complicated rules of all sport. It's a safe bet that not two dozen spectators who see the big international matches next month will know what it is all about except that the main idea is to knock the ball between the goal posts.

It might be argued that that is sufficient.

* * *

Tennis, perhaps, is the simplest game of all for the spectators. The essential points of the game can be learned in five minutes and the rules are very easy to understand.

* * *

Boxing rules are so clear that no fan has trouble in finding out what the boys can't do. The main trouble is in learning what they want to do.

* * *

The one rule, most generally known by the professional athletes and never violated is—"Call at the office for your money."

* * *

Jim Coffroth, who has been confining his attention to his Tijuana racing interests, is ready to get back into the fight game and he has his eyes on Mexico City as a good field for the pugs.

He wants to bring Jack Dempsey and Benny Leonard down to the southern capital to show their wares.

Goodbye Boils!

S. S. S. Will Rid You of Boils, Pimples, Blackheads and Skin Eruptions.

A boil is a volcano,—your blood is so chuck full of poisons that these "boil" out into a boil. They'll keep "boiling up" until you destroy them completely by the use of S. S. S., one of the most powerful blood-cleansers known to science. S. S. S. has stood the test of time. The power of its ingredients is acknowledged by authorities. Its medicinal ingredients are guaranteed to be purely vegetable. Right off, it clears the skin of pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, acne, eczema, rash and other skin eruptions, and does it thoroughly. It drives out of the blood impurities which cause rheumatism, makes the blood rich and pure builds up lost flesh. It helps to manufacture new blood cells,—that's one of its secrets. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

MY FAVORITE STORIES by IRVIN S. COBB

To the Depths of Dogology!

It was away back in 1899 that State Senator William Goebel seized the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky and, so doing split the party in the state of Kentucky. The feuds born of that fight are still alive today after the lapse of more than twenty-two years. It was my fortune as a reporter from a Louisville paper to follow the story of the conflict—Goebel's nomination, the split in the organization, his defeat on the face of the returns at the general election, his contest before the legislature, his assassination, and finally the indictments, captures and trials of the men charged with conspiring to murder him.

What sticks most vividly in my memory, though, when now I hark back to those days, is a thing which happened in the campaign preceding the election. Theodore Hallam, perhaps the greatest orator, in a state of orators, and almost the quickest-thinking man on his feet, I believe, that ever lived anywhere, having bolted the nomination of Goebel took the stump against him. The seceding wing of the party picked on Hallam to open its fight, and chose the town of Bowling Green as a fitting place for the firing of the first gun, Bowling Green being a town where the rebellion inside the Democratic ranks was widespread and vehement. But Goebel had his adherents there in plenty, too.

You could fairly smell trouble cooking on that August afternoon of 1899 when Hallam stood up in the packed, jammed courthouse to begin his speech. Hardly had he started when a local leader, himself a most handy person in a rough-and-tumble argument, heaved his bulk upward and stood upon the seat of his chair, towering high above the heads of those about him. Pound for pound, he was twice the size of the stumpy shock-haired little Hallam, and he looked three times as formidable.

"I want to ask you a question!" he demanded in a roar like the roar of one of Bashan's bulls.

One-third of the crowd yelled: "Go ahead!" The other two-thirds yelled "Throw him out!" and a few enthusiastic spirits suggested the expediency of destroying the gentleman utterly.

"Let it be understood now and hereafter that this is to be no joint debate," he said in his rather high-pitched voice. "My friends have arranged for the use of this building this afternoon and I intend to be the only speaker. But it is a tenet of our political faith that in a Democratic gathering no man who calls himself a Democrat shall be denied the right to be heard. I gather that the gentleman desires to ask me a question. If the gentleman will be content to ask his question, whatever it is, and to abide by my answer to it, I am willing that he should speak, and I crave silence from all believers in the right of free speech while he is asking it."

"That suits me," proclaimed the interrupter. "My question is this: Didn't you say at the Louisville convention not four weeks ago that if the Democrats of Kentucky, in convention assembled, nominated a yaller dog for governor you would vote for him?"

"I did," said Hallam calmly.

"Well, then," whooped the heckler, eager now to press his seeming advantage, "in the face of that statement, why do you now repudiate the nominee of that convention and refuse to support him?"

"I admit," he stated, "that I said then what now I repeat, namely, that when the Democrats of Kentucky nominate a yaller dog for the governorship of this great state I mean to support him—but lower than that ye shall not drag me!"

Uncle Wiggily Stories — by HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S POTATO ROAST.

IT was the evening of the day on which Uncle Wiggily had jumped through the brush pile to get away from the Fuzzy Fox. The moon was shining down through the trees around the bunny gentleman's hollow stump bungalow. The wind was blowing through the trees. The wind was not trying to blow the trees away, nor blow away the moon. The wind was just breezing away to make it cool for the animal children.

"We must'nt forget the salt," said Johnnie Bushytail, the boy squirrel. "Baked potatoes aren't any good without salt."

"And butter!" mewed Kittie Kat. "I love butter on my baked potatoes."

"I have everything!" called Uncle Wiggily, who, having started the fire, began to count to see how many animal children there were.

The fire was crackling away on a large flat rock so nothing else would blaze up and it was far enough away from the trees so that it would not scorch them.

In a circle about the fire gathered the animal children. The flickering blaze was shining on their happy faces. On a plate Nurse Jane carried some golden yellow butter. On another plate was the salt. The potatoes nestled close to each other in a basket, and Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, with their sharp squirrel teeth, were gnawing pointed sticks of wood for the others to use as forks, on which to hold the hot potatoes after they were baked.

"Now we have a bed of embers and coals red hot, and just the proper place in which to roast the potatoes," said Uncle Wiggily as he poked in the fire with a long stick. Soon the potatoes were put to bed in the coals and they began to roast.

"When will they be baked?" asked Susie Littletail after a while.

"I think they are ready now," said Uncle Wiggily. With the long stick the bunny gentleman poked the roasted potatoes from the glowing embers.

"Black on the outside, but nice and mealy and white inside," laughed Uncle Wiggily. He waited until a potato was partly cool and then, placing it on a sharpened stick for a fork, he broke open the potato, put on some butter and salt and very politely handed it to Nurse Jane.

Then the animal children began eating Uncle Wiggily's roasted potatoes, putting on butter and salt as the bunny gentleman had done.

"They're lovely!" cried Baby Bunty.

"Oh, it is most delicious!" exclaimed the muskrat lady

"Oh, my goodness!" suddenly bleated Nannie Wagtail.

"What has happened now?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Do you see the Woozie Wolf?"

"No, but I dropped my lovely buttered and salted potato in the ashes!" sighed Nannie.

"Ha! Ha! That doesn't hurt!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "That always happens at potato roasts. It just makes them taste a bit different!" And so it did. The animal children ate many roasted potatoes, scooping the white insides from the outside blackened, hard skin.

All of a sudden, just as Uncle Wiggily was giving Nurse Jane another potato, there sounded a savage voice, saying:

"Why didn't you invite me to the party?"

"Who are you?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"The Woozie Wolf," was the answer, "and now I'm angry at you for not inviting me, and I'm going to nibble ears! NIBBLE EARS! NIBBLE EARS!" and the Wolf howled.

"Oh, dear!" cried Baby Bunty.

"Don't be afraid," whispered Uncle Wiggily. "I think I can play a trick on the Wolf and make him run away. Ahem!" coughed the bunny. "Before you do any ear nibbling, Mr. Wolf, wouldn't you like a nice roasted potato?"

"Yes, I would," answered the Wolf. "But no tricks, mind you! No giving me a hot one to burn me!"

"No, I won't do that!" promished the bunny. "See, the potato I am going to give you is quite cool," and the rabbit held it in his paws.

"That's all right," growled the Wolf. "I'll eat the potato and then I'll nibble ears!" Most impolitely he put the whole potato in his mouth at once, but no sooner had he given one chew than he cried: "Oh, wow! Oh, double wow! Oh! what a trick! Water! Water! Water!" and away he ran as fast as he could go.

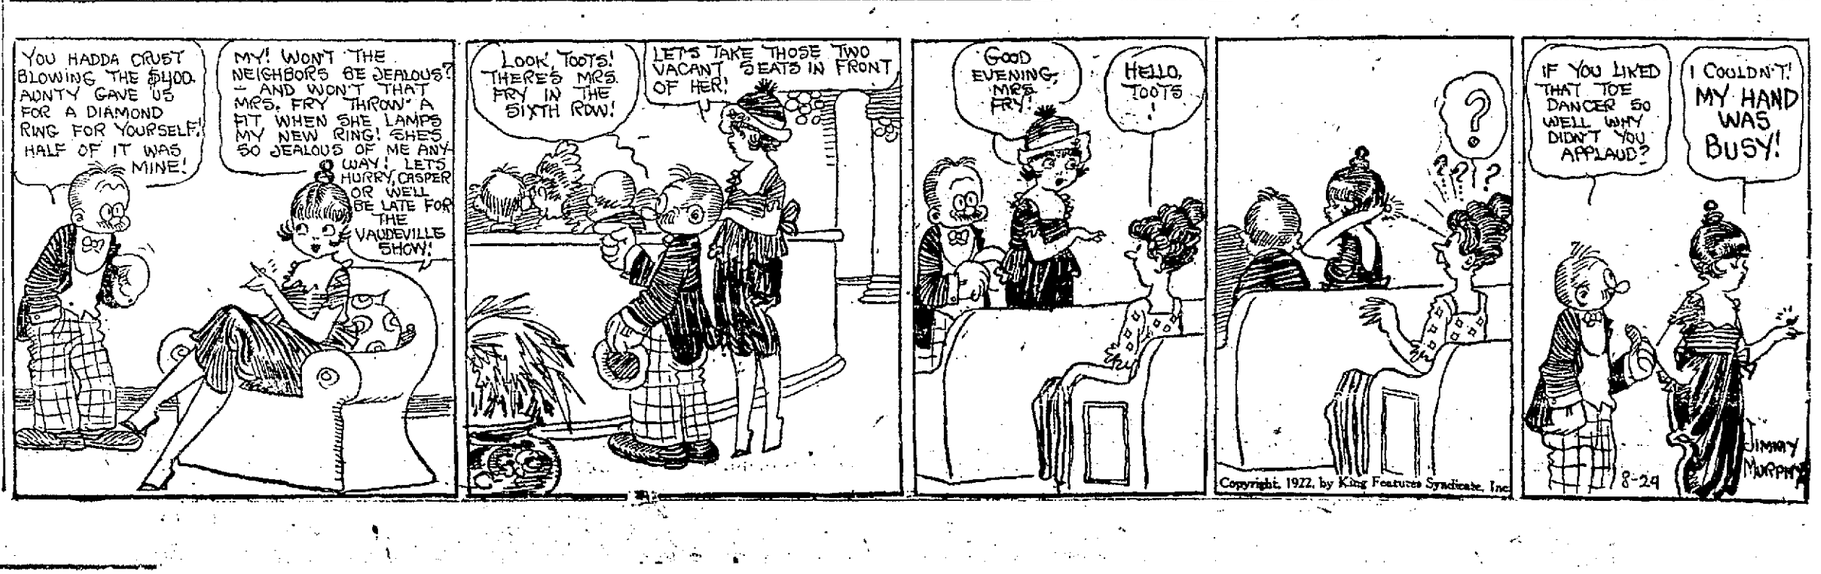

"What was in the potato, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Susie.

"Salt!" laughed the bunny. "I took a scooped-out potato and filled the skin up with salt, closing it together again. The Wolf got a mouthful of salt.

"No wonder he wanted water!" laughed Nurse Jane. Then the animal children had a lot more more fun, no ears were nibbled and the party ended happily.

Listen, World!

This is a true story. It isn't about your Ed Jones, but it may explain him, so read it.

TWO of my friends were criticizing Ed Jones and I'm going to tell you about it. One of my friends is a scientist and the other a musician. Each, according to his talent, serves Art and believes that such service should be held inviolate from commercial ends. Raoul, the musician, will not play jazz nor ally himself with an orchestra which does play jazz. He is often without a full meal or a clean suit, and his boys cannot go through high school. But he plays marvelously. Wilton, the scientist, will not take a position with a dyeing establishment nor experiment with baking powders. He has been engaged for nine years but still cannot afford to marry. His sister is supporting their mother. But they tell me his laboratory work is remarkable.

Ed Jones was a class mate of these two and, in his youth, the most talented of the three. He might have been a great artist. Instead . . . Ed has chosen to be a husband and a father. Rather, perhaps, the choice has been thrust upon him and he is seeing the matter through. He married something with blue eyes and a rosebud mouth who turned out to be a nag. There are men who can't conquer nags. There are also men who can't conquer wildcats. Oddly enough, we understand one situation but refuse to condone the other. Ed couldn't conquer his wildcat. Her tantrums turned her into a nervous invalid—a really sick woman. Somehow it didn't seem sporting for him to quit, so he stayed. There are three children — bright youngsters, eager to share in the milk and honey of the promised land. You can't purchase much milk and hohey on the average artist's income. Nor pay for expensive treatments at sanitariums So Ed turned away from Art and took up commercial advertising. He might have done very beautiful little pictures. Instead he is doing very striking big posters and making mounds of money which his family uses rather faster than he makes it. Then Ed makes more, and more.

Raoul and Wilton think that Ed has sold his soul to the devil. They bitterly resent his "prostitution of Art." They say that such as he "have driven us into the hell of materialism." . . .

Perhaps if they could see the hunger in Ed's eyes when he sometimes lifts his head above his drawing board, they would not be cocksure that they are the saviors of humanity and he its enemy. After all, is it beautiful or damnable to insist on expressing your ideals when others are dependent on you?

(Copyright, 1922.)

"Jerry, I think when a girl gets over 18 that innocence or pretence of innocence is silly. If this girl was as old, or older than that, she ought to be able to read anything."

All of which refers to Constance of Mills College.

I couldn't agree with anything any more than I agree with that statement. This round-eyed, mamby-pamby innocent line always did start me going south. Why pretend? Isn't it more beautiful to say "I know" and "I am able to understand" than "Oh, what does that mean?"

This is no attack on purity and decency, but its just a little of what I think about PRETENCE.

But let me give you the following letter. I loved it.

Dearest Jerry:

I came near starting my letter with "Honey dear," but was afraid you'd think it a love letter and probably not bother to read it.

Ever since reading that ill-tempered outburst by that Mills College child, I've wanted to march into the Tribune building and shout, "Which of you is Geraldine?" and when a merry-eyed, serious-mouthed girl would stand up and say "present," I'd walk right up to you and kiss you smack on the lips and say "Never mind Jerry, don't feel bad. She's just a spoilt child that should have been spanked oftener when small. And you'd say, "Oh, but I don't believe in whipping children!!!"

And I'd say, "Oh, I know, but in this case ——"

And you'd say, "No, not in any case."

And I'd say, "not even a little spanking?"

And you'd say, "No—uh—no."

You—"Well ——"

I—"On a soft spot."

You—"Possibly—with the hand—but no stick or switch. I remember too well myself how they burn long after the punishment is over. But the hand if it is a nice, soft, fat hand."

I—"Hurray! I win. That girl's training could have been improved upon. She should have been spanked, spanked, spanked, whenever she was impudent as in this case."

What got me excited, Jerry, was accusing you of writing this column yourself. If so, then you're a fake and if you're a fake, why does Miss What's Her Name bother to answer you? I wish she'd tell me her motive, her broad-minded motive in doing what she did, making it sound as though she were backed up by several others.

Another question I'd like to ask is, "How does such a sweet, uncontaminated mortal happen to read such a book as the one mentioned (I've forgotten the name), and if she hasn't read it how can she judge whether or not the other girl should be insulted by her friend giving it to her to read?

Jerry, I think when a girl gets above 18, that innocence or pretence at innocence is silly. If this girl was as old or older than that she ought to be able to read anything. If she was hurt by it, it was her own fault, her own narrowmindedness and not the man's. There was no reason for him to think that she would be less good after reading it than she was before. Reading of evil ought to bring no temptation to do evil. Reading anything adds to our brain power.

If you should print this, Jerry, I suppose the Mills College girl or girls will think you wrote it yourself. Won't you tell us what you look like sometime, Jerry?

Good luck to you,

OVER EIGHTEEN.

No, I couldn't have spanked her. Simply showing her what folks who LIVE think of her narrowness is enough.

What do I look like? Does it matter? Think of me as a girl who has a tear, a smile, and so much love for mankind, that RIGHT and WRONG get tangled, and whose sympathies sometimes lead her into strange paths where the sinner appears beautiful and the obviously good folks sometimes seem cruel. Just an everyday sort of person with no "Sunday best."

Some time ago an ardent advocate of whipping declared that "soft treatment" made criminals, and that our prisons were filled with awful object lessons of the results of coddling Being rather horribly acquainted with the history of many criminals, I contradicted that statement and here is a confirmation of my statement.

To Geraldine:

May I call again, with my little say. I read so much in your page that sure makes my blood boil, and I some times wonder if you do not feel like giving some of the writers a good old Irish tongue lashing, and then others make me think that you must wish for some ones shoulder to cry upon yourself.

Any way how do you hold your temper and answer some of them?

Vesta V. I think should have gone to war and as it is I don't think her worthy the respect of a good true man, and the Mills College girl belongs with her.

The mother who whipped the Boy Scout is not worthy to be the mother of a Boy Scout.

As for the Livermore school teacher, I am glad he is not principal over my little kiddies.

There are many ways to correct (not punish) children when they are trying to learn the ins and outs of life without whipping.

Suppose daddy and mother whipped each other for their faults, instead of talking it over. I think child beating should be punished by severe methods by courts.

Now I am going to tell you something if you will excuse poor writing and mixed paper. I have been up every night for two weeks with a sick baby, so am tired, and then am out of paper.

Several years ago I was on the staff of an eastern newspaper, and some of us girls went through one of the big eastern prisons. We asked the prisoners to what they laid their real cause of imprisonment to and the most of the answers were Being whipped when children and by being forced to do things distasteful to them when they were tiny, AND NOT ONE MAN IN THAT BIG STONE PRISON HAD NOE BEEN WHIPPED AT HOME.

When ever I see a child whipped, there comes to my mind that prison scene of those big strong men, who would have been useful citizens if it had not been for the treatment they received at home.

Jerry, dear, I am going to tell you something funny and then quit, and some time I am going to make a big box of home-made goodies and send to you

The other night my boys were pulling straws and we asked them what for, they said, to see who gets Geraldine's page first.

The big one got it, and the little one said, "I don't care I bet she's red headed."

Then the big one says, "I don't care if her hair is red, or green, she is the kids' friend and I love her just the same."

Here's love to you Jerry,

From, A. D. A.

No, Pal, their uproars neither rile me nor make me weep. But I did cry, big wet, salt splashes of pure joy when I read what "the big one" said about Jerry. I'd rather be known as "the kid's friend" than Lloy George, Harding, Gompers or Mrs. Carrie Catt. I've my very grave doubts whether I'll rate high on the judgment day but I don't care now. The kids have given me their O. K.—and I'd rather have that than a harp any day. A. d you can tell the little one for me that my hair isn't red (tho it's almost) but he'll have to go some if he beats me at baseball.

CHAPTER 63

Murder as a Business

IT seems almost incredible that any man could make a business of killing human beings. Yet the police records of New York, Chicago and other large cities bear out the fact that there are professional assassins who will commit a murder at regular rates, running from $5 to $5000, and up.

Underworld politicians who wish to rid themselves of an obnoxious opponent can call in men at any moment who will slay the said person for a few dollars.

Many Chinese tongmen are expert killers who make a vocation of shooting down anyone of the opposite tong for a price. If a rich Chinese merchant of the Hip Sing tong wishes an enemy killed, he summons the official thug, gives him some coin, and the work is done neatly and expeditiously. In certain parts of the country lawless corporations employ "killers" to terrorize strikers and to mingle among them, starting riots to discredit the union organizations. The unions in turn have their own paid "strong arm" organizers.

Every tough dance hall and saloon had a "killer" attached to its staff in the old days. These men were cold-blooded butchers. Not only did they shoot down drunken and helpless patrons under pretense of a fair fight, but they drugged those who had money with knockout drops and sometimes killed them in robbing them of money, clothing and valuables. The ostensible purpose of the "bouncer" was to keep order, but in reality he was an assassin of the lowest order; and is today.

Besides the lone assassin, there are less courageous murderers who work in gangs. Whether it is for lust, love, revenge or money, the gangster murders operate effectively against a lone victim, putting him out of the way with little difficulty. Lynchers are of this type. Their activities were at first confined largely to the southern states, where many innocent negroes were burned and hanged without trial or defense, but now "lynch law," as it is called, has become more or less prevalent in northern states also. The lyncher is the most cowardly of all murderers because, lacking the courage of his convictions, he hides behind a mask and quells his fear by surrounding himself with numbers.

The "Good Killers" who operated in New York and the Cardinella-Campioni gang in Chicago are examples of murder cliques. According to the confessions of members of the organization, the "Good Killers" forced ignorant and illiterate immigrants to commit murders for which they were paid large sums of money. If a "lover" wanted to dispose of a husband, if a political leader wished to free himself from dangerous competition, if a Sicilian desired the blood of an ancient enemy—these "Good Killers" always were ready to do the work for a commission. Nor did the New York gang confine their operations to that city, but would go to Detroit or Philadelphia or Pittsburg if there was enough money in it.

The gang made illiterate immigrants members of their order. Then they would select one of them to do the slaying. If he refused, they shot him down. If he succeeded they killed him anyhow to make sure he would not tell.

Out of the blood money which they received, the gang laid aside $200,000 to be used as a defense fund in case its members were caught.

The Cardinella-Campioni gang employed killers to blackmail people and then murder them. Their hired assassins would torture a man or woman by sticking stilletos into the body and twisting them around, and then after they had extracted enough money from them, would cut their victims to shreds.

These are only examples of assassination combines that make a business of murder. When civilization has advanced far enough, war will be recognized as wholesale murder.

The Meaning of Success

What is the meaning—
Of success?—
I heard a youth inquire one day—
A youth—full-browed—
Clear-eyed—and proud—
Go out and ask the world—I said—
And he went forth—
And on his way he met a man—
Who laughed aloud—
Then gave his plan—
"Success—my boy—means that you may—
Enjoy yourself—each hour—each day—
Unto the end—
Go forth where youthful raillery—
Enjoys full sway—
And live and laugh and love—
Each brimming day—
It is all folly—lad—to seek—
Life's meaning ways—
Just keep upon the paths where pleasure lies—
Forget the cant that lures you—
To mansions in the skies—
Life is a dull monotony"—he said—
"Enjoy yourself."
So care-free youth then went his way—
And met a miser—
And asked of him the meaning of success.
The miser looked with eyes all cold—
And croaked—
"It is a race for gold—
For gold alone your mind should strive—
'Twill bring you power—
Where'er you are—where'er you be—
It brings you life's one ecstacy—
And brightens up each solemn hour—
For gold means power—
And men will creep and crawl—
When gold has spoken"—
And met a wise man—
And asked of him the meaning of success.
The wise man spoke in soothing tones—
"What is it you were taught to pray—
On bended knees at close of day—
At foot of mother?—
She taught you all your life to live—
By Golden Rule—
That he who lives in selfishness—
Is but a fool—
So if your heart rings true, my lad—
You'll brace the weary—cheer the sad—
And lend a helping hand—
To those world-crushed and hopeless—
And dying have your name resound—
To future generations—
Mark well—my lad—I know—I know—
For that's the meaning of success."

My Marriage Problems

Cliddie Garrison's New Phase Of

Revelations of a Wife

The Service Col. Travers Asked of Madge.

Col. Travers sprang to the ground before I stopped the car, and at Bess Dean's excited words turned on her swiftly.

He gave the call for the troopers even as he questioned her, and the men came running toward him.

"Yes," she responded "Mr. Graham knocked him down because of a name Smith called me," she achieved a becoming blush. "He wanted Smith to stand u, and fight, but like most bullies, Smith ran away and—"

"Which direction?" he interrupted her curtly, and she had the quickness to see that she was annoying him by her loquacity.

"Into the woods—there!" She lifted her hand, pointed to the forest back of the inn, and waited for the officer's next question.

But he evidently was through with her. His next words were commands like bullets

"Raynor, take two men with you you can trust, and track Smith down. I'll get more help here as soon as I can get in touch with Kingston. Arm your helpers, and get him dead or alive, preferably living, however, Jones."

"Yes, sir." A tall, picturesque youth saluted as the trooper addressed as Raynor singled out two men from the excited loungers about the inn and disappeared in the forest back of the house. From the looks on the faces of the men selected I guessed that they would have an especial zest in hunting down the man named Smith. His would be the fate of most tyrants dreaded and fawned upon for their power.

"TAKE ME TO HER."

Jones rushed into the house while his superior officer went from man to man of the group before the inn, questioning each closely. But at Jones' return, alone, his face darkened.

"Kronish is nowhere to be found, sir," the young trooper reported. "I've been in every possible place in the house. He's gone."

"Where's his wife?"

"Take me to her."

He walked perhaps three steps in the wake of young Jones, then turned abruptly to the car in which I still sat, bewildered, stunned by the news which Bess Dean had given me concerning Dicky.

Dicky had been so occupied with Bess Dean's smiles and chatter that he had not observed the insolent treatment which the man Smith had accorded me, but at some real or fancied insult to her he had made a scene and had followed a furious, perhaps desperate man to —what?

My heart quaked with the possibilities that might lie out there in the forest where my husband had gone.

"Mrs. Graham! Please!"

I came to myself with a start, and realized that Col. Travers must have called me more than once.

"Yes," I returned. "You must pardon me. I—"

"Will you come with me, please, at once?" he said, holding out his hand to help me from the car.

MADGE SUMMONS COURAGE.

I accepted his aid mechanically and wondered vaguely as I walked beside him where he was taking me, what he wanted me to do. We were inside the inn, through the big deserted front room and into a smaller room beyond before he spoke.

"No man can handle an excited, hysterical, old woman," he said. "I want you to find out from Mrs. Kronish when she last saw her husband. Use any means you wish. I will be right here if you need me. She is in there, Jones says." He pointed to a closed door at our right.

With a mighty effort I pulled myself together as I walked toward the closed door, trying to put all thought of Dicky out of my mind. For the time I was a soldier under Col. Travers' orders, and—I hugged the thought—with the chance to atone for my idiocy, at least in part.

Through the door came the sound of laughter and sobbing, and I recognized the unmistakable hysteria Without ceremony I pushed the door open. I found myself in a spotless kitchen with a table in the middle of it, seated there was the swaying figure of a woman with an apron thrown over her face. Two other women were trying half-heartedly to pull the apron away, and I touched each on the shoulder and signalled them authoritatively to leave the room.

They obeyed instantly—I guessed that they knew I was representing the officer. When I was left alone with Mrs. Kronish I stooped and took the twisting hands of the old woman in my own, held them so firmly that she could not squirm away, and shook the apron from her face.

Some Greek Inventions

CHAPTER 134.

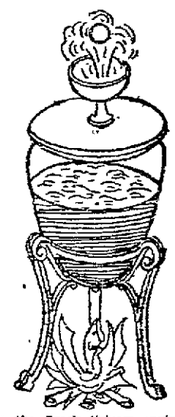

THE MINDS of the Greeks were some of the keenest which have ever existed on earth. For several hundred years there was a golden age of Thought

Often when I think of the great men of olden Greece, I wish they had shorter names Most of them had very hard names—Aristophanes, Demosthenes, and so on. If they were shorter I'd feel much freer about mentioning them

However, there was one long-named man I want to speak about today. He was called Archimedes and was one of the most noted scientists of olden times. He found a way to figure out the area of a circle. He invented a pumping machine, and an engine to hurl missiles in war.

Other inventors were at work in Greece. They devised windmills and water-power mills. Perhaps most surprising of all, they invented a fire engine which threw jets of water by air pressure.

The power of steam was known to the Greeks. They had a machine like the one pictured. It was a "steam engine," but the Greeks did not use it to drive machinery. Instead, they played with it as a mere toy. In the picture, a ball is balanced in the air by the pressure of steam from below.

If the Greeks had not treated their machines as toys, their inventions might have made human life very different. As it was, they used their talents to create AMUSING things. Greece had small factories, but they contained no huge smokestacks such as we see today. Things were made by hand, not by machine.

Winifred Black writes about FOLKS and THINGS

SPITE FENCES.

The woman down the street is building a spite fence.

She's had a quarrel with her neighbor and the neighbor got the better of the argument, so the woman is building a high fence to spoil the view from the brand-new dining-room of her neighbor.

And she's going to paint it a hideous staring blue—that's because the neighbor's dining-room is done in soft green and the fence will take all the color out of the green and make it look faded and characterless.

And she's awfully pleased about it—the woman down the street. She laughs every time she thinks of it—such a mean, spiteful, triumphant little laugh—I hate to hear it!

Poor thing, what a lot of miserable hours she is building for herself—the woman down the street. The spite fence won't hurt a thing of the neighbor's except the view.

But it will build a fence of hatred and envy and spite between the woman down the street and everything that is beautiful and serene and joyous in life.

FENCES IN THE MIND.

She's building a spite fence in her own mind—poor thing! And when she gets ready to tear it down, she'll find that she will have to tear a part of her own heart out with it.

I know a woman who has a spite fence built in her heart against every other woman who is young and pretty, or attractive in any way.

If you're old or ugly or unattractive, if you're cross-eyed or stoop-shouldered or freckle-faced, this particular woman will be perfectly charming to you. There is nothing she can do that will be too much trouble. She will give you presents and call you pet names and invite you to luncheon, dinner and tea—but, get your eyes straightened, clear your skin, fall heir to some money and some becoming new gowns—farewell, my fancy!

The woman with the spite fence will begin to hate you.

And she's young and pretty and attractive herself, too—you'd think that would be enough for her! But, no, she simply cannot live in peace and hear another woman called "pretty." Her friends all know it and they tease her, day in and day out by praising this woman or admiring that girl, just to see the poor thing turn absolutely green with envy.

I know a man who cannot endure to see another man succeed where he has failed. Instead of borrowing a little pleasure from the other man's success, he sits down and glo- - every time he hears of a good piece of work the other man has done.

Poor fellow, what a fool he is to shut out the sun and the air and the beauty of life with a silly spite fence of his own making!

THE OTHER WOMAN'S WAY.

Envy, malice, jealousy, spite—what a hateful quartet of malignant evils! If I found one of them growing up to have influence in my life, I would tear it up by the roots, if I had to tear my very soul into shreds to do it.

Look, the woman on the other side of the spite fence is planting a lovely climbing rose on her side.

In a few months it will be a mass of gorgeous flowers. By next summer the blue wall will not be blue to her at all, it will be simply a background for something fresh and joyous and beautiful.

I must try to meet that woman and know her, she must be very, very wise.

Household HINTS—

Butter Salad.

Take a quarter-pound of unsalted butter and add to it a grated onion, a grated cucumber, a teaspoonful of chopped chives and the same amount of chopped red pepper a tablespoonful of very finely-chopped raisins, salt, pepper and a dessertspoonful of sugar. Work the mixture to a paste, adding a teaspoonful of lemon juice. Cut the stem end from a large red or green pepper and remove the seeds, then fill the pepper with the butter mixture and set to chill. When ready to serve slice the pepper with a sharp knife, lay one or two slices of lettuce leaves and sprinkle each with a teaspoonful of French dressing. This is a rich salad, and toasted crackers are usually offered with it.

Garden Salad.

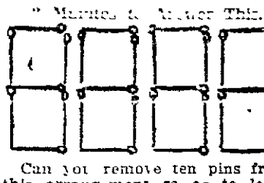

Slice two fresh young cucumbers or scallions, and a half-dozen red radishes thin, and add a tablespoonful of chopped chives. Wipe the inside of the salad-bowl with a cut bud of garlic, and line it with fresh lettuce leaves. Make a dressing of the beaten yolk of one egg mixed with a quarter-cupful of heavy cream, a half-teaspoonful of salt and a half-saltspoonful of pepper. Mix well, then add a tablespoonful of tarragon vinegar, or lemon juice, stirred in slowly. Dust the salad with a little powdered sugar, then toss it in the dressing and serve at once.

Salade Au Fromage.

Wash, dry and put on the ice a large head of fresh lettuce. When ready, dip the leaves, one at a time, in French dressing, and arrange in the salad-bowl. Put a small cream cheese through the ricer, then over the lettuce leaves, sprinkle with a little of the dressing, garnish with fresh radishes cut like roses, and serve at once.

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S.

In the race between the hare and the tortoise, the length of the track is immaterial. The tortoise had a handicap of one-eighth of the distance, so it is clear that he had run 4.25 times as fast as the hare up to the time of their meeting, when the hare had gone but one-sixth of his distance. As the hare has five-sixths of his distance yet to run, we multiply 4.25 by 5 to learn that he must go 21.25 times as fast as he went the first sixth in order to tie the tortoise at the finish. But the question was, "how much faster must he go," and as 20.25 faster is equivalent to 21.25 as fast, we will say that the answer is that the hare must go 20.25 plus faster to win. It being clear that 20.25 would only tie the race, he must go a little bit faster to win.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

Notice is hereby given to the electors of the State of California that the following Bond Act will be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden on the seventh day of November, A. D., 1922.

FRANK C. JORDAN,

CHAPTER 578, STATUTES OF 1921.

An act to authorize the creation of a debt or debts, liability or liabilities, through the issuance and sale of state bonds, for the single object of creating a fund to carry on the operations of the veterans' welfare board in accordance with the provisions of the California veterans' welfare act enacted at the forty-fourth session of the legislature of the State of California, and also in accordance with the provisions of the veterans' farm and home purchase act enacted at the forty-fourth session of the legislature of the State of California, or either of them enacted at the forty-fourth session of the legislature of the State of California, and of any and all acts amendatory or supplemental to said acts, or either of them; to provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such interest falls due, and also for the payment and discharge of the principal of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such principal matures; to create a veterans' welfare finance committee the members of which are to serve without compensation; to define the powers and duties of said veterans' welfare finance committee and of other state officers in relation to this act; to appropriate money for the expense of preparing [illegible] bonds herein authorized to be issued; and to provide for the submission of this act to a vote of the people at the general election to be held in the month of November, 1922.

[Approved May 20, 1921.]

Section 1. For the purpose of creating a fund to carry on the operations of the veterans' welfare board in accordance with the provisions of the California veterans' welfare act enacted at the forty-fourth session of the legislature of the State of California, and also in accordance with the provisions of the veterans' farm and home purchase act enacted at the forty-fourth session of the legislature of the State of California, or either of them enacted at the forty-fourth session of the legislature of the State of California, and of any and all acts amendatory or supplemental to said acts, or either of them, the veterans' welfare finance committee created by this act shall be and it hereby is authorized and empowered to create a debt or debts, liability or liabilities, of the State of California, in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided, but not otherwise, nor in excess thereof.

Sec. 2. After the issuance of the proclamation of the governor provided for in section sixteen of this act, and immediately after adoption of any resolution by the veterans' welfare committee hereby created, provided for in section eleven of this act, the state treasurer shall prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds of the denomination of one thousand dollars in accordance with the specifications contained in such resolution. The aggregate par value of all bonds issued under this act shall not exceed the sum of ten million dollars, and the bonds issued under any such resolution shall bear interest from the date of issuance of said bonds to the date of maturity thereof, at a rate to be determined by the said veterans' welfare finance committee and specified in such resolution, but in no case exceeding six per cent per annum. Both principal and interest shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, of the present standard of value, at the office of the state treasurer, or at the office of any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer, and shall be so payable at the times specified in said resolution or resolutions.

All bonds issued under this act shall bear the signature of the governor and the facsimile countersignature of the controller and shall be endorsed by the state treasurer either by original signature or by signature stamp adopted for each particular bond issue under this act, and the said bonds shall be signed, countersigned and endorsed by the officers who shall be in office on the date of issuance thereof, and each of said bonds shall bear an impress of the great seal of the State of California. The said bonds so signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed, when sold, shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, although the sale thereof be made at a date or dates upon which the officers having signed, countersigned and endorsed said bonds or any or either of said officers, shall have ceased to be the incumbents of the offices held by them at the time of signing, countersigning, or endorsing said bonds. Each bond issued under this act shall contain a clause or clauses stating that interest shall cease to accrue thereon from and after the date of maturity thereof, and referring to this act and to the resolution of the veterans' welfare finance committee hereunder by virtue of which said bond is issued.

Sec. 3. The requisite number of suitable interest coupons, appropriately numbered, shall be attached to each bond issued under this act. Said interest coupons shall bear the facsimile signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the date of issuance of the bond to which said coupons pertain.

Sec. 4. All bonds issued under this act and sold shall be deemed to have been called in at their respective dates of maturity and the state treasurer shall, on the respective dates of maturity of said bonds, or as soon thereafter as said matured bonds are surrendered to him, pay the same out of the proceeds of the controller's warrants drawn in his favor as provided in section five hereof and perforate the bonds so paid with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such payment and the date thereof. He shall also, on the said respective dates of maturity, cancel all bonds bearing said dates of maturity and remaining unsold, by perforation with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such cancellation and the date thereof. The provisions of this section shall be applicable also to the interest coupons pertaining to the bonds authorized by this act to be issued, and shall be applicable, as far as practicable, to any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer.

Sec. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury such sum annually as will be necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act, as said principal and interest becomes due and payable.

There shall be collected annually in the same manner and at the same time as other state revenue is collected such a sum, in addition to the ordinary revenues of the state, as shall be required to pay the principal and interest on said bonds as herein provided, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers charged by law with any duty in regard to the collections of said revenue, to do and perform each and every act which shall be necessary to collect such additional sum.

On the several dates of maturity of said principal and interest in each fiscal year, there shall be returned into the general fund in the state treasury, all of the moneys in the specific fund into which the proceeds from the sale of the said bonds have been covered as herein prescribed, not in excess of the principal of and interest on the said bonds then due and payable and, in the event of such moneys so returned on said dates of maturity being less than the said principal and interest then due and payable, then the balance remaining unpaid shall be returned into the general fund in the state treasury out of said specific fund as soon thereafter as it shall become available, together with interest thereon, from such dates of maturity until so returned, at the rate of five per cent per annum, compounded semiannually.

Both principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid when due upon warrants duly drawn against said appropriation from the general fund by the controller of the state in favor of the state treasurer upon or in favor of any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer, upon demands audited by the state board of control, and the moneys to be returned into the general fund in the state treasury pursuant to the provisions of this section shall likewise be paid as herein provided, upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands duly audited by the state board of control.

Sec. 6. The sum of fifteen thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared and in advertising their sale. Said amount shall be refunded to the general fund in the state treasury out of the specific funds into which the proceeds from the sale of said bonds shall be respectively covered in accordance with the provisions of this act on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 7. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be by the state treasurer sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in such parcels and numbers as the said treasurer shall be directed by the governor of the state, under seal thereof, after a resolution requesting such sale shall have been adopted by the veterans' welfare board and approved by the governor of the state; but said treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date; and with the approval of the governor, he may from time to time, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select. Before offering any of said bonds for sale the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured or will mature before the day fixed for such sale.

Sec. 8. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds must be given by said treasurer by publication in one newspaper published in the city and county of San Francisco and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expense and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds and such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the veterans' welfare fund for land settlement, or into the veterans' farm and home building fund, as the case may be, in accordance with the resolution of the veterans' welfare finance committee, provided for in section eleven of this act, by virtue of which resolution the said bonds shall have been issued, and must be used exclusively to provide useful employment and the opportunity to acquire farm homes with profitable livelihood on the land for veterans and to provide for cooperation of the state with the agencies of the United States engaged in work of similar character, and to furnish to veterans the opportunity to purchase farms, homes and home sites, in accordance with the provisions of the California veterans' welfare act and of the veterans' farm and home purchase act, or either of them, and of any and all acts amendatory or supplemental to said acts, or either of them; provided, that the said veterans' welfare board must pay over to the general fund of the state from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds all money which has been heretofore or may be hereafter appropriated and advanced out of the general fund in the state treasury for the use of the said veterans' welfare board on condition that it shall be so paid over; provided, further, that the said veterans' welfare board may, out of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, pay all or any part of any indebtedness heretofore by it incurred in accordance with law and remaining unpaid, including the interest accrued thereon, unless the rate of interest applying to such indebtedness is less than the rate of interest applying to the said bonds; and provided, further, that the proceeds from the sale of said bonds may be used to pay the debt created by the issuance and sale thereof.

Sec. 9. The veterans' welfare board shall be and hereby is authorized, with the approval of the state board of control, to invest any surplus moneys in any of the funds subject to or appropriated for its use in bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State of California, and to sell such bonds, or any of them, at the governing market rates, upon approval of the state board of control.

Sec. 10.—There is hereby created a veterans' welfare finance committee composed of the governor, state controller, state treasurer, chairman of the state board of control, and chairman of the veterans' welfare board, all of whom shall serve thereon without compensation and a majority of whom shall be empowered to act for said committee. The attorney general of the state shall be the legal advisor of the veterans' welfare finance committee.

Upon request of the veterans' welfare board, supported by a statement of the plans and projects of the veterans' welfare board with respect thereto, which statement shall designate the specific fund to which such plans and projects relate, the veterans' welfare finance committee shall determine whether or not a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution.

Sec. 11. Wherever the said veterans' welfare finance committee shall have determined that a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution, it shall adopt a resolution to this effect. The said resolution shall authorize and direct the state treasurer to prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds and shall specify:

1. The aggregate number, aggregate par value and the date of issuance of the bonds to be issued.
2. The date or dates of maturity of the bonds to be issued and the number and numerical sequence of the bonds maturing at each date of maturity.
3. The annual rate of interest which the bonds to be issued shall bear.
4. The number, numerical sequence, amount or amounts, and the dates of maturity of the interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds.
5. The specific fund into which the proceeds from the sale of the bonds to be issued shall be placed and from which disbursements thereof shall be made in accordance with this act.
6. The technical form and language of the bonds to be issued and of the interest coupons to be attached thereto.

In determining the date or dates of maturity of the said bonds and the amount of bonds maturing at each date of maturity, the veterans' welfare finance committee shall be guided by the amounts and dates of maturity of the revenues estimated to accrue to the veterans' welfare board from the project or projects to be financed by each issue, and shall fix and determine said dates and amounts in such manner that, together with the dates and amounts of interest payments on the said bond issue, they shall coincide, as nearly as practicable, and be commensurate, as nearly as practicable, with the dates and amounts of such estimated revenues; provided, that the bonds first to mature in each issue, shall mature not later than five years from the date of issuance thereof; provided, further, that specified numbers of bonds of specified numerical sequence shall thereafter mature at annual intervals; and provided, further, that the bonds last to mature in each issue shall mature not later than forty-five years from the date of issuance thereof.

The rate of interest to be borne by the said bonds shall be uniform for all the bonds of the same issue and shall be determined and fixed by the veterans' welfare finance committee according to the then prevailing market conditions, but shall in no case exceed six per cent per annum, and the determination of said committee as to the rate of interest shall be conclusive as to the then prevailing market conditions. The interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds shall be payable at semi-annual intervals from the date of issuance of said bonds; provided, that the interest coupon first payable may, if the veterans' welfare finance committee shall so determine and specify, be payable one year after the date of issuance of said bonds.

Sec. 12. All actual and necessary expenses of the veterans' welfare finance committee and of the members thereof shall be paid out of the fund into which the proceeds from the sale of said bonds shall be covered, upon approval of the state board of control and on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose, and shall constitute expenses of the veterans' welfare board.

Sec. 13. The state controller, the state treasurer, and the veterans' welfare finance committee shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

Sec. 14. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the fifteenth day of November, 1922, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing, and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 15. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be held in the month of November, 1922, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon and in a square thereof, the words: "For the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921," and in the same square under said words the following in brevier type: "This act provides for a bond issue of ten million dollars to be used by the veterans' welfare board in assisting California war veterans to acquire farms or homes." In the square immediately below the square containing such words, there shall be printed on said ballot the words: "Against the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921," and in the same square immediately below said words "Against the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921" in brevier type shall be printed "This act provides for a bond issue of ten million dollars to be used by the veterans' welfare board in assisting California war veterans to acquire farms or homes." Opposite the words "For the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921" and "Against the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921," there shall be left spaces in which the voters may place a cross in the manner required by law to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921" and those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

Sec. 16. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided, and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

Sec. 17. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state in accordance with law to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922; the costs of publication shall be paid out of the general fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose and shall be refunded to the general fund out of the veterans' welfare fund for land settlement and the veterans' farm and home building fund jointly, each of said funds bearing one-half of said costs. Said refund shall be made upon controller's warrants duly drawn against said funds for said purpose upon demands audited by the state board of control.

Sec. 18. This act may be known and cited as the "veterans' welfare bond act of 1921."

Sec. 19. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

Notice is hereby given to the electors of the State of California that the following Bond Act will be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden on the seventh day of November, A. D., 1922.

FRANK C. JORDAN,

CHAPTER 733, STATUTES OF 1921.

An act to authorize the creation of a debt or debts, liability or liabilities, through the issuance and sale of state bonds, for the single object of creating a fund to carry out the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto; to provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such interest falls due, and also for the payment and discharge of the principal of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such principal matures; to create a state land settlement finance committee, the members of which are to serve without compensation; to define the powers and duties of said state land settlement finance committee and of other state officers in relation to this act; to appropriate money for the expense of preparing and of advertising the sale of the bonds herein authorized to be issued; and to provide for the submission of this act to a vote of the people at the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922.

[Approved June 3, 1921.]

Section 1. For the purpose of creating a fund to carry out the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, the object of which acts is to provide employment and rural homes for soldiers, sailors, marines and others who have served with the armed forces of the United States in the European war or other wars of the United States, including former American citizens who served in allied armies against the central powers and have been repatriated, and who have been honorably discharged, to promote closer agricultural settlement, to assist deserving and qualified persons to acquire small improved farms, to demonstrate the value of adequate capital and organized direction in subdividing and preparing agricultural land for settlement, and to provide homes for farm laborers, the state land settlement finance committee created by this act, to wit, in section ten hereof, shall be and it hereby is authorized and empowered to create a debt or debts, liability or liabilities, of the State of California, in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided, but not otherwise, nor in excess thereof.

Sec. 2. After the issuance of the proclamaion of the governor provided for in section sixteen of this act, and immediately after adoption of any resolution by the state land settlement committee hereby created, provided for in section eleven of this act, the state treasurer shall prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds of the denomination of one thousand dollars in accordance with the specifications contained in such resolution. The aggregate par value of all bonds issued under this act shall not exceed the sum of three million dollars, and the bonds issued under any such resolution shall bear interest from the date of issuance of said bonds to the date of maturity thereof, at a rate to be determined by the said state land settlement finance committee and specified in such resolution, but in no case exceeding six per cent per annum. Both principal and interest shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, of the present standard of value, at the office of the state treasurer, or at the office of any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer, and shall be so payable at the times specified in said resolution or resolutions.

All bonds issued under this act shall bear the signature of the governor and the facsimile countersignature of the controller and shall be endorsed by the state treasurer either by original signature or by signature stamp adopted for each particular bond issue under this act, and the said bonds shall be signed, countersigned and endorsed by the officers who shall be in office on the date of issuance thereof, and each of said bonds shall bear an impress of the great seal of the State of California. The said bonds so signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed, when sold, shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, although the sale thereof be made at a date or dates upon which the officers have signed, countersigned and endorsed said bonds, or any or either of said officers, shall have ceased to be the incumbents of the offices held by them at the time of signing, countersigning, or endorsing said bonds. Each bond issued under this act shall contain a clause or clauses stating that interest shall cease to accrue thereon from and after the date of maturity thereof, and referring to this act and to the resolution of the state land settlement finance board hereunder by virtue of which said bond is issued.

Sec. 3. The requisite number of suitable interest coupons, appropriately numbered, shall be attached to each bond issued under this act. Said interest coupons shall bear the facsimile signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the date of issuance of the bond to which said coupons pertain.

Sec. 4. All bonds issued under this act and sold shall be deemed to have been called in at their respective dates of maturity and the state treasurer shall, on the respective dates of maturity of said bonds, or as soon thereafter as said matured bonds are surrendered to him, pay the same out of the proceeds of the controller's warrants drawn in his favor as provided in section five hereof and perforate the bonds so paid with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such payment and the date thereof. He shall also, on the said respective dates of maturity, cancel all bonds bearing said dates of maturity and remaining unsold, by perforation with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such cancellation and the date thereof. The provisions of this section shall be applicable also to the interest coupons pertaining to the bonds authorized by this act to be issued, and shall be applicable, as far as practicable, to any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer.

Sec. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury such sums annually as will be necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act, as said principal and interest becomes due and payable.

There shall be collected annually in the same manner and at the same time as other state revenue is collected such a sum, in addition to the ordinary revenues of the state, as shall be required to pay the principal and interest on said bonds as herein provided, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers charged by law with any duty in regard to the collection of said revenue, to do and perform each and every act which shall be necessary to collect such additional sum.

On the several dates of maturity of said principal and interest in each fiscal year, there shall be returned into the general fund in the state treasury, all of the moneys subject to and available for the use of the state land settlement board not in excess of the principal of and interest on the bonds, then due and payable and, in the event of such moneys so returned on said dates of maturity being less than the said principal and interest then due and payable, then the balance remaining unpaid shall be returned into the general fund in the state treasury as soon thereafter as it shall become available, together with interest thereon, from such dates of maturity until so returned, at the rate of five per cent per annum, compounded semi-annually.

Both principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid when due upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state in favor of the state treasurer or in favor of any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer, upon demands audited by the state board of control, and the moneys to be returned into the general fund in the state treasury pursuant to the provisions of this section shall likewise be paid as herein provided upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands duly audited by the state board of control.

Sec. 6. The sum of ten thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared and advertising their sale. Said amount shall be refunded to the general fund of the state treasury out of the land settlement fund in accordance with the provisions of this act on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 7. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be by the state treasurer sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in such parcels and numbers as the said treasurer shall be directed by the governor of the state, under seal thereof, after a resolution requesting such sale shall have been adopted by the state land settlement board and approved by the governor of the state; but said treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date; and with the approval of the governor, he may from time to time, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select. Before offering any of said bonds for sale the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured or will mature before the day fixed for such sale.

Sec. 8. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds must be given by said treasurer by publication in one newspaper published in the city and county of San Francisco and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expense and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds and such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the land settlement fund in the state treasury and must be used exclusively to provide employment and rural homes for soldiers, sailors, marines and others who have served with the armed forces of the United States in the European war or other wars of the United States, including former American citizens who served in allied armies against the central powers and have been repatriated, and who have been honorably discharged, to promote closer agricultural settlement, to assist deserving and qualified persons to acquire small improved farms, to demonstrate the value of adequate capital and organized direction in subdividing and preparing agricultural land for settlement, and to provide homes for farm laborers, in accordance with the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto; provided, that the said land settlement board must pay over to the general fund of the state from the proceeds of the sale of bonds all money which has been heretofore or may be hereafter appropriated and advanced out of the general fund of the state treasury for the use of the state land settlement board on condition that it shall be so paid over; provided, further, that the said state land settlement board may, out of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, pay all or any part of any indebtedness heretofore by it incurred in accordance with law and remaining unpaid, including the interest accrued thereon, unless the rate of interest applying to such indebtedness is less than the rate of interest applying to the said bonds; and provided, further, that the proceeds from the sale of said bonds may be used to pay the debt created by the issuance and sale thereof.

Sec. 9. The state land settlement board shall be and hereby is authorized, with the approval of the state board of control, to invest any surplus moneys in any of the funds subject to or appropriated for its use in bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State of California, and to sell such bonds, or any of them, at the governing market rates, upon approval of the state board of control.

Sec. 10. There is hereby created a state land settlement finance committee composed of the governor, state controller, state treasurer, chairman of the state board of control, and chairman of the state land settlement board, all of whom shall serve thereon without compensation and a majority of whom shall be empowered to act for said committee. The attorney-general of the state shall be the legal advisor of the state land settlement finance committee.

Upon request of the state land settlement board, supported by a statement of the plans and projects of the state land settlement board with respect thereto, the state land settlement finance committee shall determine whether or not a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution.

Sec. 11. Whenever the said state land settlement finance committee shall have determined that a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution, it shall adopt a resolution to this effect. The said resolution shall authorize and direct the state treasurer to prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds and shall specify:

1. The aggregate number, aggregate par value, and the date of issuance of the bonds to be issued.
2. The date or dates of maturity of the bonds to be issued and the number and numerical sequence of the bonds maturing at each date of maturity.
3. The annual rate of interest which the bonds to be issued shall bear.
4. The number, numerical sequence, amount or amounts, and the dates of maturity of the interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds.
5. The technical form and language of the bonds to be issued and of the interest coupons to be attached thereto.

In determining the date or dates of maturity of the said bonds and the amount of bonds maturing at each date of maturity, the state land settlement finance committee shall be guided by the amounts and dates of maturity of the revenues estimated to accrue to the state land settlement board from the project or projects to be financed by each issue, and shall fix and determine said dates and amounts in such manner that, together with the dates and amounts of interest payments on the said bond issue, they shall coincide, as nearly as practicable, and be commensurate, as nearly as practicable, with the dates and amounts of such estimated revenues; provided, that the bonds first to mature in each issue, shall mature not later than five years from the date of issuance thereof; provided, further, that specified numbers of bonds of specified numerical sequence shall thereafter mature at annual intervals; and provided, further, that the bonds last to mature in each issue shall mature not later than forty-five years from the date of issuance thereof.

The rate of interest to be borne by the said bonds shall be uniform for all the bonds of the same issue and shall be determined and fixed by the state land settlement finance committee according to the then prevailing market conditions, but shall in no case exceed six per cent per annum, and the determination of said committee as to the rate of interest shall be conclusive as to the then prevailing market conditions. The interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds shall be payable at semi-annual intervals from the date of issuance of said bonds; provided, that the interest coupon first payable may, if the state land settlement finance committee shall so determine and specify, be payable one year after the date of issuance of said bonds.

Sec. 12. All actual and necessary expenses of the state land settlement finance committee and of the members thereof shall be paid out of the land settlement fund, upon approval of the state board of control and on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose, and shall constitute expenses of the state land settlement board.

Sec. 13. The state controller, the state treasurer, and the state land settlement finance committee shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

Sec. 14. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the fifteenth day of November, 1922, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing, and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 15. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden in the month of November, 1922, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon and in a square thereof, the words: "For the land settlement bond act of 1921," and in the same square under said words the following in brevier type: "This act provides for a bond issue of three million dollars to carry out the purposes of the land settlement act." In the square immediately below the square containing such words, there shall be printed on said ballot the words: "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921" and in the same square immediately below said words "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921" in brevier type shall be printed "This act provides for a bond issue of three million dollars to carry out the purposes of the land settlement act." Opposite the words "For the land settlement bond act of 1921" and "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921," there shall be left spaces in which the voters may place a cross in the manner required by law to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the land settlement bond act of 1921" and those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

Sec. 16. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided, and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

Sec. 17. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state in accordance with law to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922; the costs of publication shall be paid out of the general fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose and shall be refunded to the general fund out of the land settlement fund in accordance with this act.

Sec. 18. This act may be known and cited as the "Land settlement bond act of 1921."

Sec. 19. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Notice to Contractors

Sealed bids will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County, at his office, until Tuesday, September 5th, 1922, at 10 o'clock a. m. (the day when said bids will be opened and the contract awarded) for the erection and completion of Additions and Alterations to the Isolation Ward, etc., together with Covered Connecting Walks, at the County Hospital, near San Leandro, Alameda County, California.

Complete plans and specifications for work on file in the office of the County Clerk in the Hall of Records Building in Oakland, where copies may be obtained by depositing twenty-five dollars. Contracts will be restricted as to the length of time these plans may be retained to ten days. Contractors failing to return said plans and specifications within said time limit will forfeit their deposit.

Each bid must be accompanied by a check for at least ten per cent of the amount of the bid or proposal, certified to by some responsible bank, and made payable to Geo. E. Gross, Clerk of the Board, to be forfeited to the County of Alameda as agreed and liquidated damages should the party or parties to whom the contract shall be awarded fail to enter into the contract after the award or to give the bond required by the Board for the faithful performance of the contract.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

(Seal.) GEO. E. GROSS,

Rev. C. L. Kloss Back From European Tour

Rev. Charles L. Kloss, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, returned yesterday from a tour of Europe during which he witnessed the Passion Play at Oberammergau, and lived several days in the home of Anton Lang, who plays the part of Christ in the production.

Dr. Kloss was accompanied, during his travels, by sixteen other Oaklanders, and with them visited all of the points of interest on the continent. From Oberammergau the party went to Holland and saw The Hague, Amsterdam and other historic spots. Switzerland was next in the itinerary, which included also France and Germany.

Dr. Kloss will give a series of sermons on his travels and impressions, beginning the last of this month or the first of next.

WEIRD SCHEMES USED IN CHINA BY SMUGGLERS

By EDNA LEE BOOKER,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

ABOARD THE S. S. SOOCHOW, Aug. 23.—Opium smugglers resort to every possible method of smuggling opium into Shanghai from the southern ports, according to Captian M. S. Monkman, of the S. S. Soochow.

Captain Monkman, who has been sailing up the China coast for more than twenty-five years, knows more about opium growing and smuggling than has ever been written, and he spins some wicked yarns.

One night at dinner he told us how the Chinese smuggled opium into the baggage of missionaries, which they were certain would not be inspected; how they hid it behind the trunk in his cabin; how they throw two or three old straw suitcases filled with opium on deck and carelessly cover them with an old canvas.

He told us also how the smugglers carried opium in cases of milk tins—and sealed the tins so cleverly that it was dificult for even the cleverest inspector to tell where the can had been opened the milk poured out, the opium paste put in and sealed. He told how they stuffed it into the legs of bamboo steamer chairs, covered their bodies with a paste of opium which had to be scraped off and brought the opium bodly in, as excess baggage, hidden away under clothing and household effects.

But the stories which interested me most dealt with the ship's mascot cat, Minnie, and three dead kittens carried by a Chinese woman.

Cat Discovers Opium.

Minnie, the friendly yellow cat, who is the pet of the S. S. Soochow, lives in a big box, filled with plenty of sand, stationed just outside the captain's cabin. One morning when the captain started down to breakfast he noticed something shining in the box and wondered what Minnie was making such a fuss about.

He started on down to breakfast, but Minnie ran after him. She "meowed" so persistently that he followed her back to her box. Upon investigation he discovered that a tin of opium had been cleverly packed in the bottom of the box and covered with sand and that Minnie had scratched the sand, exposing the tin. The captain received a reward of more than one thousand dollars when he notified customs officials, who confiscated the opium.

There seemed to be a catch in the story, so the officials took charge of the three kittens and upon examination found that they were stuffed with opium.

7 PHYSICIANS
Over 5000 Years Chinese
Herbal Remedies have been used in China. No matter how long experience each individual herbalist has had, he must possess a broad education and ancient and modern knowledge of human ailments. He also must have a sound judgment of each case and understand the nature of human system of different nationalities.
Being a successful herbalist, it is not because he had a long experience, and it is also not because he claimed himself being first rank herbalist on the coast, and accomplish what the others failed. But he must prove to the public whom he has relieved and how many testimonials the cured patients have given him. Then he has some ground for what he claims.
Very few sufferers care to know how the remedies are shipped over to the United States, as long as they get relief.
FONG WAN HERB CO.
548 8th St., cor. Clay, Oakland. Always states the truth and facts, and prints the greatest number of testimonials of any other three herb companies combined. Read our new testimonials weekly.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

How shipping has improved at Oakland Harbor durin gthe past few weeks is shown by the reports from Commissioner Albert E. Carter, of Oakland. There were 750 cars loaded and discharged at the Quay Wall and the Howard dock from August 14 to the 22d.

Following is a report of cargo passing over the Quay Wall in the past ten days. This cargo is from the east coast of the United States, the Orient and European ports, and has no connection with any coastwise cargo discharged during this time, excepting the Admiral Line boats, the Senator, the Admiral Farragut and the Admiral Dewey:

Huntsman—From Antwerp and England, with 3000 tons of sand from Antwerp and 2000 cases of glass from England, and 300 tons of chalk from England. This boat took out cargo of canned goods for Liverpool, London and Hull.

Senator—From Portland and Seattle, with 500 tons of general cargo.

Chattanooga City—From Baltimore and New York, with 1800 tons of tin plate and general cargo, and loading 1000 tons of case fruit and magnasite for the east coast of United States.

Watson-A-West—From Manila, with 1800 tons of copra.

Admiral Dewey—From Vancouver, Seattle and Portland with general cargo, and return to San Diego and Los Angeles with 1800 tons of cargo.

Steel Scientist—From Baltimore and New York, with tin plate and general cargo of about 2500 tons.

Steam schooners arriving here from the Mendocino coast are bringing cargoes of tan bark for tanneries in this vicinity to be used in tanning hides. This tan bark is taken from the trees during the winter months when the trees are cut for the mill and when summer arrives there is enough for several shipments to this port.

The log raft of the Hammond Lumber Company, which went aground a few days ago at Coal Creek, while being towed down the river, has been floated again and will be brought down the Columbia river and turned over to the Red Stack tug Sea Ranger, which will tow it to this port.

The Chilean schooner Clara is reported lost with her entire crew of fifteen men. The news was received here today from the naval authorities at Corral. The vessel struck the rocks between Pezoverde and Junta Chahuin during the recent storm in that vicinity.

The steamer West Farallon arrived in port at 10.30 last night from Soerabaia via Manila and way ports. She brought 2400 tons of freight in her hold, besides a deck load of hardwood logs to be unloaded here.

The steamer Nile sailed today for the Orient with a full cargo of freight and many passengers. In her treasure tank is $500,000 of silver bullion which goes to China. During the past few months several of the steamers en route to the Orient from this port carried silver bars across.

Crowley's new barge was launched yesterday from his shipyard at East Oakland and after her gear is installed, she will be placed in commission on the bay. She is 125 feet in length and 40 feet beam. When in operation she will draw 12 feet of water. The new barge is fitted with water tight compartments.

Contracts for the construction of a new wooden tug for the C. A. Smith Lumber Company of this city were given to Nunes Brothers, and the boat will be constructed on the river. She is to be 57 feet in length and 16 feet beam with an engine of 165 horse power and will cost about $37,500. D. W. Dickie is the designer of the new craft, which will be used in towing barges from Oakland Harbor to their plant and Bay Point, and other points whenever lumber is wanted. The C. A. Smith Company has large mills at Oakland, Bay Point and Coos Bay. They operate the steamers Johanna Smith, C. A. Smith and the Cottonplant. Each of these crafts can carry one and a half million feet of lumber on each voyage.

Captain H. E. Cousins, steamer Ruth Alexander.

Captain J. C. Ahlin, steamer Washington.

Captain C. Erikson, gas schooner Albertine.

HAWAII SHORTAGE NEARS $750,000

HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Physicians attending John Guild, former secretary of the firm of Alexander and Baldwin, have announced that Guild's health is so improved that he soon may be able to go to the company's office to aid in untangling accounts. Guild has been seriously ill at his home and was reported unconscious two days prior to the announcement Monday that his accounts were short.

Auditors checking Alexander and Baldwin's accounts today stated that the alleged shortage had now grown to nearly $750,000. Guild has assigned to the firm personal property, including two homes valued at $30,000, two other homes valued at $15,000, a bank deposit of approximately $65,000, credit of $8000 at a stock broker's office, and shares of Alexander and Baldwin stock.

Surgeon Revives British "Dead Man"

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The recovery of a "dead" man during a remarkable brain operation is described by Sir William MacEwen, regius professor of surgery at Glasgow university.

The man was practically dead, according to MacEwen, having ceased to breathe before his admission to the hospital. But an operation was begun, nevertheless, artificial respiration being resorted to. No anaesthetic was used.

The trouble was a large abcess and two ounces of pus had been removed, when natural breathing suddenly re-started. The staff, with white, drawn faces from their arduous work, were still standing around the man they had drawn from the brink of the grave when he suddenly recovered consciousness and exclaimed: "What's all this damned fuss about?"

"It had a startling effect on the staff," comments MacEwen. "The unseeing eye which had been open all the time suddenly saw."

Movies Increase Crime, Britons Told

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Commercial recreation is retarding civic life and making it impossible for cities to attain permanent civilization in America, George Albert Bellamy, of Cleveland, Ohio, declared before a convention here.

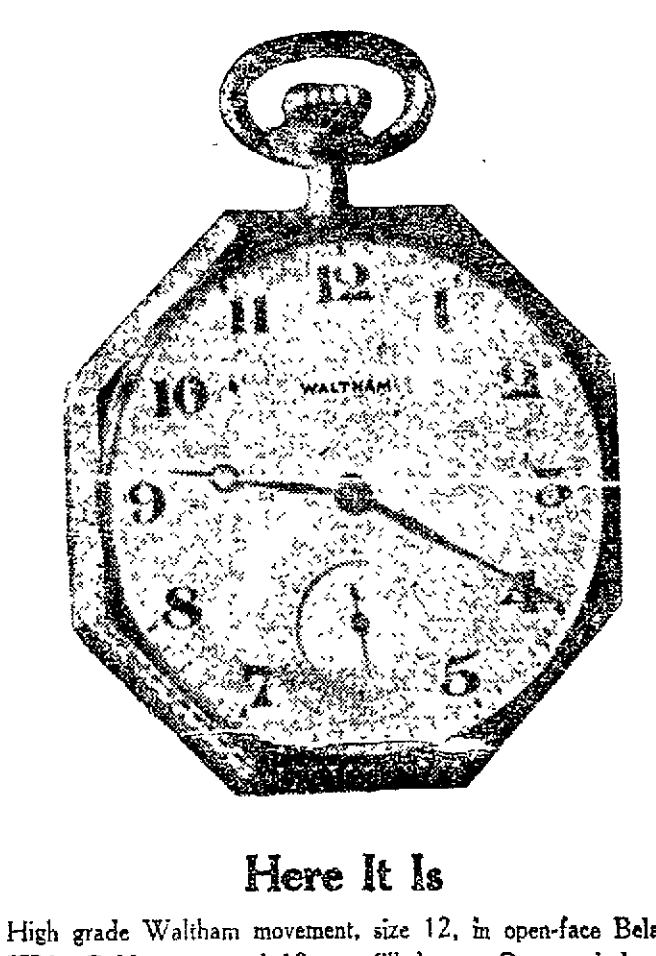

The influence of the motion picture upon the imagination of American youth is responsible for the growth of crime, Bellamy said.

BUSINESS and FINANCE

A rejection by railroad executives of the Railroad Brotherhoods' peace offer imparted a reactionary trend to opening prices on the New York Stock Exchange. Steels, oils, tobaccos and some unclassified shares moved to higher ground, but rails, shipping and gas shares sold at concessions. New highs for the year were established by Consolidated Cigar, Reynolds Tobacco, Dome Mines, Public Service of New Jersey, Brown Shoe and Eastman Kodak. Mexican Petroleum sold off at the opening, but soon strengthened and moved up one point with sympathetic advances in Pan-American shares and Houston Oil, presumably in response to the settlement of the Mexican export tax question. The advance in steels which was led by Crucible, with a gain of 1½ points, was attributed to improved conditions and expectations of higher prices. Early declines in rails were largely fractional. Marine preferred dropped one point to another new level.

The irregular trend continued to the forenoon. Pool operations were a potent influence in the rapid rise of special stocks, but there were also indications of buying, apparently predicated on the belief that railroads generally were in a good position to continue the movement of the traffic without further serious interruptions. Merchandies and public utilities were in good [illegible] 3 points. Weakness persisted, however, in the shipping issues while chemicals also were subject to reactionary influences. Standard rails yielded slightly and showed little recuperative power. Crucible had extended its rise to 3 points before noon and Studebaker was 2 up. Call money opened and renewed at 3¾ per cent.

Some of the active issues on the curb market showed a reactionary tendency early including the high priced Standard Oil issues whose par values have been reduced to $25 per share. In later trading Standard Oil stocks were again strong, Kentucky becoming the most prominent feature with an advance of 1½ points to 101. New York was traded in at 418 to 446, selling 11 points below its recent high. Indiana yielded 1 point to 114½ but rallied after midday when it was again in brisk demand.

Independent oil stocks were irregular, Southern States Oil being a strong feature, ranging above 16. Kirby Petroleum maintained much of the gain made yesterday, selling at 7 to 6¾. Cities Service was traded in at 195½. Industrial issues moved within a comparatively narrow range but there were some strong features. Mining stocks weer under pressure but became strong in the afternoon. Ray Hercules and Goldfield Development continued active and strong in the mining group.

Early dealings in the bond market today were subject to the same irregularity as stock prices. Rail mortgages were again the most active, Long Island refunding 4s yielding 1⅛, ith nominal losses taking place in Chesapeake and Ohio convertible 4½s, Erie general 4s, Pennsylvania 6s and St. Paul convertible 4½s. However, Norfolk and Western convertible 6s moved up a point while smaller advances were registered by Frisco Income 6s, Southern Railway 5s and Seaboard Air Line adjustment 5s.

French 8s receded slightly in response to the weakening of Paris exchange, but Japanese 4s and Belgian 7½s moved to higher ground. Liberty 3½s advanced slightly, but other government issues showed declines of 10 to 20 points.

Heavy liquidation of International Mercantile Marine 6s forced that issue down 3¾ points while American Telephone convertible 6s fell back 2½, presumably on the announcement of a further stock issue by that company.

American Cotton Oil 5s and Chile Copper 6s gained substantial fractions while losses of similar character took place in General Electric 6s and American Smelting 5s.

AMERICAN TEL. & TEL. CO. TO ISSUE $115,000,000 STOCK.

Directors of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company today in New York voted to offer stockholders of record on September 8, one share of new stock at par for each five shares outstanding for a total amount of $115,000,000.

Payments for new stock will be spread over a period of eight month, first installment of $20 being due November 1; second of $40, March 1, 1923, and [illegible] of $40 on July 1.

Interest at the rate of 6 per cent, amounting to $1.60 a share, will be allowed on installments payments from their due dates to July 1 and will be credited on final payment reducing it to $38.40. Stock so paid for will be issued under date of July 1, 1923.

But subscribers, however, will be permitted to pay subscriptions in full on November 1, 1922, or having made first payment when due they may pay the two remaining installments March 1 1923. In such instances excess amount which company will pay in dividends at current rate of 9 per cent up to July 1, 1923, over interest on money paid up to that date must be paid in addition. If, therefore, subscriptions are paid in full on November 1, 1922, price per share will be par plus $2.75, total of $102.75 a share, and if final installments of $80 a share are made March 1, 1923, amounts payable then will be $2.10 a share additional, or total of $82.10 a share. Stock so paid for will be issued as of its date of final payment.

BIG FRUIT FARM CONCERN WILL OFFER BOND ISSUE.

Stephens and Company will offer tomorrow morning $250,000 First Mortgage 7 per cent Bonds of the California Fruit Farms Corporation. This corporation owns in fee 1025 acres of highly developed land near Newcastle. The property consists of ten ranches, each of which is a complete operating unit within itself, with individual water systems, buildings and packing houses.

The indenture securing these bonds has the rather unusual feature providing that if the properties are not being operated satisfactorily the trustee of the bonds may immediately take steps to keep the properties up to the highest state of production.

Crops are highly diversified, permitting harvesting and caring for orchards with minimum labor costs. All the fruit raised on the properties is marketed under the Virden Foothill Fruit Brand, being shipped and sold through the Pioneer Fruit Company, a subsidiary of the Virden Packing Company.

Charles E. Virden, president of the Virden Packing Company, of Sacramento, is the largest stockholder of the California Fruit Farms Corporation. Virden is one of the best known growers of fruit in the state. He is chairman of the executive committee of the California Fruit Distributors and president of the American Fruit and Vegetable Shippers' Association, whose headquarters are in Chicago. He is also president of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce and vice-president of the Sacramento-San Joaquin Bank, and was for seven years general manager of the California Fruit Distributors, an organization composed of shippers of fresh deciduous fruits, which organization ships nearly 70 per cent of the fresh deciduous fruit going out of California.

The properties have been appraised by the American Appraisal Company at over 3½ times the amount of the issue of bonds and net earnings for the last two years were over four times the interest charges on this issue.

Application has been made to the superintendent of banks to certify these bonds as legal investment for savings banks in California, and they will be offered subject to such certification.

It is understood that they will be offered at par to yield 7 per cent.

CONTRA COSTA BONDS GO TO EASTERN FIRM.

An eastern investment banking institution, bidding a premium of $3433 was awarded the issue of $40,000 Brentwood, Deer Valley School District, Contra Costa County 6 per cent bonds due 1923 to 1942.

Freeman, Smith and Camp Company bid a premium of $3240; Bank of Italy, $3108, and William Cavalier and Company, $3057.

PACIFIC AND ASSOCIATED MAKE OFFER FOR VENTURA.

A report from New York says: "The Pacific Oil and Associated Oil managements have made a thorough examination of property of Ventura fields and from this examination they have decided that the property is worth $31 a share. As it is understood that those with a controlling interest in the company will not dispose of their stock unless all shareholders are given the same offer, Pacific Oil is, therefore, willing to pay a total of $18,600,000 for the property. This offer is made with the understanding that the Federal Trade Commission will give its sanction to the sale. And it is understood that the matter is now under consideration by the commission. Regarding the report from Boston to effect that Pacific Oil Company has agreed to pay $31 per share for Lapham and Coolidge holdings of Ventura Consolidated Oil Field Company, an executive official of the Pacific Oil Company said: 'It is all news to me.'"

THREE OIL COMPANIES INVOLVED IN MERGER.

Details of the absorption of the Conservative Oil Company and the New York Oil Company by the North American Oil Consolidated are announced by President Louis Titus of the last named. The North American has purchased the Conservative by payment of 562,500 shares of North American stock of the par value of $1 each. By the deal the North American secures besides much land $140,000 in cash and $30,000 worth of oil equipment, recently purchased by the Conservative. The $140,000 is now in the treasury of the latter company.

The Conservative Oil Company has 700,000 shares of the par value of $1 each outstanding, out of an authorized issue of $3,000,000. It controls 1680 acres of proved and potential oil land in the Midway field. This land is held under government leases, with royalties on a sliding scale based on productivity. It is understood that these royalties for the smaller wells will amount to 17½ per cent of the actual oil produced.

For the purchase of the New York Company the North American directors have voted to issue 200,000 shares of their capital stock. The New York Company, which is capitalized at $200,000, owns the lease of 160 acres southeasterly from Maricopa in the Midway district. There have been some productive wells on this section, and the Union Oil owns forty acres immediately west and adjoining this quarter.

LAWRENCE TO DEVOTE ENERGIES TO SHIPPING.

Explaining some of the details of his recent sale of the Lawrence Warehouse Company to a syndicate headed by A. T. Gibson, secretary and treasurer of the concern for $150,000, V. O Lawrence said today that he plans to devote all his energies hereafter towards the upbuilding of the shipping interests of Oakland. One of the new men coming into the Gibson syndicate is J. C. Swain, a Boston importer. The warehouse business disposed of covered practically the whole coast. It was established in 1912 and now has depots from San Diego to Bellingham, Wash.

"I have retained the Lawrence Terminal, with the present service of the American-Hawaiian line and the present coastwise service and my interest in the Bay Cities Transportation Company," says Lawrence.

CRUDE OIL OUTPUT SHOWS SLIGHT DROP.

The daily average gross crude oil production of the United States decreased 11,700 barrels for the week ending August 19, totaling 1,492,450 barrels as compared with 1,504,150 barrels for the preceding week, according to the weekly summary of the American Petroleum Institute today.

Oklahoma and Kansas show a daily average gross production of 457,300 barrels, a decrease of 850 barrels; North Texas shows a decrease of 650 barrels; Central Texas a decrease of 1750 barrels; North Louisiana an increase of 150 barrels, and Arkansas a decrease of 2350 barrels. In Oklahoma production of the Osage nation is shown as 12,150 barrels against 11,750 barrels, and output of the Lyons-Quinn pool was 16,000 barrels against 17,250 barrels.

The Mexia pool in Central Texas is reported at 62,000 barrels, against 64,000 barrels; Haynesville, North Louisiana, 55,450 barrels against 55,200 barrels, and Eldorado, Ark., 29,650 barrels against 32,600 barrels. In the Gulf Coast field West Columbia is reported at 32,350 barrels against 34,000 barrels and Orange county 16,760 barrels against 17,000 barrels.

No changes were reported in crude oil prices for the major districts. Mid-Continental crude is quoted at $1.25 a barrel, Pennsylvania at $3 a barrel, and Gulf Coast at $1.25.

WIRE SUMMARY

Great Northern Railroad's net operating income for July showed an increase of $1,000,000 over July, 1921.

Soft coal production is expected to reach 9,000,000 tons a week by the first week in September, says the N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Union Pacific reports a net operating income of $2,432,991 in July, as against $2,142,133 a year ago, seven months net is $12,431,140, as against $13,262,910 for the corresponding period in 1921.

Stewart Warner Speedometer Company's 1922 sales to date show an increase of 12 per cent over the entire year 1921. August sales are running 15 per cent in excess of those for any month in the company's history.

American Drug Syndicate's financial statement for six months ended June 30, 1922, shows a net profit of $100,948, against a deficit of $471,340 in the first half of 1921.

A reduction of $250,000 in the valuation of the producing mining claims of the Phelps Dodge Corporation, Copper Queen Branch, has been made by the state tax commission, which had previously placed the value at $47,305,380.

According to Dow Jones & Co., the surplus freight cars in the country for the week ended August 8, were 163,880, a decrease of 21,017 since July 31.

American Locomotive Company has orders for thirty new Mikado type locomotives from the Louisville & Nashville railway.

PROVISIONS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The market for packing house products is dull with small price changes from day to day. Ex rt sales of lard are more than a year ago Monday's sales were 3,171,000 pounds, or a little more than half as compared with a year ago. Domestic business is fair. Butter is in demand with fractional price changes and egg prices are firm.

THE COMPANY

Steady Growth in Customers Served

The Great Western Power Company of California serves 28 communities in Northern California, including San Francisco, Oakland and the Bay Cities; 2340 new customers were added during the year 1920-21. Contracts now on the books for current not yet connected practically insure an even greater increase for 1922.

Operating Expenses

On May 7, 1921, the new 64,000 h.p. hydro-electric plant at Caribou was placed in operation. Because of the relatively smaller cost of generating electric current from water power sources, operating expenses for 1921 decreased $338,918.78, or 13%. The operating ratio—the relation of operating expenses to income—decreased from 43.41% in 1920 to 34.74% in 1921. Today, over 98% of the current generated and sold by this company is produced from hydro-electric sources—the cheapest power source known.

THE STOCK

Great Western Power has an Unbroken Dividend Record

For the past six years the earnings of this company have averaged about six times the preferred stock dividend requirement. After paying 1921 preferred stock dividends of $231,888, a surplus of $1,474,801 remained.

Non-assessable.

Free from all state, county and municipal taxes in California except inheritance taxes.

Purchase may be made in any amount from one share upward

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Cotton was weak under pressure at the start today, growing out of the less favorable strike news and poor cables. New Orleans and Wall Street bought on the decline. At the end of the first fifteen minutes the market was steadier with prices about 5 to 6 points above opening levels.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 24.—Moderate spot business. Prices steady. Sales 7000 bales. American middling, fair, 14.90; good middling, 14.03; full middling, 13.88; middling, 13.78; low, 13.33; good ordinary, 12.48; ordinary, 11.38. Futures opened steady.

The market closed barely steady today at a net decline of 19 to 27 points.

PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24.—Settlement of the anthracite strike will mean a great deal to this section of Pennsylvania. Idleness of 200,000 mine workers, six days a week for twenty weeks, means a loss of twenty-four million working days and approximately $100,000,000 in earnings. These losses, naturally will never be made up. Business throughout the anthracite regions has suffered greatly since April 1. Philadelphia and New York are the chief sources of mercantile supplies for the anthracite territory and wholesale and jobbing houses in all lines have felt the serious effect of the protracted idleness of so many men.

Virtual settlement of the bituminous coal strike and the belief that the difficulties between the railroads and the striking shopmen will be composed, is expected to supply the needed impetus that business has been waiting for ever since the two adverse situations came about. The outlook for fall may be said to be splendid.

POTATO OUTLOOK IS FOR BIG CROPS AND LOW PRICES

Rate of Cent a Pound At Ranch Seen by Growers From Present Forecast.

Cheap potatoes this fall is forecast from the present condition of the market and advance reports on crop conditions. According to information reaching the big buyers the California crop will be very large and the prices little if any over half of last year. Thus Eugene Austen of the Hunt, Hatch Company after a trip through the principal producing regions said today that growers were making contracts at a cent a pound at the ranch against 2 cents a year ago. Idaho stuff is now being contracted for at 65 cents a hundred. Freight here is about 60 cents, which would mean that shipments could be laid down in the bay region at about $1.25 per 100 pounds.

The first full carload of grapes from Lodi for the season left yesterday. The shipment was made up altogether of Black Prince grown in the district, all the fruit companies pooling their interests to make up the carload. Unusually cold weather of late has made growers anxious and many fear that a very early fall is due, with its accompanying rains. Already leaves are beginning to fall from many shade treees. The first rain last year came September 20, but was not heavy enough to do injury.

CONDITIONS IN OIL ARE EXPECTED TO IMPROVE SOON

The unfavorable conditions now prevailing in the oil industry are probably only temporary, according to an analysis of the situation compiled by The Magazine of Wall Street. The following are some of the reasons presented in support of this view:

"Accompanying the announcement of the first cut in California crude oil was the statement that over-production was responsible for the readjustment, and when the Standard Oil and Sinclair interests inaugurated a third revision of Mid-Continent crude early in August it was stated by the latter company that operators had failed to heed repeated warnings that unnecessary drilling would result in just such action. On the other hand, there have been those who have not hesitated to advance the government's investigation of the gasoline situation as the moving motive in revamping of quotations on crude oil and its principal refined product.

CALIFORNIA PRODUCTION.

"Without entering into a discussion of the latter phase of the situation it is evident, that the continued pressure of over-production and the increasingly unfavorable statistical position were sufficient justification for a break in existing quotations. In California, excess of production over consumption averaged 45,000 barrels a day in the first half of the current year. Oklahoma has been a notorious offender in adding to the burden of heavy production and for several months daily average crude output has been growing. The increase in daily production over that of June, 1921, was some 100,000 barrels, although there has been no corresponding increase in the amount of new development work. The explanation for this apparently contradictory situation lies in the extraordinarily heavy flush production from wells in the Bristlow, Burbank and Lyons pools. Because of the unusual productivity of these pools the state has accounted for more oil than ever before.

GASOLINE STOCKS GROW.

"In spite of the greatly increased demand for crude oil, consumption of petroleum products, excepting gasoline, has been disappointingly slow in appearing, and where it was hoped earlier in the year that the demand for gasoline would be large enough to carry the industry through the summer without price cuts, this hope has been dashed as the balance of heavy domestic production and imports over consumption has carried stocks above ground to record totals and prices were finally forced to yield to this pressure. It is not to be inferred that Mexico will cease to be a factor in the oil industry, for there are still immense reserve areas to be drawn upon. Nevertheless, it is entirely reasonable to suppose that restricted importation of Mexican oil may become a more immediate factor in the domestic price situation.

"Weekly reports of average daily crude production have so far failed to indicate any diminution in output by domestic producers in spite of recent price cuts. While this lends an unfavorable aspect to the situation, it is probable that heavy flush production in Oklahoma will shortly begin to cease and present low prices for crude are not conducive to continued new drilling.

"It is rather too early to determine what effect the various influences enumerated will have on the immediate trend of the industry, but it is entirely probable that the present depression is largely temporary."

COOL WEATHER IS PROVING HELP TO FRUIT GROWERS

Conditions Are Favorable for Delaying Rapid Ripening; Bean Crop Flourishing.

Unusually favorable weather prevailed for advancing the growth of all unmatured crops; no rain fell, and the temperatures were moderate. Along the coast there were many foggy mornings which conserved moisture and they were just what was needed to promote a slow and healthy growth of field beans and truck crops in general. The moderate temperatures were also beneficial in delaying the ripening of peaches, pears, plums and grapes, as the tie-up of railrods stopped shipments for several days and the losses would have been much heavier if the fruit had ripened more rapidly, says the United States Weather Bureau report today.

Pastures are getting short, though in most places there is still sufficient feed for stock, which continue in good condition. The third crop of alfalfa is extra good, both in quality and quantity. Hay in the southern counties is about all baled and it is being stored or marketed as rapidly as possible. Vetch in Humboldt county has turned out well; it is now being thrashed.

GOOD CORN CROP.

An excellent crop of milo corn has been harvested in the Imperial valley; the humid days and cool nights being especially favorable for corn as well as cotton. Hops are ripening rapidly in Sonoma county, and picking will begin this week. Sugar beets are doing well and field beans are in excellent condition, the vines being unusually thrifty and loaded with good sized pods except in San Luis Obispo and Ventura counties, where the crop is slow in setting pods and about two weeks late in ripening. Sweet potatoes in Merced and Stanislaus counties have fully recovered from frost injury and now are in good condition

CANNING UNDERWAY.

Peaches are being canned and dried in large quantities, and the crop is extra good. The pear and plum season is drawing to a close. Prunes are developing nicely and picking will begin this week. Some complaint is made of prunes dropping more than usual, especially in orchards that have not been sprayed. This dropping, especially in the San Joaquin valley, is supposed to be due to heat and fungus, and the crop there will be lighter than expected.

An excellent crop of Gravenstein apples is being harvested in Sonoma county. Walnuts are maturing nicely with nuts of large size. The picking of the almond crop has begun in Sacramento county. Thompson and Malaga grapes are being shipped in increasing quantities and Thompson seedless grapes in the San Joaquin valley are being picked for raisins. In San Diego county some Muscat grapes are ripe but it will be about ten days before a good beginning will be made in harvesting this crop.

U. S. to Open Huge Reserve of Timber

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The largest compact body of yellow pine timber owned by the federal government, a tract of 650,000 acres in eastern Oregon, is soon to be opened for sale and development, the forest service announced today. The tract is on the watershed of the Silvies river, in the Malheur national forest and is said to contain 7,000,000,000 feet of mature saw timber.

The forest service announced the sale, in pursuance of "the federal policy of putting the forests of our country to their highest use instead of locking up valuable timber resources so that they are of no benefit to the American people."

Forest service officials said, however, that the land would be sold for development under government regulations so framed as to "insure continuous production for all time," of 50,000,000 to 60,000,000 board feet annually.

Mark Gets Down to 2000 for $1

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Reported failure of the reparations commission to reach an agreement with the German government, combined with disquieting cable despatches regarding political and economic conditions in Germany, today caused another sharp collapse in German echange. Marks, which have been steadily declining for the last two months, were quoted at 5⅛c a hundred, or approximately 20 for a cent. Normal, or pre-war price of the mark was 23.8 cents each.

French francs also sank to the year's lowest level, being quoted at 7.76 cents each. Slight reactions also took place in demand sterling and other European remittances.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The German mark took another downward plunge today and touched 8,600 to the pound sterling on heavy selling by speculators who were disappointed at the failure of the allied mission to secure guarantees from Germany.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Wheat values took a downward slant here today in sympathy with lower quotations at Liverpool. There was rather a general local and commission house selling at the start but support was lacking and the market showed rather an easy undertone. Buying of the December delivery at $1.02½ by local traders checked the decline. Export demand at the seaboard was reported as very slow on account of the weakness in exchange with marks now quoted at practically 2000 to the dollar. The opening, which ranged from ⅝ to 1½c lower, with September $1.01¼ to $1.01½ and December $1.02⅞ to $1 03 was followed by a slight advance all around, then [illegible] somewhat of a reaction.

Continued dry and hot weather in the southwest and the confirmation of severe deterioration in the crop by the government weekly weather report gave the corn market a firm undertone during the early dealings. Buying by a local professional was responsible for a sharp upturn at the start. After starting ¼ to ½c down with September 60½c, the corn market scored gains all around, then underwent somewhat of a setback.

Oats followed other grain. After opening unchanged to ⅛c lower, with September 31⅝c to 31¾c the market rallied slightly, then settled around the initial range.

Provisions were strong on the line with higher hog values.

RUSSIA AFFORDS NO TRADE FIELD, STATE BANKERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 24—Regardless of the attitude of the Department of State toward the Soviet government of Russia, the internal conditions of Russia and the policy of the Soviet government are such that for the time being American business could gain very little by dealings with that country, it is declared in a study of Russian conditions made public here today by the Commerce and Marine Commission of the American Bankers' Association. The facts on which these findings are based come from Soviet publications themselves which are quoted liberally. The report states that the files of the Department of Commerce have been used in preparing the material which is issued in pamphlet form for general distribution.

"Even under a trade agreement our exports to Russia could not have been large in the past and cannot become large in the near future," says the report. "Similarly, nothing our government could do would increase in any important degree private investment in that country. Great as is Russia's need of foreign goods and foreign capital, its internal conditions and the policy of its rules are such as almost to preclude the possibility of obtaining the one or the other.

TRADE OUTLOOK.

"Take first the matter of trade. It is the fashion in some quarters to speak of the opening of the Russian market as a practical remedy for the depression of industry now prevailing not only in the United States but in the leading Western European countries. The needs of the vast Russian population, deprived for years of their customary imports, are pictured as representing an enormous demand for goods. The trouble is that need does not constitute effective demand. Except on credit people can import goods only if they have something with which to pay for them. Russia has almost no such means of payment.

"Although Russia has imported considerable quantities of goods, Soviet statistics show the amount in 1921 on the basis of 1914 prices was only about $125,000,000 or less than one-fifth the pre-war annual importation. Even in the absence of a trade agreement, the pamphlet continues, the total American exports, direct and indirect, to Soviet Russia amounted to about $19,000,000 in 1921, or seven-tenths the 1913 exports to the Russian Empire from the United States, indicating a falling off less in ratio than that which has taken place in the trade there of Great Britain which has a trade agreement.

IMPORTS PAID IN GOLD.

"The most significant fact about Russian imports, it is declared, is that they have been paid for almost entirely out of the gold reserve of the former Empire. The total exports of Soviet Russia during 1921, according to figures of the Bolshevik authorities, were only about $10,500,000, which was about one-seventh the 1913 figure.

"Before the war, exports somewhat exceded imports; in 1921 the imports were more than twelve times the exports in value," the article continues. The difference was made up by gold. In the light of the extreme hardship which an inconceivably depreciated currency is causing in Russia, this exportation of gold must be considered a grave and possibly irreparable blow to the future financialc situation of the country. Moreover, the Russian stock of gold is strictly limited and the current production is insignificant. It can not be long before this means payment for imports will be wholly exhausted. The opportunity to sell goods to Russia, except on long term credit, will hereafter depend on Russian production.

NO EXPORT PROSPECTS.

"The prospect of Russia having an important export surplus in the near future is most discouraging. It must not be forgotten that before the war 70 per cent of Russia's exports were agricultural products—foodstuffs, flax, hides, wool, etc. A large proportion of Russia's imports today consist precisely of foodstuffs. The worst famine of modern times is gripping the country.

"Meantime, there has been still more enormous fall in the productivity of other industries, and small likelihood appears that any of them can produce an important export surplus for some time to come. Were the Soviet authorities to throw the doors of Russia wide open to trade, there might be, for a short time, a considerable exportation of the treasures of pre-war households. Some such treasure still remains and their owners would part with them in order to satisfy their dire needs. Trade of this character, however, can make little enthusiasm in American usiness men."

National Tube Adds to Prices of Steel

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 24.—The National Tube Company here today announced an advance on the price of steel pipe to meet an increase posted by independents a week ago. Stadard pipe black was increased $6.00 a ton while standard pipe, galvanized, went up $4.00 a ton. Other goods were advanced in proportion.

"How Shall I Invest My Funds?"

Every man who earns more than he spends accumulates a surplus for which he must provide. Certain channels of investment have become established, each with certain merits to commend it to certain investors. There is the savings bank, real estate, the real estate mortgage and business ventures.

And there are BONDS.

We believe every man owes it to himself, no matter what his investment habits may be, to acquaint himself with the merits of bonds, with the advantages of bonds for the investment of his funds.

Every day business people come to us with erroneous ideas about the true nature of bond investment. Some confuse it with stock speculation. Some confuse it with stock flotation. Few realize that a bond issue is just a large mortgage loan, but possessed of advantages for certain investors to be found in no other type of investment.

If you are earnestly interested in the best way to invest your money, send today for "Fundamental Principles of Safe Investment." OTRC MEMBERS TO HEAR LONG RANGE SIGNALS

Demonstration on Radio Frequency Set Arranged as Part of Program

Members of The TRIBUNE Radio Club, which meets tomorrow evening, will have as part of the entertainment for the evening a demonstration of long distance radio reception on three stages of radio frequency dyetector and two stages of audio frequency on a Western Electric loud speaker. They will also listen in on the program of entertainment to be broadcast from KLX by the Lyric Quartet.

The set which will give this demonstration tomorrow evening is one that has been perfected by Edward M. Sergeant of the Western Radio Supply company, Twelfth and Franklin streets, and the one which he will carry in his car next Sunday in the OTRC bandit chase. In a demonstration a few days ago on the shores of Lake Merritt he tuned in one of the Los Angeles stations on the aerial which he carries on his automobile. There will be other features of the entertainment program, which will follow the business session.

The meeting will be called to order by First Vice-President J. C. Malcolm promptly at 8 o'clock.

Owner Jailed, Police to Feed Rooster, 4 Hens

A rooster and four hens will not starve while their owner, Mike Shelinski, serves 30 days in the city prison. He was found guilty of a charge of vagrancy today by Police Judge Mortimer Smith.

Shelinski pleaded with the judge not to give him a jail sentence.

"If you send me to jail, my dear little ones will not eat," said Shelinski.

"Do you mean your children," asked Judge Smith.

The arresting officers, E. F. Murphy and E. A. Yannke, offered to take care of the live stock. Their offer was accepted by the court.

Special Opening Offer

Sunday, Frank W. Epperson will put on the market Berkeley Country Club Terrace, an exceptional property. ¼ acres will be sold for from $250 to $600—also you will receive Free Lumber and Material for a neat small, rustic house. Call Mr. Epperson, Lakeside 1600, for particulars.—Advertisement.

Tribune's Singing Newsboy to Be Pythian Carnival Feature

WALTER J. WELCH, The TRIBUNE'S Singing Newsboy, who will sing on the streets and over the radio in behalf of the Knights of Pythias Carnival. Welch guarantees to answer any question on any subject. He urges that people put him to the test when they meet him on the street.

Also He Guarantees to Answer Any Question on Any Subject; to Sing Over Radio

Want to know why canary birds sing? Why jackass brandy has a kick? How many fingers Tom Thumb had? Ask The TRIBUNE'S Singing Newsboy, Walter J. Welch, who will sing on the streets of Oakland soon in connection with the Knights of Pythias Carnival to be held in the Municipal Auditorium on August 31 and September 1 and 2. The affair will also be in the nature of a bazaar and dance.

The Singing Newsboy will be recognizable by a label which is pinned to his shirt and which proclaims him to be The TRIBUNE'S Singing Newsboy, who is aiding the K. P. carnival. He is a former service man and he wears his overseas uniform. He carries a megaphone which also bears his label, and brandishes a crooked manzanita stick which, with his singing, has gained him the sobriquet of the Newsboy Harry Lauder.

In addition to being a singer and an adept at answering questions Welch is a composer and a writer of song lyrics. He will sing his latest song, "Ask the Newsie; He Knows."

Welch has just completed a transcontinental hike, singing his way from New York to Oakland. He will sing on the steps of the Oakland City Hall Saturday and over The TRIBUNE radio soon, it is announced. On Thursday, August 31, he will sing in the parade to be given in connection with the carnival.

The purpose of the carnival is to raise funds for the Pythian Orphans' Home building. The affair is being given by the Knights of Pythias lodges of Alameda county, and is sanctioned by the Grand Lodge of the state. D. H. Wyckoff is chairman of the arrangements committee.

The opening night will be known as "Frontier Days in Wolfville." The two following evenings will be designated as "An Evenin Over the Border." As a concluding feature there will be a "flappers' revue" in which the prettiest bobbed-haired girl in Alameda county will be named.

The grizzly bear produces young every two or three years.

RECEIVERS PLAN OPEN HOUSE FOR ELECTION NIGHT

Tribune Is to Broadcast Returns Beginning at 7:15 P. M.

Many radio receiving stations in the bay district are preparing to hold open house next Tuesday evening to listen-in on the election returns to be broadcasted by The TRIBUNE between 7:15 and 9 o'clock, and after 9 o'clock on a wavelength of 405 meters.

Loud speakers are being installed in many of the downtown radio receiving stations in Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, and at many places in the outlying districts.

A super loud speaker is to be installed on The TRIBUNE building and the crowds eager to learn the results of the election will be given the returns as they are broadcast by KLX. After 9 o'clock there will be four other stations broadcasting as well as KLX, The TRIBUNE, which will operate after the late hour on 405 meters. The TRIBUNE will also run a bulletin board.

The Standard Electric Supply Company at 2208 Broadway will operate three receiving sets with loud speakers in their place of business, which will remain open for the evening to accommodate the general public.

Other places where the general public may listen in on the election returns will be at the home of R. D. Lowell, 1420 Linden street; Phil's Shoeshining Parlor, Fourteenth and Franklin streets, and the Radio Corporation, 329 Fourteenth street. Others will be announced before the end of the week.

Other places that will listen in and post TRIBUNE bulletins will be Hansen Brothers Garage, Dublin; C. Letham, confectioner, Pleasanton; R. W. Apperson, Sunol; Rose's Garage and the Township Register, Niles. At Hayward J. B. Ravano, Vesta Battery Station, will give the returns from a loud speaker on top of the Bank of Italy, which will be heard over the entire downtown section.

Bauer & Baugh of Petaluma will listen in and post TRIBUNE radio bulletins, as will many others in all parts of the country. These places will be listed in The TRIBUNE as soon as definite information is furnished the radio department.

COUNTY BUDGET UNDER DEBATE

Consideration of the budget for the coming year began today with a session of the board of supervisors at which a number of items were considered.

An effort to make the 1922-23 tax rate as low as possible is being made by County Auditor E. F. Garrison, who is going over the estimates of the various department heads with a view to such pruning as is possible.

Garrison stated today that increased property valuation in the county will give a greater volume this year than last, but requirements for schools are correspondingly larger and will offset the increase. This increase represents $6,686,181. The taxes collected this year, in comparison with last, represents $101,000 greater. The schools, however, are asking more than $118,000 in excess of that for last yearfi which will make necessary certain retrenchments in the various departments.

Gang Shoot Out 17 Street Lights

ALAMEDA, Aug. 24.—Seventeen electrolier globes paid the penalty of existence to the Sure Shot gang last night. The young Sure Shots, apparently armed with slingshots, made their way along Lincoln avenue from the 1500 to the 2100 block and along Grand, Minturn and Paru streets, shooting out the lights in real wild west fashion as approved by the best penny thrillers or movie reel. When the raid was over, it was found that seventeen bullseyes had been recorded. Policemen Cook and Boysen have been detailed to run down the young slingshot sharpshooters.

TRIO SILENT IN KENDRICK LOVE BARTER TANGLE

John D. Spreckels Sr. Arrives —Wakefield Leaves Manila.

Silence has enveloped the principals in the Wakefield-Kendrick love barter following the arrival of John D. Spreckels Sr., millionaire railroad and ship owner, and the departure from Manila of Franklin W. Wakefield.

Mrs. Edith Huntington Spreckels Wakefield, former daughter-in-law of Spreckels and present wife of Wakefield, refused to answer all messages at her Sausalito home, where the telephone is disconnected. Rodney Kendrick, newspaper artist, whose affections Mrs. Wakefield is said to have attempted to buy for $100 a month, also refused himself to callers at the Hotel Sausalito, where he is established.

Mrs. Nellie Kendrick, wife of Kendrick, who makes the accusations against Mrs. Wakefield and her husband, also adopted the no-statement stand and declined to enter into a further discussion of the matter at the Alameda residence, where she is staying with her baby, June.

According to Spreckels, he came north for the purpose of attending to his private business and has made no definite plan to interfere in the affairs of his former daughter-in-law. He said that the case was "all news" to him.

Mrs. Kendrick meanwhile is having her attorney prepare to sue Mrs. Wakefield for alienation of Kendrick's affections and will ask $25,000 damages.

INTER-CLASS BRAWL TO END HAZING AT U. C.

BERKELEY, Aug. 24.—Hostilities between the incoming "babies" and the sophisticated second-year students at the university will be brought to a termination on Saturday when the annual freshman-sophomore "brawl" is held on California Field.

"Big C" wearers, representing upper class athletes, will act as mediators in the struggle for class supremmacy. Saturday's "brawl" will bring to an end hazing activities on the campus and in the decision of the various events will the annual battle for honors be determined.

The "brawl" is scheduled to start at 1:30 o'clock and will be featured by a tug of war, relay race, jousting contests and other events. War paint in the class colors will be donned by the participants.

Legion Post Plans Beach Athletic Show

ALAMEDA, Aug. 24.—Alameda Post, American Legion, will hold an all-star athletic show at Surf Beach tomorrow evening. Bill LaRue will referee. Carl Strom is the timekeeper, and Clark Minor is to be announcer. Claude Deal will be master of ceremonies.

MOTHERS TO ENTERTAIN.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 24. — The Washington School Mothers will entertain with a card party Friday afternoon, in the club room at the Washington school. Mrs. William Joseph will preside as hostes. All money derived from the party will be devoted to the emergency fund created for philanthropic work.

CONTRACTOR ARRESTED.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 24. — Walter Murch, contractor of 2714 Regent street, was arrested last night for not placing a light on building construction material piled in the street. He was released on $10 bail and will appear before Police Judge L. R. Weinmann.

RADIO DICTIONARY.

(Copyright by Edward N. Davis.)
(All Rights Reserved by United Feature Syndicate. Reproduction Prohibited.)

ATTENUATION.

When telephonic messages are transmitted over wires, either in ordinary wire telephony or using radio frequencies, increasing distances cause damping of the amplitude of the alternating current. This effect is known as "attenuation" and increases with the frequency with the result that in ordinary wire telephony low notes are heard louder at the receiving station than high notes. This is due to the fact that the frequencies of the sound varies from 100 to 3,000 cycles per second.

RADIATION RESISTANCE.

When power is supplied to a radio transmitting circuit, a portion of this power is radiated from the circuit in the form of electromagnetic waves, the remainder being dissipated in the circuit or in the immediate surroundings. Owing to the fact that the power radiated at any frequency is proportional to the square of the current flowing, the radiative effect may be assumed to cause a definite increase in the effective resistance of the circuit and is analogous to the energy dissipation as heat in a conductor. This apparent resistance increase is termed "radiation resistance" and is directly proportional to the square of the frequency or inversely proportional to the square of the wave length.

WATT

The "watt" is the power expended by a current of one ampere in a resistance of one ohm. When a larger unit of power is desired the "kilowatt" is employed which is equal to 1,000 watts. Seven hundred and forty-six watts equal one horse-power.

"DUO-LATERAL" COIL

A coupling coil with a type of winding in which the wires in successive layers are slightly staggered with reference to each other. The distributed capacity of the winding is small and a winding of given inductance occupies a smaller space than a single-layer winding.

CAPACITIVELY COUPLED RECEIVER.

A receiving set in which the coupling between the receiving apparatus and the antenna circuit is affected by the use of condensers. In a simple form of circuit the primary and secondary coils are fixed permanently at right angles to each other, thus preventing inductive coupling. Capacative or electrostatic coupling as it is commonly known does not give as sharp tuning as inductive coupling.

"STAND-BY" CIRCUITS.

Circuits so arranged as to respond to a wide variety of wave lengths. An ordinary inductively coupled set used with tight coupling will give broad tuning and receive signals from a number of stations. A circuit used for this purpose, namely, to receive signals over a wide range, is also commonly known as a "pick-up" circuit.

AUTODYNE

"Autodyne" reception is produced in a regenerative circuit when the same vacuum tube is used as a detector and as a generator of local oscillations. In this method of reception "beats" of audible frequency are produced by tuning the antenna circuit to the incoming signals and adjusting the local oscillating circuit so as to have a slightly different frequency, the resultant "beat" being equal to the difference between the frequency of the incoming oscillations and the frequency of the local oscillations.

PIANO ARTIST TO PLAY FROM KLX

The TRIBUNE'S radio broadcasting station will go on the air tomorrow afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock with a program by Mrs. Frank Butler, soprano. Mrs. Butler will sing "Spring Is a Lady," "His Lullaby," "I Would Send to Thee a Rose," "Caro Mio Ben," "Mighty Lak a Rose," and "Dear Little Boy of Mine."

The program for tomorrow afternoon was arranged by the Atlantic-Pacific Radio Supplies company, on whose time The TRIBUNE will broadcast. The Atlantic-Pacific company will relinquish its claim to the time of the old Rockridge station after Sunday, when the new schedule goes into effect, with the provision that should the proposed consolidated radio station fail to develop the company be permitted to reclaim their time for broadcasting from its own station, listed now as KZY.

SCHOOL REPAIRS BEGUN DESPITE FINANCE DELAY

Further Improvements Await Decision On Funds Available.

In spite of the fact that the school budgets are not entirely adjusted and the county and state incomes are still problematical, the school business department has gone ahead with necessary repairs and the alterations of the school plants, and plans further improvement if the funds are available for a continuous program of repairs.

Business Manager Don Rice planned a system of three-year replacement funds, whereby one-third of the necessary repairs to the whole school plant could be done each year. This plan was urged as a vital necessity lest certain schools deteriorate beyond repair; but as the budget has been trimmed to a minimum the fate of this projected fund looks cloudy, according to the officials.

REPAIRS NECESSARY.

Certain imperative repairs and improvements, however, have been made prior to the opening of school. Whether these will constitute the full program for the year is unknown until the "three year replacement fund" is saved or lost. The work already done includes:

Rebuilding of the sanitary systems of Prescott and Hawthorne schools, reputed to be about the worst in the city.

Inaugurating the new Crocker Highlands school, with two new portables and a sanitary system. The job will be completed in a week.

FIELDS REMODELED.

"These jobs," says Rice, "are all in the line of school upkeep and must be continued throughout the year as various conditions arise. We cannot replace everything in one year. The school plant is too big. At present we are struggling along, doing the best we can with the finances which are available; but the matter of keeping up the school plant will never be solved until there is a regular, constant reconstruction program, with the funds to make it effective."
